BOGUE'S

Governor Richards Dead.

DeForest Richards, governor of Wyoming, died Tuesday morning at his home in Cheyenne of Bright's disease. Mr. Richards was serving his second term as governor. He is well known in northwest Nebraska, having been engaged in the banking business at Chadron and served a term as treasurer of Dawes county. He is a brother of Bartlett Richards, the "cattle king" of the sand hills.

New Law for Counties.

A law was passed by the last legislature that county commissioners shall be voted for by all the electors in the county. Heretofore they were elected only by the voters of the district in which they resided. They must reside in the district, however. A law was also passed legalizing sheriffs' deeds for lands on which the county had foreclosed.

Maypole Party.

The younger pupils of Miss Minnie Morris will give a Maypole dance in the opera house tonight, commencing at 8:30. The little folks will please you. Don't fail to attend.

District Court.

The spring term of district court adjourned sine die Thursday forenoon.

In the case of Shriner vs. Shriner, divorce granted and Mrs. Shriner was awarded custody of the children. She was given the home, property and money which amounted to about $4,000.

In the habeas corpus case brought by Norman Leishman against A. T. Long to secure possession of his two children which had been kept by their grandparents for about four years the court ruled that the children should remain with Mr. Long but that their father shall have the privilege to visit them at least three times a week during the day time.

Mrs. Susan J. Holdridge was granted a divorce from Ira A. Holdridge and Viola Francis from Henry Francis. No alimony was asked for in either case.

In the case brought by W. R. Akers against M. F. Nolan to restrain the latter from filling up his yard, the temporary injunction was dissolved, permanent injunction denied and case dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Jos. A. Kime secured a judgment against R. Fenner for $534. This was a civil case which has been in the courts for several years.

Universal satisfaction has been expressed both by members of the legal fraternity and the litigants at the expeditious and equitable manner in which Judge Harrington disposed of the cases brought before him. The law's delay has become proverbial but if judges of the type of Judge Harrington were selected elsewhere there would be no opportunity for forming this proverb. Judge Harrington is still a young man and we hope and expect that he will have a career of ever increasing honor till the highest post in his profession be tendered to him by a grateful public in recognition of his sterling worth and unswerving honesty.

WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT

Alliance Greeted the President With Hearty Cheer.

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD GATHERS

President Makes Happy Speech and Leaves With Hearty Good-speed From All.

Saturday last was Roosevelt day in Alliance. In train and buggy, buckboard and farm wagon, crowds thronged to town to greet the nation's chief magistrate. The day was perfect and everybody and his wife entered into the spirit of the occasion. Great preparations were made by the citizens. Bunting and banners were lavishly displayed and the picture of the president was a prominent feature in the windows of the business houses.

Some patriots cut a shine by their prominence and assumption. Others equally patriotic were in total eclipse. Where were they and why did they not appear? The former party monopolized so much of the patriotism that there was not enough left to go round to the latter. And hence tears of disappointment.

The special train bearing the president arrived amidst a salvo of steam whistles, cannon music, cheers and general enthusiasm shortly after 6 o'clock. A platform was erected north of the depot facing the square and to this the president was escorted and introduced to the people by Capt. Ackers. "Teddy" looked as usual, glasses, teeth, smile and all. He certainly showed the benefit of his outing in the northwest.

He spoke very interestingly on the topic of "Good Citizenship," praising the pioneers of the west for their hardihood and strenuous endeavor.

He urged kindness towards one's fellow citizens and that we should be willing to always help those who endeavor to help themselves.

He gave sage advice to the "promising" politician. He bade his hearers beware of promising more than could be fulfilled, and from accepting promises that are impossible of fulfillment.

He strongly urged honesty in public life and decency in private life, especially the latter in relation to one's own family. Some sitting near the president cast anxious glances around, fearful lest the president might express himself more clearly on such dangerous topics. Conscience makes cowards of us all!

The president greeted the school children very heartily and congratulated Alliance both on the quality and the quantity of her noblest product.

The train pulled out for Grand Island amidst the enthusiastic Godspeed of the large crowd, and Theodore Roosevelt departed, bowing and smiling his farewell to Alliance, leaving a most favorable impression on all who were present at his reception.

Marshal Reese received inquiries from the undertaking firm of Yost & Son of Hiawatha, Kansas, this week from which it is thought a former resident of this town was killed by the cars there a few days ago. They say the man was about sixty years of age and that he told the policemen who picked him up that he was a tailor and had formerly lived at Alliance, Neb. His name was thought to be Colby or Cody. This description is so meager that no definite opinion could be formed from it, but a good many think he is Frank Krajicek, who wrote from Omaha to relatives here over a year ago that he was going south, since which time nothing has been heard concerning him. He was well liked here and those who know him earnestly hope it was not he who was the victim of this accident.

The vagaries of the weather in this section of the country reminds us of Samuel L. Clemens' famous discourse on New England weather and ours runs it a close second both as to quality and quantity. We certainly have had a grand review of it during the past week—summer heat Sunday and since then it has been cold, snowy, rainy and blustery with variations; but at present there are indications of the approach of warmer weather.

Sunday at the Baptist church, G. C. Jeffers, pastor. Subject of morning sermon, "What God is to His People." The Lord's supper follows. Evening discourse, "Little Sins." Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Juniors meet at 3. C. E. meeting at 7:15, one-half hour later than usual. Alice Ryckman leader. Preaching service also one-half hour later than usual. Midweek prayer service Thursday evening. A welcome to all services.

Omaha's Mayorality Contest.

The interviews published in the World-Herald relating to the democratic candidate for mayor, coming as they do from voters of all political parties, are convincing proof of his ability, if elected, to rid that city of the disgrace and disaster that has been brought about by the present administration. The democratic platform is the only one worthy of consideration by the tax payers of Omaha. The democratic candidate stands squarely upon it. His past record both in a business and political way prove that his word is as good as a government bond and his record as councilman and as state senator prove that he is honest and fearless in the discharge of his duties.

Whether Omaha is to have Mr. Howell for its next mayor depends entirely on democratic voters. If they do their duty by giving him their loyal support he is sure of election. Those familiar with the situation regardless of politics admit this. Therefore there is a great responsibility resting upon every democrat in Omaha at this time. On the success of Mr. Howell depends largely the future success of the party in Douglas county and Nebraska.

Democrats of northwest Nebraska are with you in spirit, as well as all loyal citizens regardless of party, who wish to see Omaha throw into the deep blue sea the whole quarrelling republican gang and for once give the tax payers a business administration. It will not only do this but inject new hope into the party in the state.
