

FROM MISERY TO HEALTH.
A Society Leader and Club Woman of Kansas City Writes to Thank Doan's Kidney Pills for a Quick Cure.

Miss Nellie Davis, of 1216 Michigan Ave., Kansas City, Mo., society leader and club woman, writes: "I cannot say too much in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, for they effected a complete cure in a very short time when I was suffering from kidney troubles brought on by a cold. I had severe pains in the back and sick headaches, and felt miserable all over. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills made me a well woman, without an ache or pain, and I feel compelled to recommend this reliable remedy."

Women fiercely deny their putation of dressing for man's admiration.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 1/2-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 oz." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

Woman Mountain Climber.
By far the most expert woman mountaineer in the world is Mrs. Nancy Bullock Workman. In the Himalayas she has climbed to an altitude of 22,568 feet. On the same occasion her husband broke the world's record for men by 311 feet, by climbing 23,194 feet up a mountain 24,479 feet high. Mrs. Workman is of medium height, and there is nothing in her appearance to suggest the strength she has displayed in some of her wonderful feats.

Early Rising.
"To be forced to get up early," says an English physician, "grinds the soul, curdles the blood, swells the spleen, destroys all good intentions and disturbs all day the mental activities. Criminals are always recruited from the early-rising class."

Silk From Wood Pulp.
Silk is now manufactured from wood pulp, and the only difference between natural silk and the artificial silk so produced is that the latter exceeds the former in luster and takes the dye more readily, affording more permanent colors.

When Your Grocer Says
he does not have Defiance Starch, you may be sure he is afraid to keep it until his stock of 12 oz. packages are sold. Defiance Starch is not only better than any other Cold Water Starch, but contains 16 oz. to the package and sells for same money as 12 oz. brands.

THE RED MAN'S EDEN.

MINNESOTA PIPESTONE QUARRIES ARE SACRED.

Here the Indians Believe the Great Spirit Manitou First Made Man, and Here, Too, is Located Their Mount Ararat.

The average person who sees an ordinary red clay pipe made by the Indians little dreams what mysticism this small object stands for.

It is not alone a peace pipe, smoked at campfires, but if an Indian were to take a stranger to his garden at Eden, the sacred spot whence primeval man sprung, he would lead him to the pipestone quarries of Minnesota, from whose sacred rock from time immemorial the Indian has made his pipe of peace.

No place like this has ever yet been found, for though there is a similar deposit of black clay in Canada, just across the border, the Indians do not venerate it as they do this red clay which lies to the west of Minnesota's great prairies.

It is to this spot that the Indians have come from north, south, east and west that they might obtain the beautiful clay, soft when taken from its watery bed, but hardening on exposure to the air.

Several legends are connected with this quarry, for it was here the great spirit Manitou first made man, and hence the spot was a Mecca for sacred pilgrimages from the beginning of the world.

Here, too, is the Indian Ararat, and a quaint legend tells how all the people of the earth were destroyed by the water save one maiden, who was rescued by an eagle, which carried her to the pipestone quarries, and that is why the Indian loves the eagle's feathers.

The most interesting legends of all have been told by the Sioux chiefs, who have, from generation to generation, told this story, like the Sagas of old.

"In the far-off ages, many moons ago, the Great Spirit formed the first Indian from a star. The Great Spirit made a bow from the rainbow and arrows from the lightning, and gave them to him, saying, 'Take these, Wakin-yan, and slay game.'"

"This man was so strong and mighty it would take ten moons to tell all his deeds, but he longed for something new, some being like himself. Then Wi-toon-ti, a monster, half lizard and half pike, and his turtle wife, taunted him, but Wakin-yan heeded not, only praying the Great Spirit for his desire.

"At last the Great Spirit heard his pleadings, broke a beam from off the sun and modeled the first of all her sex, the longed-for one. An eagle dropped her quietly in the lake by the lodge of the lonely Sioux (forever after all who bathe in this lake are imbued with immortal youth), and in peace and happiness the brave and his squaw dwelt, their path strewn with flowers (for that is what we deem our children).

"Wi-toon-ti and turtle wife longed to harm Co-tanka, and hiding near the rocks until she came from her bath, sucked the life-blood from her. Do you see the red spots on the stone? Ever since, in spite of wind and rain, the rocks have carried that stain.

"Then all the sons and daughters of the north, south, east and west came to hunt Wi-toon-ti and his turtle wife, and the Great Spirit made the sun's rays so hot that the waters where they were hidden dried and Wakin-yan took his arrow and pierced them through. Thus was formed the Pipestone Quarry."

That a spot concerning which the Indian chiefs tell such a legend should be sacred to the Indian is not to be wondered at, and our government, out of respect for this sentiment, has decreed that the place shall remain undisturbed. As a furtherance of this desire an Indian school has been erected here.

Catlin, the famous explorer, was the first white man to visit this spot. He had great difficulty in approaching the place, being stopped by hundreds of Indians who threatened him, saying no white man had ever seen the place or should, and even to this day the Indians are loath to have visitors approach.—New York Herald.

MISER WAS EASILY FOOLED.
Niggardly Man's Clever Scheme Not as Good as He Thought.

President Elmer H. Capen of Tufts college was talking to a little group of undergraduates about the wisdom of economy.

"But while economy is wise," he said, "to be mean or niggardly is the height of foolishness. The niggardly man is nearly always overreached. It is like—"

Here Dr. Capen smiled.
"It is like," he resumed, "the story of the miser and the mouthful of water."

"This miser had a cask of wine in his cellar, and every evening he would send his man to fetch him up a pitcher. To keep the man from drinking any of the wine he would make him fill his mouth with water before he left the room. Then on his return the man would have to prove that the water still remained in his mouth, and thus the miser would be convinced that none of the wine had been stolen.

"This scheme seems ingenious, and yet the servant with the greatest ease overreached his master. He kept a pitcher of water hidden in the cellar, and, emptying his mouth on his descent, he would drink all the wine he desired, and on his return upstairs would still have a full mouth to show the unsuspecting master."

Keeping Nervous System Healthy.

As the nervous system exercises great power on all the functions of the body, it ought to be kept in a healthy condition by regular mental work and judicious occupations. The fear often expressed that steady mental work is likely to wear out the brain too soon is unfounded. The wearing theory is wrong, as well for mental as physical work, both of which may be continued in old age.

To the housewife who has not yet become acquainted with the new things of everyday use in the market and who is reasonably satisfied with the old, we would suggest that a trial of Defiance Cold Water Starch be made at once. Not alone because it is guaranteed by the manufacturers to be superior to any other brand, but because each 16c package contains 16 oz., while all the other kinds contain but 12 oz. It is safe to say that the lady who once uses Defiance Starch will use no other. Quality and quantity must win.

Churches on Bridges.

The custom of building churches on bridges was common a hundred years and more ago. Several of these quaint old buildings are still left in Europe. The Chapel of Our Lady still stands on the bridge which spans the Don at Rotterdam. The little chapel was built in the fifteenth century and was restored about a hundred years ago. For several years, however, it has been used as a tobacco shop.

Education of Indian Girls.

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. "The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman.

"The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.
