Prominent Young People Marry.

A beautiful wedding ceremony in which two prominent and popular young people were united in the holy bonds of matrimony occurred at Holy Rosary church in this city yesterday morning, the parties to the sacred contract being Mr. John J. Lawless and Miss Anna Kinney. Rev. Father Galvin officiated. The Christian spirit that prevails at a nuptial of this kind is inspiring and it is the safeguard of the human family. This blessing was evident in this instance and the happy couple who entered the path of life's journey hand in hand were the recipients of fervent prayers from the many people present at the nuptial mass. The groom is well known in western Nebraska, having been for several years a trusty engineer on the Burlington, making his home in this city, but at present located at San Bernardino, Calif., where he holds a similar position on the Southern Pacific railway. Mr. Lawless is well to do and through his own efforts has accumulated goodly portions of the world's goods, but better than this he possesses an honorable name. The bride too is a person of commendable character and her kindness and womanly bearing have drawn many friends to her. Mr. and Mrs. Lawless will make their home in California, and with them will go the best wishes of their many Alliance friends.

BROWN-BUSHNELL.

Claude W. Brown and Mary E. Bushnell were married at the M. E. parsonage Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock by Rev. C. W. Ray. These young folks have the best wishes of THE HERALD for a prosperous future. Mr. Brown is one of the popular and efficient employees of the B. & M., in the capacity of brakeman, and holds the highest esteem of his many friends. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bushnell, of Hemingford, who are numbered among the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Box Butte county. She is a noble type of true womanhood and will be a fit companion of the worthy young man. The newly married couple in their wedding cards announce that they will be at home to their friends after November 15, at their residence No. 183 W. Arizona street.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

General and Personal News of Alliance and Vicinity.

A bowling contest took place at Ridgell's alley Saturday night between the machinists and round house boys, in which the latter won by a score of 3210 to 3207. The game was an interesting one and attracted much interest. This is the closest game on record for five games. Following was the lineup of the Round House team: Richstein, Strikel, Wheaton, Fritz and Roberts. Machinists: Burrens, Jones, Scott, E. Reardon and Jos. Reardon.

Rev. W. E. Dunlap of Orchard, who was at one time pastor of the United Presbyterian church in Alliance arrived in the city Thursday and will preside at a meeting at the church this evening at 7:30 at which time a formal call will be prepared and extended to Rev. J. M. McConnell to become the settled pastor of the church. Rev. Dunlap will also conduct preaching services on Sabbath at the usual hours. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The feast of All Saints was solemnized in the Catholic church all over the world last Tuesday. The day following, that of All Souls, when it is the custom of the faithful to pray for the souls of departed relatives, friends and strangers who have no one to remember them in this life, was also commemorated and services held at Holy Rosary church, which were largely attended. As the good book recites: "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins."

A. T. Hemingway returned from Kansas City last Monday accompanied by Mrs. Hemingway and the baby. Mr. H. has been away from home for several months in northern Idaho looking up timber land for the Forest Lumber company and traveled extensively through the Couer de Alene country. On his return east he went to his old home at Oak Park, a suburb of Chicago, and other points stopping in St. Louis for five hours to take a passing glance at the World's fair and thence to Kansas City.

The patrons of the electric light plant were agreeably surprised Monday evening, when the lights were again in evidence and in better condition than heretofore. It was thought that more time would be required to make the repairs necessary since the break down several days ago, but through the active efforts of the company, the parts of the machinery required were forwarded by express and the delay to the patrons who felt the inconvenience was of shorter duration than expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Strong celebrated their paper wedding Wednesday evening with an elegant dinner prepared at the home of Mrs. Strong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, of which a number of intimate friends partook, and taken as a whole, the entertainment was a very delightful one. Mr. and Mrs. Strong not only received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of the guests for their future happiness but also a number of beautiful presents which will often cause their memory in future years to revert back to this pleasant occasion.

H. G. Taylor, who has been at the hospital at Grand Island suffering from an acute attack of stomach and kidney troubles, died in that institution Tuesday and the remains were shipped to this city arriving on train 41 Wednesday afternoon. They were met by a committee from the A. O. U. W. lodge and escorted to the family residence in West Lawn. The funeral was held from the Baptist church yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the order, Rev. Jeffers officiating, interment at Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was one of the oldest residents of Alliance and was for a long time a passenger engineer and also engine inspector for the B. & M. He leaves a devoted wife and several children. Mr. Taylor carried $2,000 life insurance in the A. O. U. W. lodge.

