Mrs. Sampy was in Hemingford last Tuesday.

H. C. Atkins is well enough to be around again.

Miss Combs and Miss Bertha Rowland spent Saturday and Sunday here.

Frank Potmesil was in from the ranch Friday for a load of supplies.

James A. Hunter and wife went to Alliance Friday to spend a day or two.

Mr. Clayton of Clayton & Hart, Clarinda, Iowa, was buying potatoes here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reed spent Sunday here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atkins and their daughter Della.

A. D. McCandless returned to Wyomere Sunday to be present at a term of court, which sets there next Monday.

The S. C. E. will give a social at the home of Miss Mary Bushnell, Friday, January 29. Everyone cordially invited. Committee.

Jno. Sauerwein has invested in one of B. E. Johnson's new gang disk plows. They are said to be something excellent in their line.

Emery Abley, who was assessor last year in Nonpareil precinct, as a reward for good work, has been appointed to fill the same position this year.

PAINLESS DENTISTRY

Dr. Koons, the Alliance Dentist, will be in Hemingford Friday and Saturday, January 22-23. All work guaranteed.

Joseph Duhon returned Sunday from a trip to the eastern part of Nebraska. He visited with his brother who resides near Omaha and also with friends at Dwight and Brainard.

Mrs. Grace E. Walsner departed for her new home at Arvada, Wyoming, Wednesday. She expects to go to Sheridan for a few days' visit, shortly after which she will reside on the ranch eight miles from Arvada.

Several of the ranchmen living close to town are gradually abandoning their herds and devoting themselves to farming altogether. They claim that there is much more to be made farming than in live stock.

PUBLIC SALE! Saturday, January 30, all my goods, consisting of hardware, tinware, leather findings, glassware, clothing, buggy, harness and spring wagon. Other things too numerous to mention. C. Donaghue, W. M. Fosket, auctioneer.

Assessor Reed made a wise selection when he appointed A. D. Millett assessor for Dorsey precinct and one very acceptable to the district which he will serve. Mr. Millett has been a life-long Democrat and stands splendidly with his party.

James Moravek and son Charles were in from Canton, Tuesday. Charles has received the appointment of assessor for Liberty and Snake Creek precincts, being the only republican appointed this year. Charles is a capable young man and will, no doubt, give excellent service in this position.

We have made arrangements whereby we can send money in any amount to any point in the world. For large amounts we issue drafts and for small amounts we send money direct. First State Bank.

Jno. Kuhn went to Platte county last week to attend the funeral of an old friend. His son Lewis accompanied him from Grand Island, where he is attending school. While gone he received a telegram stating that the children here had the scarletina and he returned at once, arriving here Sunday.

The address of Chancellor Andrews before the national convention of live stock men at Portland is full of hope for those engaged in the cattle business. He points to the gradual curtailment of the ranges on the one hand and the increase in population on the other as two contributing factors to increase prices of beef. He also thinks that better grades will be kept which will also help prices. The meat trust has greatly depressed prices he thinks, but natural conditions will prevail in the end and prices resume their proper level.

DUNLAP.

H. L. Bartlett made a trip to Chadron this week.

Fred Shaffer is working for Potmesil Brothers now.

Wm. Huff, who used to live east of here, was in Dunlap and vicinity.

Miss Anthony is teaching the Katen school now, Miss Pfug resigned.

The dance given at Krauts January 8, was well attended and all reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Montague made a trip to Crawford to make final proof on the homestead of Mrs. Montague.

There will be another dance in the Dunlap hall January 29. Come and have a good time. Everybody invited.

Postmaster Walker of Hemingford in company with A. B. Evans were in Dunlap and vicinity taking views for THE ALLIANCE HERALD mammoth edition.

A pleasant party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Barlett last Friday evening to a number of friends and all enjoyed themselves in playing games, singing and music, and after partaking of a nice supper went home happy, awaiting such another event.

LUELLA.

Ed Ozmun has returned from visiting his mother in Ohio.

Miss Grace Guthrie returned to Hay Springs last Tuesday.

L. J. Schill visited Hay Springs last Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

Miss Minnie Green was thrown from her horse and hurt quite badly, but is recovering.

Quite a number of Luella young people attended the dance at Mr. Wessenburg's, on the river, last Saturday night.

Geo. Ross of Moomaw spent a week visiting friends in Fremont and relatives at North Bend; his brother Alex of Marple accompanied him and returned via Alliance.

Mrs. DeLoss Barber and Mrs. Clarence Mann entertained their friends at cards Friday night. Mrs. E. J. Schill won first prize and Mrs. W. H. Newton the consolation prize.

MARSLAND.

J. B. Burk of Harrison was in town Thursday.

True Miller was in from the ranch last Saturday.

Conductor and Mrs. Hick of Alliance were visitors at Mrs. Jorammon's on Sunday.

Clayton Worley of Box Butte was in town Saturday, having met parties at this place from Crawford who delivered to Mr. Worley a bunch of cattle belonging to W. H. Fanning.

Marsland had her first "boom" with a petition for a saloon license last week there being 32 names on the petition which asked that Jake Harttraut of Crawford might open a saloon here. The petition was presented to the board of commissioners who found that there were only eight bonafide freeholders of the precinct, while the remaining 24 were, many of them, residents of other counties or not freeholders in this. The commissioners very wisely decided that Marsland was too small a child to be putting on city airs and squelched the thing.
