THE BROWN POTATO DIGGER.

This machine is offered to the public after years of experience and practical operation in the potato field, during which time many alterations and improvements were made, nor was it offered for sale until the inventor was assured that it was nearer perfection, both in construction and the ability to do the work of a first-class digger in the field, than any other machine ever offered to the public.

Notice.

Owing to the fact that the services of a United States Land Commissioner have been greatly in demand since the passage of the new homestead bill, I have decided to again attend to all kinds of business before the United States land office. Having had several years' experience in the work, all matters will receive proper and prompt attention. Homestead filings, final proofs, contests, etc., can be made before me at any place in the land districts in which the lands desired are located. I will also visit points between Broken Bow and Crawford upon request. Any violation of the land laws or irregularities of governmental acts will receive the proper attention when reported to me.

JACOB SCHREIBER.

As you become older, accustom yourself to neglect.

In promises for the future your friends are all good to you. Listen sister: if you marry money or a title, that is all you ought to expect to get out of it.

When a man is sick and thinks he is going to die he is so badly scared that he is not cross.

If you want to please the hostess don't accept all the invitations extended by the host and the children.

If a husband doesn't like to have his wife save the old love letters he wrote her let him write her new ones.

A man has many advantages over a woman. A man can stop on the street and watch other men work and make suggestions, but a woman can't do it without being talked about.—Arlinson Globe.

The Senator's Italian.

A prominent senator, who claims to be rather more cultivated than some of his colleagues, prides himself on his knowledge of Italian. During a recent visit to New York he patronized a street bootblack stand and as he got into the seat directed the bootblack in his best Italian to make haste, as he was trying to catch a train. The bootblack stared at the senator for a moment in apparent perplexity, then answered briefly: "Me no speak English."

A newsboy standing on the corner had witnessed the incident with interest. "He ain't no Frenchman," he observed confidentially as the senator got down from the stand. "He's a bloomin' dago. Talk Italian."—Hurger's Weekly.

Long Winded.

There have been many terms of reproach and ridicule applied to interminable and wearisome talkers, but here are two that seem to be particularly pat:

One is the comment of a politician on a Washington orator, "He has a good train of thought, but it lacks terminal facilities."

The other comes from the village humorist, who said of the village orator, "He's the only feller I ever knew who could set his face talkin' an' then go off an' leave it."

Japanese Pottery.

Everybody who knows anything at all about Japanese pottery knows that there is such a thing as Satsuma ware. Beyond the fact that it is yellowish in tone and always crackled knowledge in most cases does not go, however. The name of the pottery is taken from the clay which comes from the province of Satsuma and is the only clay in Japan, possibly in the world, which will stand the number of firings necessary in the elaborate decorations of which it is the subject.

The Brand.

The old gentleman had just stepped into the crowded car and had accidentally trodden on Algy Fitzgerald's foot. "Confound you, you careless old buffaw!" cried Algy. "You've crushed my foot to a jelly!" "Ah," said the old man calmly—"calf's foot jelly, I suppose!"
