

AROUND THE WORLD

Wars Upon Wars to Gain Control of the Holy City. Scenes of Bloodshed and Death.

JERUSALEM, PALESTINE, March 10, '03. Driven from their homes by Ghengis Khan, they fall upon Christian and Turk, sparing no one in their wild fury.

The Egyptians and Syrians remain victors for only a short time when the Mohammedans, chiefly from Syria, organize and resolve to overcome or die.

In 1517 the Ottoman sultan, Selim I, took Jerusalem and all Syria as well as Egypt. In 1542 Solomon the Magnificent rebuilt the walls of the city.

All Syria became subject to the pasha of Egypt, Mehmet Ali, in 1832, and was lost to Turkey in 1840 through the interference of England.

To fully present Jerusalem would require volumes instead of columns as the city is mentioned eight hundred and eighteen times in the Bible.

Being often destroyed Jerusalem is not what it was formerly. The valleys between the four hills upon which the city was originally built now contain the wreckage of many a former city.

In Psalm 48:12-13 is the following exhortation: "Walk about Zion and go round about her; tell the towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces that ye may tell it to the generations following."

A few days after I arrived in Jerusalem a party of more than 400 Americans arrived under the management of F. C. Clark of New York City.

The population of Jerusalem is an unknown quantity. The same may be said of almost any Turkish or Chinese city. Estimates vary from 60,000 to 75,000, of which 40,000 are said to be Jews.

price asked for their land. They named a price which was accepted by the Sultan who, presenting his old tax list as so much cash, compelled the owners to vacate as the sale was complete.

He now has an agent in charge who collects two francs (forty cents) from each person who visits Jericho, the Jordan and the Dead Sea. A mounted escort accompanies each party to the Jordan and makes sure that each person pays the regulation amount.

The morning I walked around Jerusalem I sat upon the tomb in the cemetery near the wall opposite the Garden of Gethsemane and waited for the sun to rise over the Mount of Olives.
