Normal School Notes.

The ministers of the city who have been present at chapel this week were Rev. Bogue, Rev. Howie, Rev. Jeffers.

Dr. E. Van Dyke Wright, president of Hastings college, spent one day this week visiting the normal in the interest of the college.

The Hemingford visitors this week were Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Pierce, Rev. and Mrs. Connell, Miss Grace Wheeler, Mrs. Hunter and H. H. Funk.

Prof. A. F. Baldrige, formerly superintendent of the Alliance schools, was present Tuesday morning and seemed much pleased with the interest manifested by both teachers and pupils.

The regular class work was completed last week, and the last five days devoted to regular institute work. The instructors gave one period lecture each morning and conducted examinations in the afternoon. The attendance has steadily increased during the last few weeks, there now being registered 240 students.

High School Inspector Crabtree was present Wednesday and read an interesting paper, "My First School." In this he gave many hints as to the way in which the difficulties attendant upon the teaching of one's first school may be surmounted. The paper was valuable, being taken from personal experience and not ideas advanced that were purely those of theory.

The county superintendents from eight of the counties included in this district have been present during the week of institute work. They are H. L. Fisher, Dawes county; Walter Kent, Sheridan county; J. W. Baumgardner, Box Butte county; Conrad Parsons, Sioux county; H. R. Dellinger, Grant county; Mrs. W. E. Heard, Banner county; Miss Alice Wilkinson, Kimball county, and Miss Agnes Lackey, Scotts Bluffs county.

S. M. Smyser visited the normal last Friday morning and read a paper with the subject, "The Journey from Then to Now." The paper was a fine one, the main part being brought out that if we take care of the Now, the Then will take care of itself. After reading the paper, Mr. Smyser carried the subject still farther in an interesting talk giving illustrations from his own life. There was a general feeling of regret at the close that this gentleman had been unable to visit the school before.

The Wesleyan quartette was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience last Tuesday night at the opera house. The singers are favorites with Alliance people, having made many friends during a former visit. The music was of the best, the perfect harmony existing between the voices, which when singing together has the effect of a full chord on a perfectly toned instrument. The solos were all given an encore to which they pleasantly responded. In the morning the quartette gave two selections for the benefit of the teachers in the chapel room. We are proud of Nebraska's teachers and of Nebraska's singers.

The normal is over. An excellent course of study has been completed, and stronger teachers will return to the schools in the different counties. It has been a success in every way. Teachers find schools waiting for those who have made this effort. New friendships have been formed and old ones more closely bound together. This success is due to several things. First to the untiring energy, management and business ability of Prof. Bartz, the principal. Second, to the zeal, interest and up-to-date teaching of the instructors, Miss Schlee, S. H. Martin, Chas. E. Philpott and P. E. McCoy, and to the earnest, hard work of the students. The teachers, schools and state will be better for this summer school. Better for the lessons not learned from books, but from association with each other and with those of wider experience and greater learning. These schools are the means of lifting the profession of teaching up to that broader level where it belongs and may northwestern Nebraska be blessed with many more, such as this has been.

Following is a list of new students who attended the junior normal:

Chadron—Melinda E. Wagner, Mabel Lambert, Ada L. Lambert, Cora M. Fisher, James Harley, Mrs. Electa Younglove, Roy W. Jones, Bertha Gingerick, Carrie Gingerick.

Crawford—Jessie Rowland, Jennie M. Ellis, Mrs. A. E. Stewart, Ralph W. Stewart, Jennie B. Stewart, Cora C. Williams, Anna Hansen, Perry M. Spease, Iva Spease.

Hay Springs—Laura Gibbs, Ida M. Jennie Bolin, Ruth Waterman, Rose McShane.
Harrisburg—Weltha L. Douner, C. C. Hobson, Erma Rider, Albert H. Warner, Ella White, Mary Farfoot, Jessie Barfoot.

