HERALD FOR TOGO.

Scottsbluffs has decided to celebrate the 4th this year and are advertising Senator Burkett as the big attraction. He will be here in the evening.

Twenty years ago, in the spring of 1885, we had just such rain as this, and crops never were better in the country. Don't worry about too much wet.

HENRY RAUBACH has sold his Gordon Journal to S. C. Stanhope. While we regret the loss of Editor Raubach we extend the hand of fellowship to his successor.

"ROJSEVNSKY gone to meet McGinty," was the significant telegram received at this office as the first decisive announcement of the defeat of the Russian fleet.

WHEN you figure on sending to a catalogue house for goods, just make out your list and send it with the money to any one of our advertisers and you will find they will duplicate the order for less money and keep your money at home. Try it.

THE Omaha commercial club will make a tour of the west, going by way of the U. P. to the Portland exposition starting June 1st, returning in ten days via the Northern Pacific and Burlington. There are over eighty of them in the party and they will be entertained enroute by the various cities. Why not have the business men's club prepare to entertain them here.

THE other day a store keeper of this town said in the presence of a Herald representative, "It don't pay to advertise, people don't read it and if they do they don't believe it," and yet that man is or was a patron of a catalogue house. Wonder if he believed all he read in their advertisements. You wonder who he is? He is not an advertiser in this or any other paper in this town.

INSPECTOR CAMPBELL and Prof. Besie of the state university are both authority for the statement that lime and sulphur dip will kill the pesky ox warble, which is cattle's greatest enemy. This alone should be sufficient incentive to dip. The ravages of this pest caused a depreciation of over $3,000,000 in the value of cattle on the Chicago market in six months, January to June.

PREPARE to accompany the stockmen's special to Guernsey next Saturday. A stop will be made in each town enroute and you will be surprised at the beauty and fertility of the territory tributary to Alliance. Local business men can reap a profit by soliciting this trade as well as the So. Omaha merchants. Its just another way of advertising your business and Alliance.

A FEW years ago says the Holt County Independent, a wealthy Iowa farmer named Preston purchased for his son, the Brockman ranch in Keya Paha county. The ranch had some alfalfa on it and the young Mr. Preston had added more. Last fall he concluded to fatten some steers on the alfalfa, while his father fattened his on his Iowa corn. The father went ahead and fattened his steers on his Iowa corn, and the son fattened his on his Keya Paha county alfalfa. The son had to drive his steers thirty-five miles to the railroad and it took a day longer to get them to market but they met at market on the same day with their fat cattle. To the surprise of the father he found that the Nebraska cattle fattened on alfalfa brought ten cents a hundred more than his cattle which were fattened on Iowa corn. This is the kind of proof that satisfies the blindest man and shows the great money that there is in store for those who make a success in growing alfalfa. There is still some time left this season in which to sow alfalfa. Alfalfa sown during the next week is not too late when we consider the condition of the ground.

Togo. If ever a nation should be proud of her great men, Japan owes a debt of gratitude to her peerless naval commander, Admiral Togo. He stands in a class by himself. He is, to naval warfare, what Napoleon was on land, in a class by himself. Saturday he met the Russian fleet in the open sea and gave battle to a squadron twice the size of his own, and almost without loss completely annihilated the naval pride of the Russian Empire.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff was captured and Admiral Rojstvensky barely escaped with a disabled flagship. It was a glorious victory and all America rejoices. It was a clear field with no favors, on the open sea. After months of preparation both were prepared and no apologies can be offered. The day of carnage is about over and the serfs of Russia may hope for better things, and thank Togo and Oyama for delivering them from bondage.

Memorial Day. Tuesday, to the beat of muffled drum all patriotic Americans paid a silent tribute to their honored dead. Flowers were strewn on the graves of the heroes who died in battle to save the nation or as a result of exposure in the noble cause that makes every American proud of his home and ancestors. With flags at half-mast, all the nation mourns her honored dead. Nebraskans are proud that recent legislation has stopped the desecration of the day by games and amusements. The day is and should be sacred to the memory of the dead; and so long as patriotic impulse surges through the American breast so long will the memory of our heroes be revered on each succeeding memorial day.

Close of the Mission. The week's mission at Holy Rosary church closed last Sunday with high mass, celebrated by Father Devos, followed with sermon and papal benediction by the missionary, Father Lambert, and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. That the week's services were participated in by many was attested by the large number of communicants and the great gathering at the closing services. It must be said that Father Lambert is a most successful worker in his special line of church work. He not only interests all who listen to his sermons, but awakens the hearts and minds of those who have grown lax in their duty to their creator. In his closing remarks Father Lambert urged the Catholics of Alliance to assist Father Devos in his efforts to further the advancement of Holy Rosary congregation by securing two greatly needed acquisitions namely, a parochial school for the benefit of the children, and bell for the church. The former, Father Lambert held, was of such urgent and immediate necessity that no time should be lost in preparing for the fall term.

The Elks Club. The new Elks club is now open to the members. The furnishings are complete in most of the rooms. Two elegant parlors are furnished throughout in mission style, elegant carpets and curtains. The lodge room proper has been furnished also. Twenty-five new members have been added to the original 47, making a membership of 72 now. The club quarters are not only the finest in the city but in the west, and the members as well as all the citizens, are proud to exhibit their new quarters to visitors. A handsome library reading room, stocked with the latest literature, is arranged for the convenience of the guests. Also a handsome writing room. In fact, it is an ideal home for the members. J. Emerick has been engaged as custodian and will welcome the guests and members and make them feel at home.

