

Groceries.

Why not get some nice, fresh Fruits and Groceries at Our Store. Largest and best assorted stock in Northwestern Nebraska. Prices are right. Quality the best. We want your trade. Alliance Grocery Co.

Minnesota High Grade Fancy Patent Flour.

"Richelieu."

The Best Flour on Earth. Sold Only by...

LEE ACHESON.

J. B. Miller, Auctioneer. Dr. Allen, dentist, opera house.

Be sure U.C.C. & C. and see their stock of saddles.

E. E. Ford came in from Omaha Monday where he marketed cattle.

Collins & Morrison, saddles, always in stock at—CLOUGH & COLLINS.

Dr. Bellwood was called to the ranch of John Martin, Tuesday, Mr. Martin having sustained a broken limb by a horse falling with him. The physician was summoned over the new telephone line which made it possible for him to reach the patient several hours sooner than could have been done heretofore. The line is now complete to Brennan's ranch.

Mrs. John O'Keefe was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia Sunday morning and for two days her life was despaired of. She is improving and thought to be out of danger at this writing.

City Will Use Water Meters.

The city water system will be placed on a meter basis and the council has instructed Attorney Simonson to draw up an ordinance in accordance therewith. It will be on a flat rate of twenty cents per thousand gallons. It will not be compulsory at present for consumers to purchase meters but the reduction will be so much that it will pay everybody to put meters in.

SEE

R.F. Hanson's Line of Table Linen

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

The Marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lucille Elmore to Mr. J. William Reed a Brilliant Affair.

EVENT WITNESSED BY MANY FRIENDS

Ceremony Performed in Holy Rosary Church Wednesday Morning—Reception in Evening.

One of the most elaborate social events of the season and the one in which the greatest interest has been manifested was the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lucille Elmore to Mr. J. William Reed Wednesday morning, November 12, 1902, at 10:30 o'clock. It took place in the Catholic church, which had been profusely, yet tastefully, decorated for the occasion. The aisles and walk leading into the church were carpeted with white canvas and white draperies were hung at the back of the chancel railing. Down the central aisle loops of white ribbon were festooned from the top of one pew to the next and a bouquet of pink and white carnations was secured by a knot of the ribbon where the loops joined. Potted palms and bowls of chrysanthemums and roses were used effectively about the rostrum and altar and over the opening at the center of the chancel rail a beautiful arch of smilax and ferns and pink and white carnations and roses, was placed. From it depended a large bell formed of white carnations and pale yellow roses. The effect was very beautiful.

During the half hour preceding the time set for the ceremony, those present were entertained by the rendition of "Love's Token Marches" by a string quintet led by Miss Lucille Hull, the other members of the quintet being Miss Arvilla Snow and Messrs. F. J. Brennan, J. A. Reardon and S. Rolison. As the bridal party entered the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Hull and Mr. Reardon, the latter playing the mandolin and the former presiding at the organ.

The ushers were Messrs. Will Schlupp, George Burke and Ed Reardon. Miss May McDermott and Mr. Reardon led the party, followed by Miss Elmore and Mr. Schlupp and Miss Bessie Stewart and Mr. Burke. Then came the maid of honor, the bride's sister, Marie, followed by Miss May Newberry and Michael Elmore, the former bearing the wedding ring on a small satin and chiffon pillow. Beulah Smith followed scattering rose petals in the pathway of the bride, who was escorted by her brother-in-law, Mr. D. A. Foley and followed by her mother and sister, Mrs. Foley. At the altar they were joined by the bridegroom and his brother, Charles Reed, and Rev. Father Galvin in the solemnly impressive service of the church pronounced the words uniting them as husband and wife. The ceremony was celebrated with high mass, the choir being composed of Mrs. Raymond and Miss Kridlebaugh and Messrs. Broome and Haley with Miss Hobbins playing their accompaniments.

