MARSLAND.

No school on Monday, the teacher being sick.

Harry Horner's potato patch, which he planted two weeks ago, is not yet in bloom.

A. D. Wier, of Chadron, working in the interest of life insurance, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Laura Catlin, of Alliance, spent a day or two with her sister, Miss Owen, at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hunsaker, of Belmont, came down Saturday, returning home Sunday.

A. E. Byers is treating his store building to a fresh coat of paint, which improves the looks very materially.

Carpenter Laravie will soon begin work on a wash house and store room at the rear of the Commercial Hotel.

E. T. Gregg received another car of corn on Friday. He is doing quite a business, grinding feed and selling grain.

Wm. Lack, a former Marsland, was down from Hought on Friday. He is farming this spring with Mr. Burk.

Miss Pearl Evans has returned home, having completed a very successful six months' term of school near Crawford.

L. Snow has a fine fountain spray erected in his door yard, and there has been several baptisms among the small boys.

Court will convene in Dawes county soon, and we understand there will be a large delegation go over to the county seat room here.

The Crowells, who raked in so much money from the show loving people of Marsland, got the G. B. in Crawford, and took the first freight out of town.

Mrs. Barngrover and family returned recently from Ft. Dodge, Iowa, where they went to visit Mr. Barngrover, he was unable to accompany them home.

Mrs. Hadley and Miss Ream, attended the social at Belmont on Friday night, given for the benefit of the Baptist church. Both we understand took part in the program.

Mrs. Kate Stanard, a former resident of this place, but late of Gordon, Nebr., has moved to Homer, Nebr., where she has taken a position as teacher of day school work among the Winebag Indians.

Mrs. Ashbrook arrived on 41 Wednesday from Kansas City and was driven out to the Ashbrook ranch, where she will spend a fortnight. Mrs. Ashbrook resides in Kansas City in order to give her children the benefit of school.

C. H. Richey is out at present serving notices on parties drawn as jurors for the April term of district court. Those drawn from this part of the county are Frank Honeyman, Wm. Hollinrake and James Montague.

Mr. Laytons came down from North Table on Saturday and moved Grandpa Jaroleman to their home. The Jaroleman home here will be closed for a few months and Mr. and Mrs. Griff Jaroleman will go to the country also.

Mr. T. J. Poole moved his fence last week to the new line of survey, and it is to be hoped that those traveling to town from the east end will hereafter hold their peace. Much credit is due our new commissioner, E. A. Kendrick, for beginning improvements at home.

C. H. Richey was out a few days the latter part of last week with two teams and carryalls, driving for a party of Omahans, who came out on the land seekers excursion. He took them to the sand hills, south of Jim Cook's, and it is needless to say, they went back without filing on land.

It was reported in railroad circles that Agent Bagley had been changed from this place to Terry, S. D., we are glad to say however that Mr. Bagley is still on deck doing business at the office of the B. & M., Marsland, Nebr., and the patrons of the office hope to have him remain here for a long time, at least.

It is hoped there will be a good attendance at the Electionary and Musical entertainment at the school house on Friday evening the 14th inst. No pains is being spared to make it a success. Bills adorn the windows of our business houses, which were drawn by one of Omaha's most promising cartoonists. Come and see Mrs. Hadley and her helpers in many different impersonations.

A wedding took place in our city last week, one day too late for the Herald items. Mr. George Binkard and Miss Jessie Halibough were married on Wednesday April 5, at the home of the brides parents, Marsland. We are not in possession of all the particulars regarding the happy event, but let us say that the ceremony was performed by Mr. Richard Mengle, of Belmont, an Elder in the "Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints." Miss Stella Owen acted in the capacity of bridesmaid and Mr. Ralph Halibough as best man. Mrs. C. G. Halibough performed the wedding march. Twenty-five five of the bride's own immediate family were present and these with the bridesmaid and officiating Elder, composed the company. We are not informed as to where the newly married couple will reside but as both have homesteads near this place, they will doubtless take up their residence thereon. They have the best wishes of the writer for a long and happy life.

HEMINGFORD.

Mrs. Ward came up from Alliance Monday.

Miss Wright was quite ill with pneumonia last week.

A large acreage of bromus grass will be put in this spring.

A. B. Ashbrook was in from the ranch the first of the week.

Fritz Lichte and Fred Ortmann went to the Pacific coast last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Young came up from Alliance Sunday to visit friends.

5 per cent paid on interest certificates. First State Bank, Hemingford, Nebr.

A very pleasant church social was held at the home of C. A. Rowland last Thursday night.

John Wildy and family went to Denver the last of the week, where they will make their home.

G. F. Hedgecock is circulating his petition for a permit to sell liquor for medical purposes, this week.

Mrs. Holdidge of Alliance will have a complete line of millinery at Fronapfel's store April 20, 21, 22.

The best line of implements known to the farmer, the celebrated Deere goods, for sale by Anton Uhrig.

I have a few implements carried over from last year, which I will sell at greatly reduced prices. Anton Uhrig.

F. H. Johnston returned to his home in Iowa Saturday. He disposed of his car of bulls to B. E. Johnson and his Shire horse to T. L. Hopkins. He left his Percheron horse with H. H. Pierce, who will keep him in Hemingford.

George Hatch has a sale advertised for the first of May. He expects to go to Nevada soon and go into business.

A phone in the depot is now an assured fact, thanks to the energy and attention of the Telephone company's management.

A. B. Perkins, from Lead, is the guest of G. W. Hatch this week. Mr. Perkins expects to accompany Mr. Hatch on his western trip.

Harry H. Pierce has two second hand cream separators almost as good as new for sale. See him at once if you want a fine article cheap.

Insure your stock now against fire and lightning. $1.80 per $100.00 for five years. Covers increase and all, actual value. K. L. Pierce, agent.

J. H. Jewett having proved up on his homestead recently regards himself as sufficiently footloose to pay a visit to his daughter, who resides at Hubbard, Ore.

Drafts under $5, 3 cents; under $15, 5 cents; $15 to $100, 10 cents. Cheapest, safest, best way to remit money. Get a bank money order. First State Bank, Hemingford, Nebr.

The safest, best, cheapest way to send money away is by bank draft (money order) New York drafts always wanted by all mail order houses. First State Bank, Hemingford, Nebr.

Notice—Anyone having claim of indebtedness against Fred Uhrig, deceased, will please present same to Anton Uhrig at once. All claims must be in by May 1st next. Anton Uhrig.

Mr. Will Goodenough, Mrs. Mattie Ols' father, arrived from his home in Gretna, La., Wednesday, and will make her a short visit. He is expecting to locate in Nebraska for the reason that his health is very poor in the south.

We have a carload of fine short horn bulls for sale at Hemingford, from one to three years old. Also one good imported Percheron stallion, registered, and one good Shire stallion, registered. Terms to suit purchaser. Johnston Bros.

Some of the finest exhibits of school work the writer has seen was done in the schools taught by the Misses Wilkinson in the eastern part of the county. It compares very favorably with the best work on exhibition at the Educational building in St. Louis.

Mr. E. Mabin returned from Omaha, where he had his arm amputated again and the nerve which was causing him so much pain removed. He states that the feeling was somewhat different, though the pain had not yet ceased. The surgeons told him that it might be sometime before that would happen. This is the third operation on his arm.

Millinery.

I will be at Bulew's store in Hemingford on April 25 and 29, with a fine line of trimmed hats, street hats and children's hats, also trimmings of all kinds with which to trim hats. This will include the best assortment of millinery ever brought to Hemingford, and I hope all my old time customers will wait until I come. Satisfaction guaranteed.
