MARSLAND.

The B. & M. workmen are here plowing fire guards this week.
Quite a number from this place contemplate attending Gentry's show at Alliance August 29.
L. Snow came down from Mystic last week called by the accident which befell his son Lion.
Harry Gregg was down from Sunnyside ranch, Sioux county, for a visit with the home folks last Sunday.
John Ellsworth, a former resident of this place but late of Chadron, moved to his homestead a few miles west of town the first of the week.
Mrs. J. Sullenberger returned Sunday from a visit at Scottsbluff with the C. H. Iron family. She also visited in Alliance a couple of days.
Miss Verda Cheney of Crawford, and who frequently visited her sister, Mrs. H. P. Kendrick near this place, was recently married at Chadron.
Miss Minnie Wanek of Lawn, who has attended the entire session of normal, came in on 21 Sunday. She will teach the Lawn school the coming year.
The new bachelor section foreman recently assigned to this place, has resigned. We suppose there are not enough of young ladies in the town to suit his bachelor taste.
Dayton Sullenberger accompanied the mail carrier, George Richey, to Agate, Sioux county Monday returning Tuesday. He went to see the "big injuns" camped at Jas. Cook's and will also devote some time to collecting curies.

LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

Did you see the eclipse of the moon?
Chas. Crowther was an Alliance visitor over Sunday.
Grandma Kendall has gone on a visit to friends at Hemingford.
Ding! dong! ding! Hear dem bells, dont you hear dem bells?
Not a few people are looking for homes in this part of the sandhill country. Fred McClain located a homeseeker yesterday.
Mrs. Rev. Lyons and the other lions arrived home from Colorado City about ten days ago. Hence the preacher wears a broader smile.
Fred Baker, a jeweller and watch repairer of Newcastle, Wyo., visited a week at the H. J. Thompson home, returning on 21 Sunday; and why look so sad?
Some of the weeds about town have been suffering of late at the hands of the strong mower. But oh my! What about those on unoccupied ground and on the streets?
Ben Skiles returned last week from a three month sojourn in the eastern part of the state. He reports everything in the line of vegetation in fine condition and all crops great.
Flora Cook returned from Normal at Alliance Saturday morning. Mrs. Pendergast with a couple of little Pendergasts accompanied her for a few days visit at the Cook home. Mrs. Pendergast returned to Alliance Thursday.

Wanted—Less rain! and more sunshine, for which the ranchmen of this part of the country agree to cut and put up all the hay on the hill-sides and in the valleys—except what is under water—that they possibly can in the next six weeks.
Miss Lottie Crowther returned from the Alliance Normal Friday morning bringing with her one of her Alliance friends, Miss Colburn. They are having a jolly time at the Crowther home three-fourths of a mile west of town. Miss Colburn expects to return to Alliance Thursday.
Fred McClain has moved his wife and other effects into town during the haying season while it is anticipated he will be away from home a good portion of the time. They occupy the house vacated by Mr. Downs, a former section foreman here, the property of D. Ashberger.
L. H. Carstensen is packing his household effects preparatory to moving to Curtis. Mr. Carstensen resigned his position, at Lakeside not long since, as agent for the B. & M. to accept a partnership with his father in the furniture business at Curtis, Neb., whether he will move as soon as relieved here. Mrs. Carstensen anticipates going today or tomorrow. Mr. Carstensen has relinquished his homestead claim east of town to J. H. Lunsford.

Chief American Horse, who was at the head of a party of Sioux in camp at Jim Cooks, has returned to the reservation leaving the party in charge of Chiefs Marrow Bones and Walk on the Ground. Some of the bucks are employed on the ranch as hay hands. The party will give their annual war dance before their return to the reservation.
On request of attending physicians, Drs. Bellwood and Clough, Mr. Snow took his son Linn to Alliance Wednesday to have his broken arm placed under the X ray. The bones had begun to knit but owing to the fact that the fracture was 40 near the joint it had not been properly set and had to be broken over again. The physicians think it will be all right in a short time.