The bride's dress was of white crepe du chien made over white silk and trimmed with liberty silk and hand embroidered roses. The bodice was made with a yoke of tuck silk and the skirt made entrain with the flounce and gores joined by fancy hand worked stitches in white silk. She wore a handsomely embroidered veil which enveloped the dress. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her maid of honor was gowned in apple green Olga crepe trimmed with white applique. She wore a white hat and carried a muff of pink roses. Miss McDermott wore a white crepe batiste dress trimmed with narrow satin ribbon and the yoke of the bodice was formed of white applique roses. She wore a white hat and carried a muff of red roses as did also Miss Stewart whose gown was of white Swiss etamine trimmed with white lace and lace insertion set in medallions. Miss Elmore's gown was a pink silk, the skirt and bodice being made with yokes of all-over cream lace. The yoke of the bodice and bottom of the skirt were outlined with pink roses and the stems and foliage of the roses were laid on the plaits of the flounce. Her hat was of the colors used in the gown and she carried a muff of pink roses. All the bridesmaids' dresses were made with trained skirts. May Newberry wore a white silk and Beulah Smith a white organdie, both simply but prettily made, and they wore no hats.

A sumptuous wedding feast was served at the home of the bride's parents, just the bridal party being invited to it. That evening a reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Reed at the Business Men's club, when dancing and all pleasures that attend upon such an occasion were enjoyed by about one hundred and fifty guests, excellent music being discoursed by Moore's orchestra. Refreshments of punch and cakes were served. The refreshment booth was made a bower of beauty by ornamentation with festoons of smilax and white ribbon and bunches of pink and white carnations. Over one corner of the room an arch of flowers and foliage was placed under which the newly married pair stood to greet their friends and receive the congratulations showered upon them. Mr. Gene Parks received the guests at the door and Mesdames Reardon and Hillier received and presented them to Mr. and Mrs. Reed. They left that night for a short wedding trip to Denver and Kansas City, expecting to return about November 25. Only one thing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day, that being the absence of the bride's father who is in New Mexico where he is planning the construction of some of the railroad work and could not return for the wedding, but he wrote them he would make up for his absence by the cheque he would send in his stead. The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Elmore. She has lived here nearly all her life and the esteem in which she is held by the many friends who have known her since childhood, and the lovable traits of character that make her so, are too well known to require further statement here. Mr. Reed is a very popular young man and merits the esteem and confidence he enjoys. He is a conductor on the Burlington running out of Alliance. These fortunate young people were favored by very many rich gifts. We cannot give a list of them but they were certainly a most beautiful and costly array of remembrances which they may be proud of receiving and consider themselves rich in the friendship that thus displayed itself. Over forty pieces of cut glass, silver and hand painted china were among the gifts. Many beautiful paintings and pictures were received, also a large number of elegant pieces of furniture. After their return they will go to house-keeping in the property second door south of the Elmore home, where they will be at home after November.

IN DISTRICT COURT

His Honor Judge Westover Holds Special Term Thursday Afternoon.

URNS THREE FAIR LADIES LOOSE

And Confirms Some Foreclosure Sales With Dispatch.

Judge Westover held a special term of court in this city yesterday afternoon. Several confirmations of sales in foreclosure cases were made and three divorces were granted. The persons who secured them were Emma Baker from Charles E. Baker, Emma Cockrell from Wm. Cockrell, Mabel F. Edgar from Claude R. Edgar. It is said that for the greatest number of divorces, Alliance leads any town of its size in the state.

The Judge will be here again before the January term—probably the first week in December—to confirm the sale of the Miller & Wildy property which will be sold November 29th. He says the sale should be confirmed soon so that the purchaser can take possession and not lose by the business being closed up. Judge Westover certainly has the interests of the people at heart and nothing but words of commendation are heard for him everywhere in the district. He will hold court in Rock county next week.

Emory Abley came down from Nonpareil yesterday with a load of "spuds."

A Few Facts of Interest to Advertisers and Others.

THE HERALD'S circulation is NEARLY TWICE that of any other Alliance paper. There are very few families in the county that do not read THE HERALD.

THE HERALD is the official paper of the county and all official notices are published therein.

HERALD readers can always depend on getting the best news service, no matter what the expense may be. HERALD advertisers can feel assured of their advertisements reaching more people than through any other medium in this section of the state.

Mrs. E. A. Hall left Monday for a visit with relatives at Denver and Greeley, Colorado.

J. P. Reardon returned Sunday from a trip to Chicago and Omaha, having been absent for a few weeks.

W. W. Norton occupies a half page ad in this issue which it will be to your interest to peruse. Page 3.

Wednesday afternoon, November 19, the ladies of the Maccabees will hold a special meeting. All members must be present.

G. W. Young left Tuesday for a visit with relatives at Central City and his son Fred at Lincoln. He will be gone about ten days.

The young people of the Baptist church are going to give a candy pull Thanksgiving eve. A musical and literary program has been arranged for the occasion.

