

Normal School Notes.

On August 3, under the auspices of the junior normal, the famous Bixby-Gregg debate will be given in the opera house. This debate promises some rare fun as well as being something that many people will wish to hear.

Governor Mickey will lecture in the opera house Wednesday, August 5. Everybody will want to hear the governor of the state, so procure your tickets early. General admission, 25c; reserved seats 35c.

Little Della Holsten walked proudly into the model school with her brother Bernard last Monday. Della was a well behaved visitor.

Dr. Horn was with us in chapel last Friday morning, Rev. Howie, jr., Monday and Rev. Jeffers Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Lotspeich, at one time numbered with Box Butte county's most successful teachers was an interested visitor in model school Tuesday. Her daughter Irma is enrolled there.

Miss Edna Bullock, secretary to the state librarian has been with us all the past week. Each day she gave the teachers an interesting talk, lasting one period upon "books," taking up a different phase of the subject each day. She had a collection of excellent books with her which she allowed the teachers to read and gave them many useful suggestions in regard to collecting a good library.

The examinations for state certificates will be held August 7, 8 and 9. There are two students at the normal, Mrs. Cunningham and Broadhead of Kimball county who are studying with that end in view.

Prof. McCoy gave a lecture last Saturday morning to the members of his physiology class and any others who were interested. The recitation room was filled. The lesson was comparative vivisection, a dog, the animal used having the internal organs almost the same in size as the human body. The effect of alcohol was illustrated by showing the manner in which it acted upon small parts of the heart, liver and inner lining of the stomach. The animal used had been so prepared by Mr. McCoy, assisted by Mr. Craybill, that there was an absence of blood or any offensive odor. The students appreciate the labor and trouble taken by their teacher that they may more clearly understand the delicate organism of the human body.

The practice work in the model school began this week and will be continued during the remainder of the term. The teachers who have had charge of the classes were very successful in conducting the recitations and feel that the summer work has been of vast advantage to them.

Visitors this week, in addition to those already named were Mrs. Baldrige and Jessie Carpenter.

The model school is grateful to Ray and Elmer Reed for bringing to the school room, on Tuesday, a large cage containing two pet, red squirrels. The lesson about these little animals was instructive as well as enjoyable.

Supt. J. W. Baumgardner is again an interested attendant at the normal after a weeks vacation spent in Denver.

The class in elementary arithmetic under the instruction of Prof. Bartz is one of the largest as well as one of the most wide-awake classes in the school. Thoroughness is one noticeable feature in their work, taking up little things that are overlooked, usually, and bringing them down to a fine point of understanding. Another good feature is the perfect harmony existing between teacher and pupils.

New pupils registered this week are C. E. Franklin, Bayard, Lena Thompson, Lakeside, Emma Coleman, Hay Springs, Herbert Russel, Lakeside, and Mrs. E. E. Ford, Lawn.

Miss Town of Deadwood, a friend of Miss McDougal, a student, accompanied her to the morning session last Tuesday.

Protect Your Home!

Everybody fears fire and every effort should be made to prevent them starting, even more than to extinguish them after they have started. As long as our homes are built of lumber there is a certain amount of danger from fire, both from within and without. Therefore, any chemical preparation that render lumber fire-proof is a thing very much to be desired.

Such a preparation is now on the market and the public is invited to test its merits. It is called PLUTANICA. It renders all wood work fire-proof and at the same time acts on the pores of the wood in such a manner as to preserve it indefinitely. It costs very little and is easily applied to any wood work.

B. V. Keeves has the agency for PLUTANICA in this district. See him and have a practical demonstration of the merits of this preparation and get his figures for applying it to your home.

Regulations to Prevent the Spread of Scabies (Mange) in Cattle.

Many have read of the new regulations to prevent the spread of diseases among cattle, but a well known stock dealer of Alliance informs us that there are comparatively few who have seen the order issued by Secretary Wilson and upon his request we publish the order in full.

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D. C., June 18, 1903. To Managers and Agents of Railroads and Transportation Companies of the United States, Stockmen, and Others:

In furtherance of the regulations for the suppression and extirpation of contagious and infectious diseases among domestic animals in the United States, dated March 10, 1903 (U. S. Order No. 100), notice is hereby given that a contagious disease known as scabies or mange exists among cattle in that part of the United States lying west of the Mississippi River and the eastern boundary of Minnesota, and in order to prevent the dissemination of said disease and to aid in its eradication, the movement of cattle wherein and from the above-described section of country shall be governed by the following regulations:

1. Cattle that are affected with said disease or that have been exposed to its contagion, shall not be moved or be allowed to move from one State or Territory into another, except as hereinafter provided.

2. Cattle affected with scabies or exposed to the contagion thereof may be shipped for immediate slaughter when transported in cars bearing a placard on each side with the words "Scabby Cattle" in plainly visible letters, said placard to be affixed by the railroad company, or they may be transported by boat when healthy cattle are not carried on the same trip. Said cattle when unloaded on route or at destination shall not be brought into contact with healthy cattle. At whatever point such cattle are unloaded they shall be yarded in pens reserved for the exclusive use of such cattle and entirely separated from other cattle pens, or else the pens shall be immediately cleaned and disinfected after the cattle are removed therefrom. The cars or boat spaces occupied by such cattle shall be cleaned and disinfected as soon as possible after the cattle are unloaded and before being used for cattle.

3. When any cattle affected with or exposed to scabies are found in any stock yards they shall be kept separate from healthy cattle and shall not be permitted to leave the yards except for slaughter, unless they are first dipped in accordance with these regulations.

4. Cattle in the above-described section of country that are not affected with scabies and have not been exposed to its contagion may be moved without restriction, except as may be provided by other regulations of this Department or such as may be lawfully imposed by the authorities of the State or Territory to which destined. Cattle affected with scabies or exposed to its contagion may not be shipped or traded out of any State or Territory or stock yards for grazing or stocking until they have been dipped in some preparation approved by this Department. Until otherwise directed the lime and sulphur dip, made in proportion of 21 pounds of flowers of sulphur and 16 1/2 pounds of unslacked lime to 100 gallons of water and properly prepared, shall be used for dipping cattle. Affected cattle shall be given two dippings with an interval of 10 to 15 days between; exposed cattle shall receive one dipping.

5. Inspectors of the Bureau of Animal Industry will, upon request, give certificates for cattle found upon inspection to be free from the disease and not to have been exposed to contagion, and for cattle that have been satisfactorily dipped under their supervision.

6. Cleaning and disinfection shall be done by first removing all litter and manure and then saturating the interior surfaces of the cars and the woodwork, flooring, and ground of the chutes, alleys, and pens with a 5 per cent. solution of crude carbolic acid in water, with sufficient time to show where it has been applied.

7. Violation of this law is made liable by a fine not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both fine and imprisonment. JAMES WILSON, Secretary.
