J. T. Richardson, formerly of this place and well known to our people, has moved from Junction, Wyo., where he has run the section for two years to Cheyenne and taken the oversight of a section there. THE HERALD keeps them posted in Marsland news.

We hear of fences which surrounded government land being taken down in this vicinity, the parties not being willing to run the risk of the thousand dollar fine being imposed by the government for fencing government land.

C. H. Richey drove to Ashbrook's ranch Sunday evening carrying a message announcing the death of Mr. Ashbrook, Sr., father of the Ashbrook brothers whose home was in Texas. There being some delay in delivering the message it was not possible for the family to reach the midnight train and therefore they did not go.

Miss Carrie Grant was elected Monday to teach our school. Miss Grant has had considerable experience as a teacher and has just recently returned from Valparaiso, Ind., where she has been taking special training in school work. She is at present attending the normal at Alliance. School will open the first Monday in September.

Mrs. E. T. Gregg left Wednesday night for New York, the place of her birth and home of her childhood. She has been absent for twenty three years and there has been many changes in that time. She came away a wife of only a few years and goes back, three times a grandparent. She will be absent about two months and will visit friends in Boston, East Berrin and several other cities.

We see by the mortuary record of the Aurora, Ill., Daily News, that John M. Scott, aged 30 years and 6 months, died at the home of his mother Mrs. Briggs, of hemorrhagic pneumonia, a very rare disease. Jack Scott, as he was familiarly known here, was for several years a resident of this vicinity. He was a kind hearted boy and much liked by his associates. He went from here to Aurora, Ill., where he was married to a young lady of that place who preceded him to the grave just two months. They left a little child.

The Canton people are about to begin building a line from Canton here connecting with the southwest line and using a part of their poles from T. A. Green's ranch to town but having a separate wire.

NOTICE—All those knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle same with John Anderson in the Millet pharmacy. I have sold out and want to collect all outstanding debts at once.

GRO. F. HEDGECOCK.

A special run made on the celebrated JOHN DEERE HAY LOADERS AND ACME SWEEPS which are guaranteed not to be excelled or equaled by any others, will be sold on extremely close figures by Anton Uhrig.

E. L. Everett has bought the lots which the Lincoln Land company owned in Hemingford, about 110 in all. This closes out the holding of this company in Hemingford and no doubt will facilitate the buying of lots as the company was not always reasonable in pricing them.

A niece of Mike Butler, who with her father was visiting his sister Mrs. Butler, died at the Butler home Tuesday. She came up from the east a few days ago and is supposed to have caught the disease on the train. She leaves an invalid father who had a similar misfortune in the death of an older daughter while he was in the hospital at Omaha. The little girl was 12 years old.

Revs. Boyer and Biggs, on their way from Belmont to Carpenter, stopped over in Canton and held religious service Monday night.

Mrs. W. A. Randall had a little bad luck coming her way a few evenings ago by a coyote catching a fine turkey hen that would have hatched fifteen little turks the next day.

Harvey Myers, the picture man of Alliance, who has been taking pictures of ranches and stock in this part of the county was around delivering his work which was good.

As the ALLIANCE HERALD has again changed its politics, the Canton news slinger will begin where he left off and give the news of the week.

B. C. Curtis, one of Sioux county's staunch ranchmen went to Hemingford Saturday, returning the first of the week with a bunch of horses to feed upon the green pastures of his ranch during the summer.
