Rev. Chas. H. Bruleigh of Hemingford is in the city attending the special meeting at the M. E. church.

John Blair, who lives about thirty miles northeast of Alliance, spent Wednesday and the greater part of Thursday in the city.

Mrs. Laura Leib, representing the Holst Publishing Co., in connection with Teachers and Public encyclopedia, is spending a few days in Alliance.

E. S. Bellwood returned from Los Angeles, Calif., last Saturday, having spent the winter in that section of the state. He enjoyed the trip immensely.

Good Friday services will be held at the St. Matthews Episcopal church at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. with instructions on the Passion of Our Blessed Lord.

Geo. Darling has a word or two in this issue regarding a new line of furniture, that will prove of interest to the trade. Late designs are now in stock and ready for inspection. Read the ad.

Rev. Dr. Horn of Grand Island was in the city Wednesday, calling on old time friends. He lectured at Hyannis the previous night to a large audience. As usual, the people of Alliance were delighted to meet our former resident.

The Famous, as usual, has fired the first gun for the spring of 1904, and the result shows a general lowering of prices on a new line of latest style clothing for men and boys. Also a great hit in merchant tailoring. Read the Famous "ad" and then call and examine the stock.

The musicale and reading program rendered at the M. E. church last Friday, night proved an interesting affair for the large audience present. The ladies who arranged this delightful entertainment are entitled to much credit. The proceeds amounted to about $25.00.

The mother of Messrs. Harry and F. M. Raymond, who resided at Waterloo, Ia., died last Saturday, after a siege of illness. The sons were present at her bedside when dissolution took place and cared for the best friend a boy had on earth—mother—during her declining hours.

W. E. Spencer will resign his position at the Alliance shoe store tomorrow. He will go to Omaha Sunday night to attend a meeting of the agents and traveling men for the Empire Cream Separator and upon his return will devote his entire time to the separator business and buying cream.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Empire Cream Separator, of which W. E. Spencer is general western agent. This hand separator is the most popular machine of the kind on the market and dairyman, rancher and farmer will do well to investigate its merits. See Mr. Spencer and learn all about it.

John M. Schirk of Havelock and Miss Matilda W. Hunzicker of this city were united in marriage Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. C. W. Ray of the M. E. church officiating. The newly married couple left the same night for Havelock, where Mr. Schirk is employed in the railway machine shops.

There was a partial eclipse of the moon Tuesday evening, but owing to the cloudy sky the view was considerably interrupted. When fair Lunar passed over Alliance it was plain to be seen that the man who resides therein was holding his nose while he read the Pioneer-Grips city reform "bluff." Such nonsense was even too much for the old man in the moon.

The "reform" ticket recently nominated for city control has a new convert in the person of Harve Ellis of the Times. The common sense, moral value of Alliance will look with suspicion on such characters who presume to dictate how the decent people of the city should vote on municipal affairs. Harve Ellis as a reformer! That's as bad as the devil getting religion. Just investigate his record (both public and private) before you take his advice as to who should control the affairs of Alliance.

Simon Spry made another deal Monday morning whereby he secured control of the saloon owned by Coffee & Doud. Mr. Coffee, who retires from the management of that establishment, is a social as Simon himself and hence that place only changes proprietorship, while the same genial character will prevail. With such men as Simon Spry in control of the saloon business in Alliance there's no danger of Harve Ellis or the Pioneer-Grip editor having their angel wings singed.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Herald's Illustrated Edition Unavoidably Delayed Till April 8.

Word has been received from the publisher, Mr. O'Keefe, stating that the Herald's special edition could not be completed and ready for delivery until April 8. The letter states that the engravers find the amount of work such that it will be impossible to complete the task before next week. Then there is the vast amount of delicate printing that will require more time than was expected. Besides this, several ranch people have called at the office with views and were anxious to have them appear in the edition, since Mr. O'Keefe departed for Denver with the large amount of views, etc., they were forwarded and of course will require more time to execute.

We regret exceedingly and as much this further delay in presenting the special edition as the subscribers and patrons who have waited impatiently for its appearance. But its like death and taxes—what are we going to do about it? Mr. O'Keefe however, advises us to state that the edition will be published Friday, April 8, (rain or shine, we presume) and that it will be considered a work of art of which its equal has yet to be duplicated in Nebraska.

Depot in Ashes.

The Burlington depot at Hemingford was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon and most of the contents consumed, including the housegoods of the agent. The fire, it is thought, started from sparks from the engine on No. 41, for the building was found to be ablaze immediately after its departure.

The Word of God.

Special meetings at the M. E. church commenced last Monday evening, Rev. C. W. Ray, the pastor, being assisted by Rev. Dr. J. W. Mahood and Rev. J. M. Tibbetts of Sioux City. At the opening meeting, Rev. Ray delivered an able address, using as his theme the title, "Dressed to Meet Jesus." The visiting clergy assisted at every meeting during the week and the attendance indicates that close interest is being manifested in the work of religion. Mr. Mahood is an exceptionally powerful speaker and his associate, Mr. Tibbetts, inspires the soul with rendition of beautiful religious songs and singing of the gospel, the word of God. No one should miss attending these meetings, which will continue next week.

Number of visitors..... 232.
The Third Primary secured the flag this month.

The following rooms were perfect in punctuality: Eighth, Fifth, Fourth and Second grades, and Third primary.

The number of beginners entering the first of this month was 30. The total number of books purchased for the school library was 155 and twelve copies of Buskin's "King of the Golden River" for supplementary work in the grades, for which was paid $22.00, that being the money raised by giving entertainments and having entertainments under the auspices of the school. In round numbers the total amount of money raised under the auspices of the school within the last four years and expended in the purchase of books, pictures for the different rooms, and for part payment on the piano, was $315. It is a fact too well known to need mention that the primaries are so crowded and the work in those rooms is necessarily very much hampered.

