LOCAL HAPPENINGS

General and Personal News of Alliance and Vicinity.

Simon Spry and Louis Buechsenstein went over the Gurnsey branch as far as Mitchell last week.

Iowa apples have been shipped in and are being peddled through the streets the past few days. The apple crop in the Hawkeye state has been quite prolific this season.

An alarm of fire from the eating room at the depot yesterday morning brought out the department, but before they arrived the blaze was overcome by the help. Only slight damage resulted.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Vaughn were among the fortunate this week to welcome a new comer to their home in the shape of a baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hughes are likewise happy over the advent of a daughter Sunday morning.

Geo. Mehl had the misfortune to fall from a freight car which was in motion last Tuesday night and received severe but not permanent injuries. He was taken to his home in the first ward immediately after the accident and on examination it was found that he was suffering with concussion of the hip.

The Famous Clothing store is to the front again. In today's issue this firm is quoting prices on fall and winter clothing and gents' furnishings, overalls, etc., of the latest fabrics and patterns and at astonishingly low prices. Take time to read over the Famous ad on the last page and you'll learn something that will be of profit to you.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson returned Wednesday from an extended visit to the coast. They made a thorough inspection of California and enjoyed the sights. The northern part was to them of greatest interest and they preferred that part of the state. However, when everything is considered, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson prefer to reside in Nebraska.

Grant Hale informs us that his six-year-old son was set upon last Friday on his way home from school by a boy fully three years older and pumeled and choked until unconscious. He was taken home and back to a position that almost wreched remained unconscious for two days and has continued in a semi-conscious condition since.

S. C. Reck was home from Rushville over Sunday with his family, returning Monday. Mr. Reck states that the work of building the new court house at that place, of which he has the contract is progressing satisfactorily and that within the course of a few weeks the brick work will be completed and progress on the interior of the building will be pushed.

The elegant residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell was the scene of a pleasant gathering of friends Tuesday who sat down to an elaborate six o'clock dinner served by Mrs. Mitchell and daughter Pearl. The event was most enjoyable to the following gentlemen who were the guests of the host and hostess on this occasion: Judge Westover, Hon. M. F. Harrington, A. F. Jones, Dr. Edwards, J. D. Scott, and T. J. O'Keefe.

A. R. Davis, chief assistant consulting engineer, and five assistants, held a meeting at Scottsbluff last Tuesday with a number of land owners to determine the number of acres of land that should be allotted to each homestead right under the irrigation act. While no decision has as yet been made public, it is believed that the amount will be 120 acres. It was announced that active work on the government ditch would begin next May.

The contract has been let to George Fox for the erection of a new brick livery barn to take the place of the Palace, which was totally destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. Mr. Desch, the proprietor of the Palace, has awarded the contract to Mr. Fox for the construction of a brick building to be 56x90 feet, 14 feet in height. This will make Mr. Desch a commodious and safe livery barn and also give room for the great amount of traffic that has always patronized the Palace. The cost of the new structure, which is already under course of construction, will be between $3,000 and $4,000.
