

DON'T THIS LOOK LIKE A GOOD THING?

THIS PLAY

Was given in Sheridan, Wyo., April 23, as a benefit for the B. P. O. Elks' Lodge, No. 520, and the following is what they have to say about it:

"We, as a Lodge do hereby recommend the

"New Dominion"

CAST CHARACTERS

The Play is a

Cracker Jack

And if you want full value for your money you don't want to miss it. We broke all previous records of the town by $300.00 and everyone was pleased and so you will be if you attend.

Presenting for the first time in Alliance
Clay Clement's Popular Character Study,

THE "NEW DOMINION"

When Manager H. O. Martin will present the clever young character actor,
Mr. Edgar A. Martin

In one of the most famous and popular comedy characters ever created, supported by the following Ladies and Gentlemen who will appear as

To see this Play is to laugh . .

Curtain rises at 8:15 p. m.

Edgar Randolph, a true type of Virginia gentleman	- - - T. A. MORRIS
Morshal Boner, something of a villain and more of a blackguard	- H. O. MARTIN
Chas. McVeigh, a good fellow with few clients	- - - GEO. AYEN
Uncle Polly, an ante-bellum house servant	- - - MR. LONG
Mrs. Randolph, wants her daughter to marry money	- - - MRS. BRADFIELD
Martha, a poor relative from the mountains	- - - MRS. F. C. WILLIAMS
Flo May Randolph, with whom the baron falls in love	- MRS. WM. FRACKELTON
And Mrs. Harding Martin as the charming widow	- MRS. JOSEPHINE DELANEY

Reserved seats on sale at Holsten's.

Sale opens on Saturday.

Prices 50 and 75 cents

MONDAY, MAY 11, '03

This Play will be given at the PHELAN OPERA HOUSE the first day of the Stock Grower's meeting. If you want to enjoy yourself you don't want to miss the

NEW DOMINION.

Reserved Seats 75 cents. On sale at Holsten's, Saturday, May 9.