The City of Alliance

LLIANCE is a thriving city of more than 5000 population, prosperous and glowing prospects for the future. 400 miles west of Omaha, 236 miles north of Denver. It is the metropolis of western Nebraska. It has water works, electric lights, a three story city hall and fire engine house, first class fire company and apparatus. Two large school buildings; employs twenty teachers to educate its 1000 school children. Seven churches, U. S. land office, Court house, two National Banks, modern business blocks and handsome residences. Its railroad facilities are the best. It is on the main line of the Burlington from either Chicago or St. Louis to Portland and the Pacific coast. It is the Division headquarters for western Nebraska, Wyoming, South Dakota and Montana, the offices of General Superintendent Phelan baving been recently located here. The western division shops are located here and more than 600 railroad men are employed here. Its people are hospitable, enterprising, and intelligent. Its climate is healthful and invigorating. In short, no town in Nebraska presents superior inducements for men of capital, enterprise and push, to locate within her borders. Letters of inquiry addressed to the Alliance HERALD, will be answered promptly and in detail. Better write for a copy of our handsome twenty-four page illustrated Industrial edition, it will tell you more than we could write you in a month.

Successful Mining Enterprise.

F. H. Woodbridge arrived in the ity today from Deadwood and will / pend the day renewing acquaintances and attending to some business matters. Mr. Woodbridge is on his return from the annual meeting of the Safe Investnent Mining company of which he is secretary and reports that the same board was re-elected with one exception, Mr. Curtis a prominent business man of Chicago, being elected in place of H. While some may have felt that the company has been a little slow it seems that the business has been managed admirably and the officers deserve great credit in amassing such property which is replete this service. with ore, timber and water while the B & M. railroad spans the property. To do this and keep out of debt is no small undertaking and still have a reserve in the treasury of $35,000. This is a property of no small magnitude, comprising as it does some 1200 acres all of which is under process of patent. his alfalfa fields. We congratulate our former townsman bringing about this result which is Lakeside last evening, pleasing to all who are so fortunate to hold stock in this enterprise.