Mrs. Christensen Dead. Last Friday occurred the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Christensen, age 71. Deceased was a well known and popular resident of the county, coming here many years ago. Born in Germany, she was a devout member of the German Lutheran church. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Otto Roehrig. Interment in the Libby cemetery. Death was due to old age. She leaves three children, Mrs. Otto Vogel, a daughter at Wisner, Nebr., and a son at Milwaukee, Wis.

Mekiney-Collins. A pretty wedding occurred at the Mekiney home, at 8 p. m., last night when Mr. James Mekiney and Miss Besie Collins were married, Judge Spacht officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair and only the immediate relatives were present. Both are popular and well known young people and the congratulations of the community are extended. Dr. Allen, dentist. RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

F. A. Holdredge leaves for Portland this week, to take in the big show. P. X. Kennedy has resigned as operator at Halsey and gone to Omaha. Sup't. J. R. Phelan went to Newcastle and Sheridan, yesterday, on a tour of inspection.

Fire at Newcastle burned a hole in the depot roof Tuesday afternoon that will cost a thirty dollar bill to repair.

E. A. Chambers, day operator at Edgemont, has exchanged places with A. Gregory at Newcastle as night operator.

F. C. Rice went east on 42 yesterday. He has been at Newcastle and up in the Hills on a pleasure trip with his family.

E. M. Westervelt, the right-of-way man was here the first of the week, probably headed for the basin country in Wyoming.

Agent Sage of the Burlington is temporarily a widower, Mrs. Sage having gone to Beatrice to visit relative and friends.

Attorneys N. K. Griggs of Lincoln and E. H. Boyd of Alliance are in Chadron this week on legal business for the Burlington.

Conductor Arthur Gordon, who had his foot amputated two weeks ago to night, is progressing nicely and is able to sit up for brief intervals.

Wm. Terry, agent at Seneca, was called to Wilcox, Nebr., on account of the death of a relative. Relief Agent E. W. Rowe has charge until his return.

Sunday morning nineteen cars of hogs passed through here enroute to Seattle, where they will be exported to Japan. The Nebraska hog is in demand the world over.

Civil Engineer Andrew Rosewater of Omaha went west, yesterday, to address the citizens of Sheridan tonight on the subject of sewerage, for which they expect to vote $38,000 bonds Saturday.

Ed Burris, who has been employed as a timekeeper for the railroad near Guernsey, Wyo., gave up his position and came home Tuesday. The climate in the mountains was too unhealthy.

E. M. Fitt, assistant superintendent of motive power, was here last week and completed plans for the enlargement of the boiler plant at the shops. The present power is inadequate at times, and new power will be installed.

Dan Burke, the contractor who is building the Guernsey extension of the Burlington, did a little side work over there on the streets with his new steam grader and the citizens now feel that they are living in a city with paved streets which may soon follow with the completion of the railroad extension and the Pathfinder canal through their town.

Vice President Willard, general manager Holdredge, General Sup't. Phelan and Div. Sup't. Birdsell spent most of last week in the Big Horn country inspecting the route and surveys for the Burlington extension to Thermopolis. The officers are reticent as to their decision, but there seems to be a well defined belief that work on the new extension will now be ordered at once to meet the extension of the Northwestern now building to the same point. The party went east Sunday night and will return in about ten days.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

T. J. O'Keefe returned today from a two week's trip east.

W. O. Barnes is wearing mourning over one of his eyes. He says it resulted from colliding with a base ball. What do you think?

Beech Higby, general manager of the Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance company, is in town with District Ag't. John Westberg.

J. B. Kniest, foreman of the Herald office, has gone to Carroll, Ia., for few days to attend the confirmation of his daughter and visit his family. He will return Sunday.

Tuesday the Portland exposition opened in a blaze of glory and all was in readiness when the president, in Washington, touched the button which set the machinery in motion, while the vice president was on hand to welcome the hosts that had assembled to witness the opening, and all eyes are turned toward Portland now. The exposition will be open until Oct. 15th. Nebraska has reproduced her St. Louis exhibit there.

is the eldest son of E. R. Mathews, president of the Mathews Piano Co., of Lincoln, for which company he is the principal piano tuner. The bride is an accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young formally of this place. The young couple will make their home in East Lincoln.

John Barnstead was down from Hemingford Saturday, consulting Stock Inspector Campbell, about dipping and procuring some blank dipping certificates. This year every animal must be dipped whether you intend to ship or not. The law requires that cattle must be dipped at least once, to protect not only your cattle but those of your neighbor's from contagion. He reports that wheat is heading and promises a heavy yield and the acreage has more than doubled this year in all farm crops.

THE CHURCHES.

All the services will be held in the U. P. church next Sabbath as usual. The program for Children's day will be completed at Sabbath school to a. m. The subject of morning discourse is the injunction "Be Ye of Good Courage." The afternoon "A Marvelous Ruiner—Moses." The L. M. S. will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. J. N. Johnston—Program.

Most Invigorating Bath in Great Salt Lake.

The late Charles Dudley Warner—author, editor and traveler—while bathing in Great Salt Lake, remarked to a friend that in all his travels he never before saw such a splendid combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and children. The climate of Salt Lake City, while temperate the year around, is particularly delightful in summer, with its sunny days and cool nights. One, three and seven-day tours to the mountains can be made from Salt Lake City. Tourist rates are now in effect via the Denver & Rio Grande ("The Scenic line of the World") and the Rio Grande Western ("The Great Salt Lake Route.")
