

The News at Hemingford.

KEITH L. PIERCE, REPORTER.

[Keith L. Pierce is fully authorized to solicit subscriptions and job work and collect and receipt for same, and transact all other business in connection with his position as an accredited representative of this paper.]

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Olds were Alliance visitors this week.

H. H. Rensvold was in town Tuesday and went down to Alliance.

Rev. Garness and wife went down to Alliance Tuesday, returning Wednesday morning.

W. L. Ashbrook, the Sioux county ranchman, was in town on business last Tuesday.

Dr. Eikner was called to the home of Ole Moe last Sunday by the sickness of one of the little boys.

Miss Georgia Miller came up from Alliance Wednesday to remain a few days with her parents.

Mrs. James Hollinrake returned Sunday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Henry Shultz, at Plattsmouth.

Miss Lizzie Walker has been ill several days with her old enemy, tonsillitis. At present she is improving.

H. R. Green and K. L. Pierce returned Wednesday morning from Omaha, the grand jury having been dismissed.

W. K. Horneall is suffering from a severe case of scalding, caused by the explosion of a syrup can full of steam and hot water.

Isaac Rooley and A. Sherwood went to Alliance Monday to attend to business pertaining to the Gookin estate. They returned the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodenough arrived Tuesday from Mullen in response to the word of the dangerous illness of their sister, Mrs. John Christy.

Tom Harris and his mother came up from Alliance Tuesday and were met by Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter. They will visit at the ranch a few days.

Mrs. Friel, who was quite ill last week, is now very much improved. Her daughter, Mrs. John Kinsella, stayed with her during her sickness.

Miss Bessie Whaley closed a fall term of school in the Leslie Price district last Friday and returned to her home in Alliance the first of the week.

The many friends of Mrs. Christy will be pleased to learn that there is at the present writing a slight improvement in her condition. Hopes are now entertained for her ultimate recovery.

The Hemingford Roller Mills began operations last Wednesday. It seems good to hear the rumble of machinery and the toot of the whistle speaking as it does of industry and prosperity.

Miss Cora Reese came up from Alliance last Saturday, remaining until Sunday with Mrs. H. H. Pierce. From there she went to her school in the Keane district where she began teaching Monday.

Services were held at the Methodist church last Sunday at the regular hours. Rev. Connell and family report a very pleasant visit with their friends at Chadron and Gordon during their holiday visit.

Pete Swanson enjoyed a day's visit last week with his brother, Swan, who stopped off as he was on his way from his present home at Hastings to Spokane, Wash. Mr. Swanson was one of our early settlers and has many friends here who were glad to greet him.

Mrs. Shindler met with quite a serious accident last Thursday. Not noticing that the cellar door, which opens from the pantry, was open she stepped off into the cellar way, breaking the small bones of her ankle. Her injuries were attended to at once and she is now resting easily.

The Royal Highlanders have arranged to give their ghost social Friday night, January 23. An excellent program is being prepared and everybody is invited to come and have a good time. Every one is requested to wear a mask and the ladies will please bring a basket with lunch for two people. Come all and have the time of your life.

Among the items that were missed last week was the account of a New Year's dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slater at which thirty-five guests were entertained. This was strictly an "Iowa dinner," there being many from the same county in Iowa that have made their homes in Box Butte county. A party of young people were also entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins the day after New Year's. The young people at the Hopkins' home are general favorites and the entertainment afforded the guests was very pleasant and enjoyable.

CANTON.

C. W. Lockwood was in Hemingford Tuesday and Wednesday.

It seems like J. W. Broshar is headquarters for practicing songs and dialogues for the Canton literary of late.

Grandpa Hickey left for his home at Gretna last Friday, from which he has been absent for some time. Mr. Hickey informed us while here that he got his home paper at Gretna and THE HERALD at the same time and he always read

THE HERALD first so as to read the Canton news. Our Canton friends look first for the same news.

Mrs. James Carney, who has been visiting here among relatives and friends since December 30, left for her home west of Billings, Mont., Monday.

Miss Mary Herncall, who is teaching in the Ford-Posvar district, was a pleasant visitor at the home of the Misses Broshar from Friday till Monday.

Quite a number of our people are afflicted with colds and it is reported that G. H. Clayton's family is suffering with a severe attack of whooping cough.

B. C. Curtis came up Friday and put in some door shutters in the cook room for J. W. Broshar. Ben is quite an expert with his tools in the way of carpenter work.

We learn that Mike Butler, one of Liberty precinct's staunch voters, has had his business increased so much of late that he has to have a clerk in the person of Don Zimmerman and aside from his daily work Mike is giving young Jim music lessons on the violin. He first had to teach him to put his fingers on the strings and now he is teaching to take his fingers off the strings. Mike says he is an apt pupil.

Since some of our friends after visiting in different neighborhoods where the telephone is in use have almost got the consent of their minds that it is a useful invention and that the time is short when a line will be in use from Canton to Hemingford, and the writer will add as soon as a switch board is put in at Hemingford, the much needed line will be begun. Then should any calamity befall any one your friends can know of it in two minutes' time.