Contract Let.

At a meeting of the city council the contract for the building of the new city hall was awarded to C. Sanz Peck, of this city, the considerations being $7,978. The other bidders were Goadsby & Fox, local contractors, and Ward & Co. of Lincoln.

Plans of the new public building will be shown in THE HERALD'S special edition, which have been especially prepared for this occasion. The building will be in general arrangement as called for in the official bids, also published in THE HERALD.

the official organ of the city. There may be a few minor changes but the plans will be followed as closely as possible. THE HERALD readers can secure a minute conception of the proposed building by consulting the plans in the special edition.

AT THE TEN-PIN ALLEY

Overland Bowlers from Denver Prove Too Much for Local Team.

The Overland bowling team from Denver arrived in the city last Saturday and there was something doing in the way of ten pins at Ridgell's alley Saturday evening.

The local team was composed of the following gentlemen: Ridgell, Lockwood, Gilman, Reynolds and Bowman.

In a series of two games the Overlands won out with the following result:

THE SCORE:
ALLIANCE.	DENVER.
Ridgell 536	Portaus 537
Lockwood 474	Elliott 470
Gilman 467	Richey 491
Reynolds 529	Reid 472
Bowman 485	Young 540
Total—2488	Total—2610
Ridgell 497	Portaus 528
Lockwood 385	Elliott 458
Gilman 469	Richey 507
Reynolds 559	Reid 523
Bowman 457	Young 499
Total—2367	Total—2515

Several other contests were had and there were a number of other exhibitions that proved decidedly interesting. While the Alliance boys were a little light they nevertheless made the series decidedly interesting for the visitors who make the game more of a pastime than do the local contestants. The attendance at the bowling alley on these occasions was quite large and much interest manifested.

CONNELLY IN CUSTODY

The Suspected Murderer of Henry Miller Taken to Harrison.

The second chapter in the Miller murder case was enacted last Friday when Sheriff Campbell of Scottsbluff county arrested James Connelly at Scottsbluff. The officer of the law secured his man without trouble and at once took so Gering, the county seat. Last Tuesday the deputy sheriff of Sioux county conveyed Connelly to Hemingsford and thence to Crawford, where the prisoner was taken on to Harrison, the county seat of Sioux county, where he will have a preliminary hearing Monday, April 4.

Council for the state has been secured also that for the defense, Messrs. Mitchell and Gilman of this city will represent the former and Messrs. Noleman of Alliance and Wright of Gering the latter.

Every precaution was taken to avoid interference and hence the accused man was taken by a route considered most advisable. It is said that Connelly admitted killing Mr. Miller, and when he arrived at Hemingford broke down completely, crying like a child. No doubt the recollection of his happy wedding day, which occurred at that place, overcame him and now that he is in the hands of the law, charged with this terrible crime, was the cause of his crushed spirits. But it is too late. He fostered a jealous, revengeful disposition and must pay the penalty. Its a tragic conclusion of a vicious nature. The penalty for this crime will no doubt be severe, but justice must deal with James Connelly as he deserves.

Resolutions.

Resolutions of condolence and respect by Alpha Div. 309, G. I. A. to the B. of L. E. of Alliance, Neb., as a tribute to the father, Eli Garrett, of our sister Lizzie Berry, who died on March 8, 1904, at Chapel, Mo.

Whereas, The angel of death has entered into the family of a sister of our division,

Resolved, That we as a division do deeply sympathize with our sister in the untimely death of her father and extend to her, the daughter, our deepest sympathy and assure her that while she mourns the loss of her dear father we commend her to our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the mother and sorrowing sister, also a copy be sent to our city papers and a copy spread on the records of our division.

MRS. MARTHA DAVENPORT,
MRS. ADA ALLEN,
MRS. LILLIAN FLEASON, Com.

At a regular meeting of the Latky lodge, No. 262, D. of H. the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, God in his wisdom and mercy has darkened the home and saddened the hearts of Sister Shrewsbury and family by removing the daughter, Margaret, who departed this life March 15th, 1904,

Resolved, By this sad event there comes to each member of the Latky lodge a sense of their personal loss, and that to each and all alike, sooner or later, we, too, must take our departure to the great beyond; therefore be it

Resolved, That her Godly life, faithfulness in duty and kindness of heart, will ever be remembered; that we will cherish her memory and practice her virtues as shown by her daily walk through life.

There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown,
A long eternity of love,
Formed for the good alone;
And faith beholds the dying here
Translated to that glorious sphere.

MRS. A. H. ROBBINS,
MRS. S. W. THOMPSON,
MRS. C. A. MACKAY.

Thanks only partly express our feeling to all, both strangers and friends, for their kindness and tokens of love to us and our mother, who is now sleeping in Jesus. May God bless you all and smooth your pillow in death as He did hers.

LOOMIS BROS.

Hemingford Continued.

The Aid society of the M. E. church will give a public dinner at Mrs. A. M. Miller's, Wednesday, March 30.

The pump house caught fire and burned down Friday evening. Elmer Rowland lost some clothes and a set of double buggy harness which he had in the building.

The section house was on fire for a few minutes Saturday evening but was extinguished before it got under headway. It was set by an engine as was the more successful fire at the pump house. It is very dry now and the engines do not seem to be properly equipped to hold the fire.

The Hemingford depot burned about 3 o'clock Tuesday. It only took about forty-five minutes to do this, so little was saved. E. C. Stewart lost nine-tenths of his household goods besides the paper money in the drawer amounting to about $20. Mrs. Stewart was still absent in Illinois and had many of the more valuable articles with her, so the loss was not so great to them as it might have been.
