

Your Spring Decorations

Copyright 1905 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

YOUR good clothes for Spring are here waiting for you to put on. If you are a man of judgment in clothes, you'll have a chance to exercise it this season, in comparing our suits and overcoats, as made by America's best manufacturers including Sterling, Adler and with clothes produced by other makers. You'll say that the styles are better, the tailoring, the fit, the quality. We positively guarantee every garment bearing our

—Hart Schaffner & Marx—

F A M O U S L A B E L .

Our guarantee means something. It's a money-back proposition whenever our clothes go wrong. If we have an opportunity to clothe you, you'll be satisfied with your looks, and with our prices.

Guaranteed Suits from $10.00 and up to $25

Hats, Shoes and Furnishings from America's leading manufacturers are the only kind sold by us.

The Famous Clothing House

A STORE FOR MEN!

We have a line of cheap suits, well made, at $3.95, $5.00 and $6.00.

MARSLAND.

Mrs. C. H. Richey is much improved in health.
A. P. Atherton has sold his homestead to August Rhodes.
Tom Spencer, the grocery man was in town on Saturday.
True Miller and family were down from the ranch on Saturday.
A. E. Byers and Roy Richey made a trip to Crawford, Friday.
A. McLaughlin had a valuable horse run into a wire fence and kill itself.
Mrs. Mary Hughes was transacting business in Crawford on Wednesday.
George Gregg has purchased a potato planter and will put in seventy acres of spuds.
L. T. Poole and son, Smith, of Alliance, spent Sunday at the T. J. Poole home, east of town.
L. Snow and daughter Fern, and son Lynn, went to Alliance, Friday night remaining till Sunday.
Will Nicholson lost the first joint of one of his fingers by letting a barrel of cattle dip come down upon it.
Miss Monkres, of Chadron, who had been visiting at James Tollman's for a few days took 41 for Crawford on Friday.
A Mr. Egerton and family of Crawford who were en route to Lincoln Co., were storm staid at the Commercial, four days last week.
Mrs. A. McLaughlin came up from Alliance on 41, Sunday having been down to consult Dr. Bellwood regarding her throat and neck trouble.
H. G. Furman lost fifteen head of cattle last week, presumably from taking cold during the storm, after a veterinary operation had been performed.
Mr. Baden of Denver, an eye specialist, was at the Commercial a few days recently. Those who had their eyes tested and glasses fitted were Mrs. Robert Niece and Mrs. E. T. Gregg.

S. P. Tuttle was in town Saturday with the fine imported jack owned by a company of ranchmen west of town. It was imported from the Catlin Islands, and the purchase price was one thousand dollars.

LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

Our hotel has changed hands once again, also rates.
Rev. Lyons and family made a business trip to Alliance, yesterday. They will return today.
Everybody in Lakeside has been invited to a big program and box social at Reno Friday night, May 12.
A night cap social at the school house, with ice cream and cake, Thursday night, is the present social event.
R. A. Cook is on a business trip to Alliance and visiting his family in that place. He is expected home tonight.
Rev. Lyons expects to make his initial appearance and address at the Foster school house next Sunday May 14, 3 p. m.
Mr. Down our new section foreman, for some cause was suddenly and unexpectedly let out of his job. We trust he soon be reinstated and get to work again.
Miss Bertha Burleigh of Hemingford, is visiting old friends here. Miss Burleigh lead the devotional meeting of the Epworth League last Sunday night.
Miss Loemma Swoyer has resigned her school at Schill and accepted a situation with the Spade ranch. At present she is visiting friends in and around Lakeside.
Ex-Hotel Proprietor Tyler has moved his family to a ranch southeast of town while the owner, Mr. Ashburger has moved to their ranch two miles southwest. George and Henry Ashburger have been very busy repapering and otherwise repairing the hotel for the new landlord, Mr. Bristol.

In the days of seventy-six the people could not enjoy luxuries at the price of actual necessities. In the present year of our Lord, nineteen five,

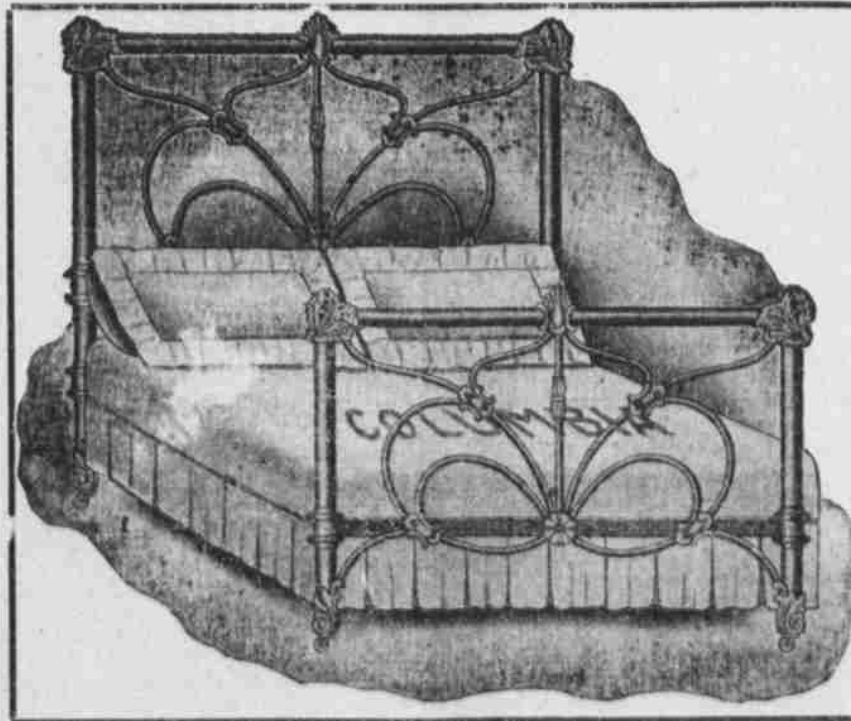

'TIS DIFFERENT.

Look at this full-sized iron bed, designed on good lines, made on honor, finished as it should be, and priced phenomenally low. No one else ever offered you an iron bed

Such as This for $4.85

You can get one of us if you'll but say the word.

(Exactly Like Cut.)

(Exactly Like Cut.)

The same applies to this elm, golden-finished wood seat, braced-back rocking chair.

Did any one else ever offer you a rocking chair to equal the one shown here in this cut, for the small sum of.....

$1.25

THAT'S THE PRICE.

Phone us, No. 139, or call at the store. We will deliver promptly.

Please bear in mind the fact that we have everything to furnish your home.

You probably think it funny

THAT WE WOULD USE THIS VALUABLE SPACE TO SAY TABLE OIL CLOTH. THERE ARE DIFFERENT GRADES OF OIL CLOTH AS THERE ARE EVERYTHING ELSE. WE CARRY A LARGE LINE OF THE BEST ONLY. WE NEVER BUY A SECOND.

The Horace Bogue Store.

GEO. D. DARLING, Housefurnisher
ALLIANCE, NEBRASKA