BAD CHECK GRAFTER

Smooth Young Crook Runs Amuck the Law After Making Several Hauls Among Business Men.

The old game of passing worthless checks, was worked in this city the past week by a smooth young fellow by the name of W. H. Burke, and hailing from Watonga, Okla. Several days ago Sheriff Reed received a telegram from that place requesting him to take him into custody. For some time the fellow kept aloof from the officers until he happened into Simon Spry's place and asked him if he could cash a check at the same time throwing the check down upon the table where Spry and Marshal Shay were seated. The latter caught the signature of Burke, which served as a clue to his arrest. On Spry's refusal to cash the check, Burke started for the door, tearing the paper into shreds and throwing them on the floor. Marshal Shay at once phoned Sheriff Reed and that evening as Burke was coming from the Barry boarding house he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Keeler and Police Daugherty, and lodged in jail, awaiting the officer from Oklahoma. Burke told many stories about having money at Broken Bow and other places. He had in his possession several letters that lent color to his stories. He called at the Palace meat market and wanted to buy out the business from one of the proprietors, stating that he would soon receive money from home. On the strength of his talk he succeeded in securing between $40 and $50 among the business men of the town.

Sheriff McArthur, of Watonga, Okla. arrived from Lincoln yesterday, where he had secured requisition papers for Burke and returned this morning with his prisoner for the scene of his misdeed. Burke is charged with getting money under false pretense. When the sheriff read the warrant, Burke remarked that the charge was a very light one and that he was willing to face the court at once.

Sheriff McArthur feels thankful to the Alliance officers for their assistance in making the arrest of this criminal.

Short on Pants.

A hobo who evidently was in need of a new pair of trousers, strolled into the Right clothing store yesterday and while the clerk, Bert Laing was busy, started off with a $4.50 pair of pants. No doubt the weary Willie would have made his get away if it had not been for Dad Johnson, who had his eagle eye on him. Marshal Shay went to the stock yards where Happy Hooligan was quietly resting in the arms of Morpheus, and hid him to the city bastille. For a while Happy objected to go, but he changed his mind at the request of the officer. He had his trial today and was given a fine of $25 or 30 days at street work, by Judge Ridgell. Owing to the congealed condition of his finances, Happy chose the latter.

Taken to the Asylum.

Edward and Frank Fenner, the two brothers who were taken into custody last week on account of the derangement of their mental faculties, were taken to the state asylum, at Lincoln last Friday by Sheriff Reed assisted by Messrs. E. P. Sweeney, S. C. Boon and Al Wiker. This indeed is a most pathetic case, where the two brothers were bereft of their minds almost simultaneously. Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Fenner, the parents of the unfortunate men, are weighed down by the sad affliction that has overcome their sons, and their many friends hope to see them return soon, sound in mind.

Narrow Escape from Death.

County Commissioner Loer met with an accident Wednesday of last week, which injured him quite severely, but luckily he escaped with his life. While assisting in dipping cattle he was caught in the cage in such a manner that his head and right arm were badly bruised. The fact that he escaped instant death was miraculous. Mr. Loer is in the city attending a session of the county commissioners.

Serenaded.

Last Monday evening a number of the young people attending normal here, gave an in-door serenade on Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt, who were just recently married. About forty people met at the school house and, accompanied by the high school orchestra, marched in a body to the home of G. E. Leidy, where the young married couple are keeping house, and a general good time was had there. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt were presented with an elegant glass berry set, after which the orchestra gave several selections, a number of recitations were heard and everyone did their part in helping to pass an enjoyable evening. After congratulations were received, Mr. Leavitt, in a few words, thanked the normalites for the entertainment and the present received, and hoped that each one present would, some day, have a wedding of their own, which was much cheered and applauded by the school ma'ams. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt will make their home in Alliance during normal.

Fell Through The Roof.

A peculiar accident occurred at the home of Wm. O'Mara, near Hay Springs, one day recently. The ranch house is built in such a manner that the eaves are level with an adjoining hill. A horse walked on to the roof of the building and fell through striking Miss Middicott in its descent and crushing the body quite severely. Mr. O'Mara was in Alliance at the time and hurried home to her assistance. While the injured lady was quite badly bruised, as a result of the accident, she will not sustain any permanent injuries.