"Buffalo Bill," the notorious Indian fighter and hero of dime novel fame and whose name is being perpetuated in the public mind in later years by his efforts to unshackle himself from the matrimonial chains through the divorce court, was an interesting figure at the depot Wednesday noon. The old warrior in company with several others, including a buck Sioux Indian, were passengers on their way to Cody, where they will meet a party that will go to the Big Horn mountains for a hunt. In an interview "Buffalo Bill" expressed himself as follows: "I was never in finer health than I am now. We have had a magnificent season with our show. Never had a better one. The show closed a week ago at Henley, Eng., and it will winter in England. About April 1 we will go to France, showing all through that country. I left England a week ago last Saturday, arriving at New York Saturday. Captain W. R. Corfield of Cardiff, Wales, a prominent ship owner of Great Britain and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stanley of Liverpool accompanied me over and will visit with us for a while at Cody, Wyo. Two of Captain Corfield's sons are now at Cody, having come over some time ago. These parties are interested in some of our Wyoming enterprises with a number of other English capitalists and eastern money men. I had left England when the Russian fleet was practicing on the English fishing fleet. But the affair will have the result of inflaming British sentiment against Russia, as the English are favorable to the Japanese any way."

E. C. Harris, a Chadron banker and ex-superintendent of the Northwestern railway at that point was here this week accompanied by A. F. Ward, a discharged conductor also of that place. Their mission here was in the interest of Frank Currie candidate for representative and Mr. Ward distributed circulars soliciting members of the various railway orders here to vote for him. Mr. Currie's record in the legislature two years ago was such as to require a vast amount of explanation to square himself with his constituency especially as to that part of his record wherein the interests of the corporations and their employees were concerned.

The republican press is trying to show the iniquitous revenue law is not such a bad thing for the tax payers in this county. But it is difficult to explain. Personal interviews with many tax payers throughout the county who have personally investigated for themselves prove conclusively that taxes are almost invariably higher than in previous years. And it is useless for the fakery to try to bewilder the tax payers with meaningless columns of figures. It is a self evident fact that the last legislature appropriated sixteen hundred thousand dollars more than had ever been appropriated by any preceding legislature and all attempts at explanation will prove of no avail. THE HERALD solicits every tax payer to investigate the matter for himself.

Fire Destroys Small Building.

A row of small sheds north of the photograph gallery caught fire this afternoon and were entirely destroyed. A delivery horse belonging to the Pardee bakery was burned to death, but aside from this the loss was light.

Hallow'en Party.

On Monday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Layton was the scene of a brilliant gathering of little folks congregated for the purpose of celebrating Hallow'en. The evening was passed very pleasantly by the twenty-five or thirty youngsters with games and other indoor sports. If one could have taken a peep at the smiling faces of the boys and girls as they pursued their amusements, there could be but one verdict rendered, they were enjoying the occasion. Before the evening's festivities were brought to a close an elegant supper was served by Mrs. Layton to which the children did justice.

Attempted Hold Up.

A telegram from Cody, Wyo., of last Tuesday gave the following account of an attempted holdup of the bank at that place, in which Cashier Middaugh, well known in this city, was killed. The telegram says:

"An attempt to rob the First National bank of this city at 3:30 this afternoon resulted in the immediate death of Cashier I. O. Middaugh. Two armed men who have been hanging around this town some months rode up to the bank on horseback and entered it at the front door. They were not masked or disguised. When they ordered the cashier and his assistant to throw up their hands they were answered by these plucky officials with shots from two six-shooters. The firing became so hot that the robbers left the bank without securing any money. Cashier Middaugh followed them to the street and attempted to stop them by emptying his six-shooter at them, whereupon the smaller of the two men shot Mr. Middaugh in the breast killing him instantly. In the meantime the town became aroused and shots were fired at the robbers from every corner. They returned the fire, shooting at every one they saw on the streets and finally succeeded in mounting their horses and riding away over the hill to the southwest quickly followed by about twenty armed and mounted men. Deputy Sheriff Jeff Chapman was in the lead and word comes into town that he took a short cut through a field, and six shots were heard a few moments ago. It is expected that the robbers will surely be taken. A large reward has already been offered by the citizens of Cody for their capture or death."

The Alliance Bowling alley is a lively place these evenings and the contests for high scores is keeping the boys going at a lively rate. Just about the time a fellow thinks he has the rest skinned to a finish his score is knocked into a cocked hat by some one least expected to make a record. In today's issue Mr. Ridgell, proprietor of the bowling alley, has a number of valuable presents to give to those making the best records by December 1. Look them over and then try your luck.
