LODGE DIRECTORY.

6. OF R. T.—Hardstruggle Lodge, No. 442
Meets every Sunday afternoon at 2. Bell's hall. Visiting brothers welcome.

ROYAL HIGHLANDERS—Alliance Castle No. 43 meets every second and fourth Thursday evening in W. O. W. Hall. Visiting Clansmen cordially invited.

Wm. McBride, a son of Mrs. L. H. Mackey of this city, has just recovered from a month's illness and will leave for his home in Sarpy county for a vacation. He has been employed in the Burlington shops here.

Chaplain E. W. White of Jackson, Michigan, is conducting a series of revival meetings at the Baptist church. Our reporter did not learn of what institution he was chaplain but suppose it is the Jackson penitentiary.

Sunday about three inches of snow fell and Monday everybody had a sleigh ride including the small boy with the handlebars, and the girls too. Sleighing is so rare in these parts that sleighing is indulged in on the slightest provocation.

Next Thursday night Messrs. Ridgell, Reickstein, Brown, Wikke, and Gilman, will leave for Denver to take part in the Overland Milwaukee-Denver bowling contest. Here's hoping they will return with more laurels than they brought home from New Castle.

Sam Willets and wife are here from Parks, Nebr., where Sam has been engaged in the mercantile business. He was formerly employed at the Rumer store and later was with Superintendent Phelan. He is the guest of Fred Harrison the candy kitchen man. Willets says it is his intention to make Alliance his future home.

The evangelistic services now in progress at the Baptist church, are going forward with spirituality and power under the direction of Chaplain E. W. White, D. D., of Jackson, Mich. Very rarely does an Alliance audience have the privilege of listening to so forceful and logical a speaker as Dr. White. He has a master's grip on the sword of the Spirit and wields it with a two-edged effectiveness. No one can afford to miss a single service. Services begin promptly each evening at 7:30. No collections are taken and everybody made welcome.

A New Orleans Wine Cellar.
A lady newly arrived in Washington, of great wealth, was at a dinner a few nights ago and amazed everybody by telling the brand and vintage of a rare wine without seeing the bottle or label.
"How can you do it?" she was asked.
"Oh," she replied, "I was born in New Orleans, you know, and was raised there. When I was a slip of a girl my father used to take me down into his great wine cellar under the house and show me the dusty bottles. He taught me all about wines down in those gloomy caves."
After the dinner the hostess said to her husband: "Wasn't it interesting to hear Mrs. So-and-So tell about her father's wine cellars?"
"Great!" replied the brutal husband. "Absolutely great! It was simply fine. You know there isn't a cellar in New Orleans."—Washington Correspondence New York World.
