GOOD CLOTHES!

The Famous
FOR Low Prices

On March 10th this establishment was three years young. We use the word young advisedly, as we are not old and neither is our stock in trade, or our methods, of doing business. Since our arrival in Alliance our supremacy in the lines that we sell has never been questioned. Especially is this true of Clothing for Men and Boys. We have clinched our superiority this season by adding the best made ready-to-wear clothing to our line, and that is, the justly celebrated, HART SCHAFFNER & MARX make. New goods arriving daily--New Clothing, New Hats, New Shirts, New Ties, New Trousers, New Furnishings, New Fancy Vests. GRAY is the color this season in Men's Suits, Gray Worsteds, Gray Corkscrews, Gray Cheviots, Gray Cassimeres; We have them

LIVERY AND FEED BARN

JAMES KEELER, Proprietor.

MARSLAND.

Carl Tollman received a new potato planter on Monday.

Charles Evans is shipping nine cars of potatoes from this place.

Will Nicholson, of Whistle creek was down Saturday after corn.

Miss Lyon of Belmont was an over Sunday visitor with Miss Keam.

A number of persons are in Crawford this week attending land contests.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Squibb on the 7th inst.

Mrs. Barngrover is erecting a new windmill on her homestead west of town.

Mrs. J. M. Tollman left on Monday for Chadron to visit with relatives for a time.

The material has arrived for track laying at Nye and the work will soon be in progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulster Miller and two children are down from Casper for a visit at Men Miller's.

A sister and brother of Mrs. Bert Halli-baugh, whose name we did not learn spent last week visiting in this place.

Mrs. Collins, of Crawford returned home Saturday, having spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Kendrick.

The work of painting the Presbyterian church is now being completed, the cold weather having delayed it for some time.

Griffith Joralemon is having the interior of his house opposite the depot treated to a coat of paint. The rooms will be occupied by Mrs. Hadley and Miss Ream.

Messrs. Beetham and Wolf, both of Omaha were in this place looking for feed steers, but bought none. Mr. Beetham is brand inspector at the So. Omaha stock yards.

A. E. Fisher, a former Marsland teacher, but who is taking a course at Bellvue college will graduate June 10th and receive the degree of A. B. with a teachers life certificate.

Miss Mary Hickey dismissed school two days last week so that she could attend the Longford-Moravic wedding on Tuesday. About seventy guests attended the dance which was given in the evening.

Mrs. Smith Trussel received the sad intelligence on Friday last that her mother Mrs. Baurachs had died of pneumonia. She was formerly a resident of this vicinity, but the family are now living in Kansas.

The pumping outfit has been moved into the new building and the work of pumping has again been added to the agents work. This will no doubt last but a short time as it is a well known fact that no one man can do both jobs.

E. A. Kendrick, the newly elected county commissioner believes in beginning work near home, and has had a resurvey of the lane leading into town from the east. This is usually known as "Dog leg lane," and is in all kinds of shapes. Several surveys have been made, but none seem to be satisfactory.

LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

We had some more snow, did you? But ours is nearly all gone.

Mrs. Thompson arrived at her destination in Iowa, safely, so she writes friends here.

Is there another sunspot? If so it must be a buster. We've not seen old Sol for sometime.

The carpenter work on the new Tully home is all completed and painting is to be completed today.

Chas. Brown drove to Alliance last Thursday for the purpose of making final proof on his claim, which he did Friday.

An Alliance representative of the Empire Cream Separator Co., was rustling business in and about Lakeside the front end of this week.

Fred McLain and E. Kindred from five miles northwest and a Mr. Mavis from about sixteen miles south of here, bought tickets for Alliance on 41 today.

R. A. Cook boarded 41 for Alliance last Friday as a witness for Chas. Brown in his final proof, and incidentally to visit his better 1/2 who resides at that place during school months. Mr. Cook returned on 42 Monday.

Ezra M. Harris and wife went to Alliance on 41 Friday in the interest of the Chas. Brown final proof. Mr. Harris returned Saturday. Mrs. Harris visited with friends over the Sabbath, returning to Lakeside this morning.

Small boys see things with inquisitive eyes. Pastor Lyons, whose face is bearded, met a thorough representative boy not long since, on one of his visits who, after looking him in the face for a few moments stepped a little closer and said: "Say mister, where is your face."

Rev. Lyons made his regular bi-weekly trip to Laella last Saturday p. m. He reports la grippe as making grave inroads upon the health of some families at that point, and in one instance in a family of five the hired girl was the only one able to answer the call of the phone Sunday morning. Dr. Wilson of Rushville is attending them.

After only a week of special effort in the interest of the Lakeside church, Rev. Geo. D. Egner was compelled to return to his charge in Crawford. The nature and spirit of the work however, is such as to warrant the pastor to continue what has been begun and it is understood Rev. Lyons will run the meetings singlehanded for an indefinite period.

"The Little Outcast."

At the Opera House, Monday evening March 27, E. J. Carpenter's company will appear in "The Little Outcast." A drama of intense interest. Better get your seats in advance if you hope to get in.