Claude H. Lunde, Adaton; Mrs. G. W. Laubran, Alice G. Whiting, Ida; Mary E. Webber, Glen; Mrs. W. B. Gillett, Esther; Elsie B. Merchant, Mitchell; Bertha Hutchings, Sidney; Sadie McFadden, June Tracy, Kimball; Minnie Clausen, Dix; Maude Lease, Redington; Sadie Waitman, Bayard; Amy E. Christian, Kirtley, Wyo.; Edwin Guthrie, Harrison; Fanny L. Berry, Antioch; Mabel Horn, Rushville; Harry R. Carson, Fay Van Boskirk, Alliance.

Mrs. L. B. Stoner will entertain the Methodist ladies' aid next Wednesday afternoon.

J. C. Fox, city treasurer of Lincoln, passed through Alliance Wednesday en route to Deadwood.

Miss Lulu Duncan went to Crawford Monday to witness the play, "Hazel Kirk," given by Miss Ada Hiest.

All telephones will be cut out from 9 o'clock Saturday night till Monday morning for the purpose of arranging the new boards.

Mrs. J. K. Neal and son Carl arrived today from Spruce, Neb., and will visit a few days with friends before leaving for Oregon.

Leonard Sampsy and B. U. Sheppard are down from Nonpariel today. Mr. Sampsy brought in a fine horse which he sold to Sheriff Reed.

Rev. Father Hayes came in from Cheyenne last night and visited Father Galvin till today, leaving for Vancouver Island, where he will spend a year.

The state board of education will be in Alliance Friday, August 28, for the purpose of investigating matters pertaining to the normal school proposition.

There was a large crowd in the city yesterday to attend the circus. While the show was not as extensive as Ringling's still it was very good and better than most people expected to see.

Dr. Collins, father of our townsman, Ed Collins, has decided to locate permanently in Alliance. Dr. Collins is a homeopath. He is an old resident of Pawnee City and a most desirable citizen.

Judge Berry packed up his fishing paraphernalia Monday and hid himself to Guernsey where in company with Harry Martin and J. F. Ringler he will go to the Laramie mountains to make a raid on the trout. He expects to return Saturday.

John B. Kniest arrived Saturday from Carroll, Iowa, to take a position in this office. Mr. Kniest has been engaged in the newspaper business for the last fifteen years, is proficient in all branches of the work and thoroughly reliable. He expects to move his family here in a couple of weeks. Mr. Kniest is a life-long friend of J. B. Gray of this city.

The teachers institute closes this week. At the beginning of the term ten weeks ago, Mrs. Lora Rustin and Miss Susie Frazier were appointed by Superintendent Bartz to report the work of the normal to the local papers. The ladies have done the work assigned them very creditably, their column being read with interest each week by everyone interested in educational work.

Geo. Gregg and bride passed through Alliance on 41 today for their home at Marsland. Mr. Gregg and Miss Pearl Snow were married at Des Moines, Iowa, yesterday. They are popular young people of Marsland, the bride being a daughter of Postmaster Snow. THE HERALD extends congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness.

At the republican county convention held last Saturday the following candidates were placed in nomination: For clerk, W. C. Mounts; for treasurer, Alex Muirhead; for sheriff, Ed. S. Wildy; for county judge, Smith P. Tuttle; for superintendent of schools, Mrs. Lee Rustin; for surveyor, D. W. Hughes; for coroner, Dr. J. E. Moore; for assessor, A. S. Eneyart; for commissioner First district, Geo. L. Taylor.

Miss Kate Murphy arrived Tuesday from Kansas City to visit at the Elmore home. She will start on her return tonight accompanied by Grandma Elmore who will visit in Kansas City for a few weeks. Mrs. M. Elmore and Mrs. D. A. Foley will accompany them as far as Omaha. Mrs. Dunphy and son of Altoona, Pa., who have been visiting the Elmore, returned Wednesday from Denver and in company with Mrs. D. O'Keefe of Hemingford will go to Hot Springs tomorrow to spend a few days before returning to their eastern home.

