

MURDERED!

High Prices by

THE FAMOUS CLOTHING HOUSE

Since our advent into the city of Alliance there have been many closing out sales of Men's Clothing and thus far, strange to relate, only one has closed out. We have the Purchasing Power to undersell either the real closing out sale or the fakir. We have "let slip the dogs of war" and the cry of havoc resounds in all departments.

Remember We Discount All Other Sales.

Mrs. W. H. Ward spent several days last week with Mrs. McCandless near Berea.

B. F. Gilman, accompanied by his little daughter and son spent Friday in town.

Ray Phillips was quite ill a couple of days last week but has now entirely recovered.

The Misses Potmesil went up to Crawford last Friday and were enrolled at the association.

Earnest Oldag left Tuesday for Star Prairie, Wisconsin, where he will spend the winter with friends.

Clyde Earnest, a former resident of this county, made a short visit on business the first of the week.

Fred Davison and Ora Phillips have rented rooms and will remain in town during the winter term of school.

Miss Alwilda Church returned Sunday morning from Crawford where she attended the teachers' association.

Mrs. A. M. Miller left for Illinois Tuesday in response to word received of the serious illness of her mother.

Among those who shipped cattle Monday were B. E. Johnson, L. Sampy, Bernard Shepherd and Chris Hansen.

H. A. Mark of Alliance was in town Thursday, interviewing the people in the interest of the Alliance Art Studio.

Miss Mary Herculall spent her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, returning to her school at Lawn, Monday.

The Modern Woodmen gave a dancing party Thanksgiving night which was well attended. A good time was reported.

Any one desiring to secure good books for Xmas gifts should call and look at those for sale by Rev. Connell-They are all of the highest order.

Miss Combs of Sheridan, Iowa, a friend of the Chas. Roland family, arrived last week and will teach the school in that district this winter.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a fair in the postoffice building, December 13. Lunch will be served all day. This will be a good opportunity to buy your Xmas gifts.

The party who took the spool of barb wire from the sidewalk in front of my store building Thanksgiving night will save himself prosecution and personal exposure by either returning said wire promptly or paying for same, together with expense of this notice.—H. R. GREEN.

Rev. Mitchell of Franklin, Nebraska, who is traveling through Nebraska in the interests of the four Congregational academies of Nebraska, spoke last Sunday both morning and evening. In the morning talk he explained the needs of the schools. At night those present were treated to a fine lecture, the subject being upon education, and it was well handled and interesting.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends for their kindness and expressions of sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our baby daughter.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE CARTER.

CANTON CULLINGS.

Bert Stewart is managing the ranch of John Hughes of Marsland this winter.

George Jones is expected home soon from an extended visit among friends at Oretua.

Miss Nellie Langford of Crawford, is visiting with her mother on Snake Creek at this writing.

Arthur Bass sold a span of mules a few days ago to C. J. Wildy of Hemingford, consideration, $125.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winton and James Kennedy were down to Alliance Tuesday from Liberty precinct.

George Lemon and family of Belmont were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Saturday.

Miss Pearl Broshar is nursing a very sore hand at present, caused by an awl jabbing in the left fore finger.

The snow storm of Monday night caught quite a number of our people in the Pine Ridge for wood, but nevertheless all came around right with a good load of fuel.

People will trade in this part of the county. Arthur and Otis Bass have bought their brother Con's stock including horses, harness, cattle and hay for which they paid a good round sum. Con is now making an extended visit with his sister and her family in Montana.

Mrs. Lizzie Bright, George Zimmerman's housekeeper, has returned from her visit to Council Bluffs and says she is better satisfied with this part of Nebraska than when she left it.

The organ which Mrs. Weir made the church a present of is now in its place and has a very fine tone. In Sunday school Miss Mary Clayton is organist; Christian Endeavor, Miss Myrtle Broshar.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Broshar entertained at dinner on Thanksgiving day a goodly number of their friends at their home north of Canton: Lew Leavitt and family, Andy Leavitt and Perry Ball of Lawn, Mrs. G. H. Clayton and family of Canton and Miss Clara Phelps, teacher of the Clayton school.

Canton is still improving. There is now a Literary society, Christian Endeavor society, Anti-Cigarette league, Sunday school and a Baptist church, and we will add that there are more good looking schoolma'ams attending these societies and church than any other place of its population in the county.

The social and supper given at J. C. Berry's by the C. E. society Thanksgiving evening was well attended, about ninety-five being present. A good time is reported by all who attended.

Mrs. G. E. Rooker, and two sons of Belinda, Iowa, arrived here Sunday morning and expects to spend the winter visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Berry, and brothers, W. G., J. O. and J. E. Wilson.

Robbed Senator Gorman.

Senator Gorman of Maryland will not keep house in Washington the coming winter, having decided to close his mansion at Laurel because of a recent experience with dishonest servants. Some half dozen persons in his employ joined in a conspiracy to steal money, silverware, bedclothes and other articles, the agreement among them being that the plunder should go toward furnishing a house for one of the number. One of the servants became alarmed when $450 in cash, some silver and a quantity of other things had been purloined. Confession was made to the senator, who refused to prosecute. Instead he closed his home and took rooms in an apartment house.

The Most Precious Fur.

The most precious of all furs, that of the silver fox, is of a dark sooty black, with tips of white of a metallic luster. The silver fox is found only in Siberia and Alaska. The pelt of the sea otter, which is now nearly extinct, is of a rich dark velvety brown. The animal survives only in Kamchatka and Alaska. Last year $1,700 was paid for a single silver fox, and a sea otter pelt brought $750. Sea otter nets are sunk through a hole cut in the ice. A bell suspended above and connected by a string with the net gives the trapper notice of a capture.

Revolting Spectacle on Scaffold.

A revolting spectacle was witnessed at the execution of a peasant for murder in Widdin Citadel, Vienna, recently. As he was being led to the scaffold the condemned man, Zeco Kamenow, suddenly drew a poniard which he had concealed and wounded three of the warders and a soldier. He was overpowered, dragged to the scaffold and three successive attempts were made to hang him. In the first the rope gave way. In the second he was cut down too soon, and the wretched criminal's head was again put in the noose and held there till life was finally extinct.

Fierce Ants of Australia.

The biggest and fiercest ants in the world are to be found on the far northern plains of Australia. They build hills as big as houses and fight in the most ferocious fashion. Recently a man named James Stanley was pinched to the ground by a falling tree in northern Queensland. He was immediately attacked by bees and huge green ants. When rescued his body was covered with them. He was so badly bitten and stung that he died in a few minutes after reaching the nearest hospital.
