Murder and Suicide at Clearmont.

Special to THE HERALD.
Clearmont, Wyo., June 21—A most sensational shooting affray occurred here this morning in a local restaurant. Dave Green, a son of L. C. Green, a prominent and wealthy farmer of Sheridan fired two shots from a forty-five caliber revolver at his wife Lizzie, both shots taking effect and mortally wounding, then turning the pistol on himself, sent a bullet through his own heart, death resulting instantly. Green has of late been working on a sheep ranch near Buffalo and being thrown out of a position came to Clearmont bringing his wife with him. She at several different times had been an inmate of houses of ill repute and the treatment she received at the hands of her husband since arriving here, forced her to resume her former profession, returning to this led her to paying more attention to another man which aroused the jealous hatred of Green and the shooting resulted. Mrs. Green's mother, a widow, and a sister are respected residents of Billings. They have been telegraphed particulars of the tragedy and expected to arrive immediately to take charge of her body. Green's parents have been notified and the remains will be taken to Sheridan soon as the coroner's inquest is finished.

A Big Time at Hemingford.

Members of the Alliance lodge I. O. O. F. to the number of twenty-one went to Hemingford last Saturday to institute a lodge at that place and to initiate about twenty-one candidates into the mysteries of the order. District Deputy S. A. Franklin conducted the work, which is said to have been well executed and the new lodge begins with enthusiasm among its members, which are among the best citizens of Hemingford and vicinity. The Alliance delegation was met at the train by the band and citizens and escorted to the Odd Fellows' hall. In the evening a splendid supper was served at the Commercial hotel. About sixty plates were laid and the repast enjoyed in a hearty manner. The Alliance visitors speak highly of the Hemingford people as entertainers and also the supper and luncheon served at midnight on that occasion. Our Hemingford correspondent, who, by the way, was one to ride the goat on this occasion, has something further to say on the subject.

A Young Traveler.

M. Hugo Camplin of Sheridan, though only a lad of nineteen or twenty years, has had a great deal of practical experience. For some time he was editor of the paper at Newcastle and only lately graduated from the high school at Sheridan. On the day of graduation, his father presented him with a present in the way of paying all expenses for a trip to Colorado, where the lad accomplished the ambition of his life, that of ascending Pike's Peak and taking a kodak view of the morning sunrise, which young Camplin accomplished. He started on the ascent in the evening and arrived at the top, a distance of ten miles, in time to take the view. In speaking of his trip up the mountain, the young traveler said that he ran into a snow storm and froze his hands severely. He passed through this city Tuesday on his return to Sheridan. Camplin is a correspondent of several daily papers and grinds out some spicy stories of everyday life.