Jeff Bellwood of Abington, Illinois, arrived here Monday whither he had been summoned on account of the serious illness of his son, Dr. W. S. Bellwood.

The Business Men's club gave the first ball of the season at the opera house last Friday evening. Over fifty were present and it is reported to have been a most successful affair.

Mrs. B. F. Gilman entertained at dinner last Friday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beck, the latter's mother, Mrs. Thorpe, and Misses Pease and Kridlebaugh.

The suite of rooms occupied by the United States land officials has been kalsomined and in other ways housecleaning has done its perfect work and they present a very inviting appearance.

Attorney R. C. Noleman was looking after cases in the district court for Sioux county at Harrison the first part of this week, and next week he will attend Cheyenne county court at Sidney.

A box social will be given at the Eagle hall Wednesday evening, November 19, under the auspices of the L. O. T. M. Ladies will please provide lunch for two. The public is cordially invited.

George Darling returned Saturday from his trip east coming by way of St. Joseph to accompany his sister Elsie home from school. She will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Beck on their trip to California this winter.

Dr. W. S. Bellwood's condition was considered dangerous last Sunday. The injury he sustained in the runaway accident a few weeks ago having resulted in a form of blood poisoning caused by hemorrhages. He is now reported to be improving.

Boost Him Up

- When you see a man downhearted, Boost him up. If the downward road he's started, Boost him up. If he's weak lend him your shoulder, Brace him up till he grows bolder, Don't let sympathy grow colder—Boost him up. If you've got a suffering neighbor, Boost him up. Help him bear his weight of labor, Boost him up. If a man for right is fighting, And set on by foul backbiting, Help him in his work of smiting—Boost him up. Don't be any neighbor's knocker, Boost him up. Don't become a nasty mocker, Boost him up. Don't be in jealous envy revel, Strive to reach a higher level, Send all knockers to the devil. Boost things up. —W. M. M.

Styve-Moe

November 5 Peter B. Styve and Clara Moe were joined together to toll for life on the matrimonial sea. The marriage took place at St. John's Lutheran church about thirteen miles northwest of here. Rev. Garness performed the ceremony. After the marriage in church the happy couple, together with their many guests, drove to the home of the bride where a most inviting wedding dinner awaited them. Here they feasted and enjoyed themselves listening to and singing beautiful music and also played a few innocent games. Rev. Schulz and Mrs. Rev. Garness led the musical program. The wedding presents were many and beautiful, also a large amount of money was among the presents. Clara Moe is well known here. She has studied two years at Luther academy, Albert Lea, Minnesota, and has the last two years been engaged in teaching the parochial schools in the Lutheran congregation near Hemingford. She also taught some in the public schools and was a successful teacher. Mr. Styve is the son of an old veteran soldier. His father is a rich Minnesota farmer. Mr. Styve is a prominent citizen, and an esteemed member of the Lutheran church. At present he is clerking in a wholesale house at Albert Lea, where the happy couple will make their future home. Our best wishes go with them.

Mike Elmore arrived home from New Mexico Thursday morning. He made a special effort to reach here in time to attend the marriage of his daughter but was detained enroute.

Additional local on editorial page.

See Mrs. Regan's new line of cloaks.

Read R. F. Hanson's big ad on page 6.

Interesting reading on every page of the HERALD.

Mrs. A. L. Shipley is up from the sand hills visiting relatives.

Mrs. F. J. Kraemer returned Tuesday morning from a week's visit in Omaha.

L. F. Smith is enjoying a visit from his cousin, George M. Clark of Berlin, Wisconsin.

For Sale or Rent—My residence property; will give possession December 1.—W. D. RUMER.

Eunice, the four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weitz, died last night of scarlet fever.

The Famous Clothing House comes to the front again this week with a half page ad. Read it, on page 8.

Just received another carload of "Perfection" flour. The best in town at $1.20 per sack.—A. D. RUTGERS.

Ed Landrigan and bride arrived from Grand Island Tuesday morning and will commence housekeeping soon.

Miss White arrived here from Denver Sunday to nurse Dr. W. S. Bellwood. She is a cousin of Mrs. A. Blackburn.

Judge Berry was called to Chappell Wednesday as counsel in a law suit, but he was not informed as to the nature of the case.

Do not fail to attend "Queen Esther" given by home talent next week. It will be sung by the best chorus that has ever sung in Alliance.