The republican party of Box Butte county met in convention last Saturday for the purpose of nominating candidates for the fall election. Some offices seemed more popular among the would-be officials than others. For some offices there were several aspirants and for others it was difficult to find a candidate who was willing to be snowed under at the polls. On the whole the ticket proposed is not considered strong. As in the last county election, however, there may be surprises this time. The republican candidate for treasurer two years ago was considered the weakest on the ticket yet he was the only candidate of his party elected over his opponent the standard bearer on the fusion ticket and his success was due more to sentimental than party reasons. This year he is trotted out as the big drum of the g. o. p. band wagon. The unexpected frequently happens in Box Butte county. It therefore behooves the fusion convention to be very careful in the selection of its candidates. The people of our county vote in county matters to a great extent irrespective of party. If we nominate strong men, they are sure to be elected.

Captain Watson of Fort Robinson is in the city today. A regiment from the post expects to go to Fort Riley, Kans., the latter part of September for a month's stay and will travel overland to Sidney or Julesburg where they will ship from. The captain is now looking up the route and making arrangement for camping and provisions. They will camp a night at Alliance. Captain Watson was in command of the squadron here July 4, and made many friends among our citizens. He is one of the oldest officers at Fort Robinson and recognized as one of the ablest in the service.

Miss Mabel Johnson returned to Alliance from Chicago Thursday. She was accompanied from Omaha by her mother, Mrs. Albert Johnson, and daughter Marion. After spending a week or ten days with friends in Alliance they will go to Spokane, and it is probable that Mr. Johnson will locate in the state of Washington. The family have resided in Alliance for many years and their departure will be regretted by a host of friends.

Whenever a show comes to town there are two persons at least who will be there. They are Si Miller and Jules Zbinden. If there was a steen tons of freight to be delivered not a wheel would move till Si saw the elephants and dancing girls and the suspension of work on the new Zbinden block would not keep Jules away from the side shows. We are informed that they tried to buy the whole menagerie.

Rev. N. C. A. Garness writes us that there will be Lutheran services at P. S. Olson's residence Friday evening, August 14.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT

In the Phelan Opera House Wednesday Night, Aug. 19.

T. F. Mitchell of New York, popular elocutionist, reader and reciter, will give an entertainment in the opera house next Wednesday night, assisted by Prof. Harry Dunning who is recognized as one of the most accomplished violinists now giving entertainments before the public. Mr. Mitchell comes highly recommended as a finished and pleasing reciter, and those having heard him assert that in the line of elocution and reading he has few equals or no superiors. His selections include humorous and sentimental pieces calculated to please all classes of people, and his style of delivery is said to be most effective. He has a number of admirers in the city who promise that he shall have a good audience and are interesting themselves in the matter of disposing of tickets for the entertainment, which promises to be a very pleasing one and well worth the price of admission.

Reserved seats will be on sale at Holsten's pharmacy beginning next Monday morning. Adv.

LOCAL RACES

On the Race Track West of Town Thursday Afternoon, Aug. 20.

There are a number of very promising horses in Alliance, which are being trained for the track and the owners thereof have conceived the idea that by giving matinee exhibitions occasionally sufficient interest may be aroused to lead to the formation of a permanent racing association for the holding of regular races during the racing season of each year. It is not the intention to organize an association until after a few races have been held and people have a clearer view and idea of what a permanent association of this character means for those loving to see good horse races. Next Thursday afternoon the first of a series of races will be held. The following trotting horses have been entered for races during the afternoon: Margaret Lee, Agnes B. Shaparon and Lady Clair, all owned by J. R. Phelan; Carrie C., owned by Dr. E. C. Koons; Lucy, owned by E. D. Mollring; Queen Caffery, owned by Simon Spry; Black Lilly, owned by Taggart, and Billie B., owned by Williams. All of these horses are of the 3-minute class and it is said they are pretty evenly matched. The purses will be amount of gate receipts; 60 per cent first money; 25 per cent second money, and 15 per cent third money. In addition to the above, Helen G., owned by Granger, will pace one mile against time to beat track record. Morning Star, owned by Mr. Phelan, will be on the track and if there is no other horse present to make a race, will run against time. At conclusion of the races arrangements will be made on the track for match races on some day in the week following. This promises to be a very interesting exhibition of speed and an exciting time is promised all desirous of seeing the races. Charge for admission will be 25 cents to each person entering the grounds whether walking or riding and no extra charge for rigs in the grand stand.
