"DAD" JOHNSON FOR COMMISSIONER.

EVERYBODY in Box Butte county who has resided within its borders for any length of time is either acquainted with or has often heard of A. C. Johnson, the fusion candidate for commissioner for the third district. THE HERALD takes pride in presenting Mr. Johnson's name to the voters of Box Butte county for their consideration and vote. This candidate is every inch a man and also possesses the required qualification for the office for which he was nominated by his friends without the least solicitation on his part. Mr. Johnson's genial personality has brought to him the well known appellation of "Dad" and you all know him in that way. It is said that he came by this name through the railroad boys who have always a good word to speak for him. And why shouldn't they call him "Dad"? Has he not been as a "daddy" to many a railroad lad whose "daddy" was far away in another section of the land? We know of many an instance when "Dad" Johnson's kindness of heart and charity smoothed the path of homeless young men sick or injured, with not a relative to aid them. The writer can recall one instance in which such kindness to a dying young man was manifested. The person in question had no one to care for him. On learning of the sufferer's condition, "Dad" went to his assistance, sought the aged mother by telegraph that she might be at the bedside of her dying boy and soothed the sorrows of mother and son in a strange land. It is held by the element in touch with this act of human kindness that a man who is big enough to see the wants of his fellow man is big enough to look to the interest of a whole county. And this sounds like good judgment. It is the best evidence of the character of a candidate.

But this is not the only good quality that gives "Dad" Johnson a clear conscience. He is a practical and reliable business man. This we know to be an essential requisite for a man dealing with public affairs as commissioner. In business dealings Mr. Johnson is fair and square and nothing can be said derogatory to his character. With the good qualities of the fusion candidate and his popularity among all classes in town and country, there is no reason why Mr. Johnson's majority should not be at the top notch on the ballot Tuesday, November 8th.

There is a decided expression among the voters of Box Butte county to re-elect Wm. Mitchell to the office of county attorney. This spirit seems to prevail irrespective of party lines, and the reason assigned for this popular testimonial is Mr. Mitchell's past and present record in serving the people so faithfully. There is every indication to predict that his majority will exceed that of two years ago.