Mr. C. N. Dietz, Omaha, president of the Sheridan Fuel Co., is a late subscriber to the HERALD and has contracted for advertising space therein.

Ira Bushnell and Ed. Mabin came down from Hemingford Wednesday with a load of dressed beef and pork. The boys made the HERALD an agreeable call.

Rev. J. H. Clay of Norfolk was the guest of Rev. G. C. Jeffers Wednesday. He is the Baptist missionary in Nebraska for the district north of the Platte.

Conductor W. J. Hamilton went to Ravenna Sunday morning and will run between there and Seneca for sometime. W. W. Johnston who was promoted to conductor Saturday took Mr. Hamilton's car.

Claude Cook, foreman of Mike Elmore's Gillette ranch, brought down a car of horses to Alliance Monday night which were taken to the Snake Creek ranch. There was a thoroughbred driving mare in the bunch which Mr. Elmore presented to his daughter, Elizabeth Lucille.

Mrs. W. H. Westover arrived in the city from Lincoln Wednesday and spent a day visiting her son Frank. The Judge came down from Crawford Wednesday night and accompanied Mrs. Westover home today. Mrs. Westover is very much impressed with Alliance.

G. W. Erb and Son returned Thursday morning from Columbus whither Mr. Erb was called last week by a telegram stating that his mother was dying. Mr. Erb stated that his mother had sustained a stroke of paralysis, but that she was improving and he believed she would live for some time yet.

H. L. Cooper, editor of the Tecumseh Journal, accompanied by his wife and daughter, stopped over in Alliance yesterday on their way to Sidney to visit a daughter. Mr. Cooper made the HERALD a visit and promised to stop on his return, saying that it was a pleasure to him to visit such an up-to-date print shop as the HERALD.

Bishop Graves of Kearney conducted the services at St. Mathews' Episcopal church Sunday morning. There were two confirmations at the morning service and six baptisms in the afternoon. He left the following day for work in other parts of his diocese southwest of here, being accompanied by the rector, Rev. George Bernard Clarke.

The public is cordially invited to attend the following services at the M. E. church on next Sunday: Sunday school at 10 o'clock; preaching at 11, subject, "The Voice of Deity"; class meeting at 12; Junior League at 3 p. m.; Epworth League at 6:30; preaching at 7:30, subject, "His Satacic Presence." Quarterly meeting services in one week. The presiding elder will be with us.—M. L. SANDERS, PASTOR.

A letter from Mrs. James Bellwood dated at San Diego, California, November 5, says: "We came on down to San Diego instead of Long Beach where we had intended going. Please send the HERALD here as we think of remaining here. The climate is fine, much warmer and not so damp as farther north. Have rented a cozy furnished cottage and are pleasantly located. James asks you to send one of last week's papers with this week's, for fear we miss the first and you know we depend solely on the HERALD for home news. Address 1645 Union street."

Family Groceries.

GOOD WINTER APPLES 75c per bu. ORDER AT ONCE! BLACKBURN & SNEDEKER

Clothing at cost, at the Fair Store. Those neckties are dandies, at Norton's.

A second hand buggy for sale. J. W. RICHARDSON.

FOR SALE—About 1100 head of ewes and 600 lambs.—MIKE ELMORE.

Sheridan coal, Canon lump, nut and Aker's coal—W. JAMES.

WANTED—By a colored lady, a place to work out of city. Reference. 10-7-31.

Any stock of harness in stock or made to order.—CLOUGH & COLLINS.

FOR RENT—Four furnished rooms, together or separate.

W. E. GILLET.

A candy pull will be given at the Baptist church Thursday evening, November 27, which all young people of the church and congregation are invited to be present, and each may bring one friend.

Deputy United States marshal for the district of Nebraska, Charles W. Pearsall, was in this locality the first of this week to subpoena witnesses in the Miller-Leith-Tiernan case, wherein charges of fraudulent entries of homestead lands by negroes were made. He summoned W. G. Simonson, R. C. Noleman, Tom and George Burke, Joe and Charles Tiernan, Jesse Cobb, J. Wierzt and F. M. Dorrington of this place, Frank Logan of Mitchell and J. L. McIntosh and R. D. Harris of Sidney.

For Sale. Meat market in lively town. Two railroads, Union Pacific round house and shop. A good opening for right party. Address Box 16, Sidney, Neb.

BOGUE'S Just... Received 200 Outing Flannel Night Gowns for Men, Ladies and Children. 65c to $3.00. At BOGUE'S