CANTON.

Scott Hood is clerking for John Moravak at this writing.

A. N. Oleson has been having a hard tussle with the mumps the past week.

B. C. Curtis was trading in Hemingford Saturday and returned home Monday.

Mrs. B. Stewart and daughter, Miss Dottie, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Zimmerman Wednesday.

Mrs. George Zimmerman is having quite a lot of work done on her homestead which she took a few weeks ago.

Dan McCormick, who came up from Ravenna some time ago, has taken charge of the cattle department at Jim Novotney's ranch this season.

Mr. Post came up from Carpenter Friday and is holding religious services at the church this week and will continue all week and over Sunday.

Yes, the third marriage we predicted some time ago has taken place, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Meek of Malinda and Con Bass of Montana.

Mr. Pierce of Hemingford passed through Canton Sunday enroute for G. H. Clayton's ranch to take Miss Reese to her school which began Monday.

W. A. Randall was in Hemingford Saturday with a big load of potatoes and millet seed which he exchanged for seed wheat, of which he will sow an extensive crop.

W. A. Hood was up from his ranch on Snake creek Thursday. He dropped into our place of business and made us a pleasant visit while on his way to other points in the precinct.

W. S. Nicholson of Whistle Creek, Sioux county was a visitor at literary Saturday night, also Mrs. Homrighusen and daughters, Miss Ethel Mehrkins and Amos Planansky, all of Lawn.

Quite a number of people are getting a move on themselves this week. W. A. Randall moves onto the Bass place and Arthur Bass moves on his place vacated by W. A. Randall, known as the Hood place.

The April fool wind that blew a regular hurricane the first day of April, blew the tops off sod houses, blew hayracks off wagons and demolished them in great shape a few miles south of Canton.

Our literary closed Saturday night for the season with a good program well carried out. A good paper was gotten up by two able editors, R. L. Shetler and Miss Emma Kaper. The items were good in every particular.

Spring is here again and our farmer-ranchmen are turning the soil for a big crop this season. Some have quite a lot of grain sowed already. Those who have begun the work already are the Browns, W. A. Randall, John Moravak, J. W. Broshar, George E. Zimmerman and James Novotney.

Low Rates to St. Louis and Return. From April 29 to 30, inclusive, the Burlington will sell round trip tickets to St. Louis at one fare plus $2. Tickets limited for return to May 4. A good time to make a cheap trip to the exposition city. Ask the ticket agent for details.

Low Rates to Lincoln and Return. The Burlington will sell round trip tickets to Lincoln at a fare and one-third April 15 and 16. Ask the ticket agent for particulars.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Dr. Samuel Smiles, the author of "Self-Help," has just celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday.

Out of 1,000,000 soldiers of the civil war whose heights were recorded, 3,613 were over six feet three inches in height.

TO JACK UP more and more the quality of our goods without making a corresponding increase in prices is our constant aim. We buy

HARDWARE from those who have the best to sell. Our favorites among the manufacturers are those who give us the best value. The makers of the "sell-by-appearance" kind of goods never get our orders. The quality of these goods is what sells them.
