A New Damon and Pythias. From North Wales comes the romantic story of a lifelong devotion, begun in early boyhood, between two men, and only ending in death at the ripe age of 80 years. Henry Price and Robert Ellis when boys struck up a friendship, pledging to stick to each other until death. When young men they emigrated to Australia and lived and worked together, come weal, come woe, for more than fifty years. Two years ago they both returned to their native village of Rhoslanerchrogog, in Wales, having amassed considerable wealth. This week Price and Ellis died within twenty-four hours of each other, both being over 80 years of age.

Mount Booker Washington. Mrs. Hill, an artist of Tacoma, Wash., has been commissioned by one of the Western railroad trunk lines to execute for the Louisiana Purchase exposition several canvases illustrative of the scenery of Washington state. One of the pictures represents a lofty mountain, which for some reason had never received a name. The artist suggested that the mountain be christened Mount Booker Washington, in honor of the principal of the Tuskegee institute. Her suggestion was confirmed by the United States geological survey, and the name, Mount Booker Washington, is now in use. The picture will be exhibited at St. Louis this summer.

BAD DREAMS.

Indicate Improper Diet, Usually Due to Coffee.

One of the common symptoms of coffee poisoning is the bad dreams that spoil what should be restful sleep. A man who found the reason says: "Formerly I was a slave to coffee. I was like a morphine fiend, could not sleep at night, would roll and toss in my bed and when I did get to sleep was disturbed by dreams and hobgoblins, would wake up with headaches and feel bad all day, so nervous I could not attend to business. My writing looked like bird tracks. I had sour belchings from the stomach, indigestion, heartburn and palpitation of the heart, constipation, irregularity of the kidneys, etc.

"Indeed, I began to feel I had all the troubles that human flesh could suffer but when a friend advised me to leave off coffee I felt as if he had insulted me. I could not bear the idea, it had such a hold on me and I refused to believe it the cause.

"But it turned out that no advice was ever given at a more needed time for I finally consented to try Postum, and with the going of coffee and the coming of Postum all my troubles have gone and health has returned. I eat and sleep well now, nerves steadied down and I write a fair hand (as you can see), can attend to business again and rejoice that I am free from the monster Coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ten days' trial of Postum in place of coffee will bring sound, restful, refreshing sleep. There's a reason. Look in each pkg. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

NEBRASKA STATE NEWS

BURGULARS VISIT CARROLL.

Determined Robbers Force Bank Vault and Fight Citizens.

CARROLL—At 1 o'clock in the morning this town was thrown into excitement by an attempt to rob the First National bank. At that hour the residents of the upper floor of the Merrill building, in which the bank is located, were awakened by a loud noise and heard the sound of blows, which caused the house to vibrate. These sounds were followed by an explosion and this by fire from a revolver. By the flash of the gun the people saw men standing as guards for the robbers around the house.

There was one revolver in the building and this was fired at one of the men until the shells were exhausted, but apparently without effect, as he returned the fire and continued to shoot after the residents of the house were without ammunition.

While this fusillade was in progress the cashier of the bank was called up by telephone and notified of the trouble. He responded by bringing a number of armed men, but by the time he arrived the robbers had driven away in a wagon which stood in the middle of the street during the fight and in which they are supposed to have come to town.

BROSS ELECTED COMMANDER.

Grand Army Veterans at Grand Island Next Year.

The next encampment will be held at Grand Island. The encampment decided to hold no more state reunions, the resolution to that effect which had been laid over from last year provoking a prolonged debate, but finally passing. The offices of adjutant general and quartermaster were consolidated.

The Womens Relief corps elected Mrs. Mamie Cleaver of Neligh department president; Mrs. Diana Potter, Litchfield, senior vice; Mrs. Julia Brown, Butte, junior vice.

BENTON EXPLAINS TAXATION.

Addresses State Board on Behalf of the Pullman Company.

LINCOLN—On behalf of the Pullman company T. H. Benton explained his theories of taxation when the state board convened at 2 o'clock. He was the only representative of the car concerns.

According to the report of Secretary Bennett 140 car companies and private concerns are doing business in the state. Reports have been submitted, showing the property owned by twenty-two of them.

The Pullman company's report was taken up. It shows that the company has 178 sleepers and seventy-nine tourist cars running through the state, sleepers valued at $11,892.31 and tourist cars at $6,983.62. The assessed valuation of sleepers without mileage made is $79,219.59, and of tourist cars $15,491.78, or 5 per cent of the actual market valuation. This is a decrease of nearly $20,000 on last year's valuation.

Calls State Warrants.

State Treasurer Mortenson has issued a call for May 14 for warrants to the amount of $150,000, numbered from 99,281 to 101,017. The call for such an amount was made possible by the county treasurers returning to the state treasurer all the money they had on hand that belonged to the permanent school fund. In the temporary school fund at this time there is $382,000.

Burglars have of late been operating quite freely in Lincoln.

Harlan County Protests.

LINCOLN—The board of supervisors of Harlan county expects Attorney General Prout to prevent a combination of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and the Kansas City & Omaha railroad in that section of the country. It is claimed that the latter line has been almost abandoned as far as the train service is concerned. The lines are almost parallel. Alma has a poor train service as a result of the assimilation and the supervisors ask that a suit be started in the supreme court to remedy matters.

Bartenders and gamblers can no longer join the Knights of Pythias. At the meeting of the grand lodge it was voted to adopt the ruling of Grand Chancellor Phillips of Laurel and keep them out. All members admitted contrary to rules will be ejected. The grand lodge will meet in Omaha next year on the first Tuesday in May.

County Treasurer W. D. Wheeler has collected more taxes in a little more than four months than was ever previously collected in one year in Cass county. He has collected between $800 and $9,000 in back taxes, some of which it was thought never would be collected. One farmer paid the sum of $600 which had been accumulating on his property for many years.

E. L. Dougherty of York, a young man, attempted to commit suicide by going into his bed room and saturating a cloth with chloroform. Lying down on the bed he put it over his face. When discovered he was almost past having anything done for him. Physicians after working with him almost all night brought him to. The cause for the rash act is said to be some love affair.

A. E. Boylan, a school teacher at Warwick, Kan., while returning to his home from Hardy was stopped by two masked men and robbed of $180. The robbers threw an old coat over Boylan's head and ordered him to lie still for twenty minutes. At the expiration of about five minutes Boylan thought the robbers had left and raised up. He was promptly shot in the hip by one of the robbers. His wound, while deep, is not fatal.

A report has reached Beatrice to the effect that Ed Kelley formerly a resident of Beatrice, was recently killed in Texas. Relatives of Mr. Kelley have made inquiries to ascertain the truth of the statement, which has not been confirmed. In a letter to Charles Avey of Beatrice from his brother, William Avey, meager details of the reported tragedy are given, which indicate that Kelley came to his death under rather peculiar circumstances after the killing of another man at Kelley's home.

A Chinese Farewell.

After Wing Chow had studied at Sunday school and become a member of a church, he decorated his remarks with Scriptural phrases, according to Lippincott's Magazine. He grew dissatisfied and pleaded for an increase of wages. "You vely lich woman, I vely poor man," he explained, "money I wish you more give me." Mrs. Dash rejected the plea, and Wing Chow appeared to submit. But on the following morning, when the good woman entered her dining room, though the room had been swept, the table laid, and everything in perfect order, there was no Wing Chow. Beneath a plate the perplexed mistress found a note, which read as follows: "You vely lich woman, I vely poor man. I aske you more money; you givee me none. Oh, Lamb of God! I go."
