Standard Cattle Co. Auction Sale

On Saturday, Sept. 2, Saturday, Sept. 9, and Saturday Sept. 16,
AT HECLA, NEB.
(B. & M. Railway)

The Standard Cattle Company will sell by public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following cattle: 650 yearlings, (steers and heifers); 500 to 600 cows and calves, (calves unbranded); 250 two-year-old heifers, and a large number of three-year-old steers; three-year-old spayed heifers; two-year-old steers; two-year-old spayed heifers; numbering in all 7300 head.

These cattle are all dehorned and have been bred by the company on their Sand Hill Ranch, from pure bred Shorthorn and Hereford bulls, and are of fine quality.

At the same place and dates this company shall also offer a number of their saddle horses, wind mills, drinking tanks and standing fences on their property. The train from the east over the Burlington, leaving Omaha at 11:10 p. m., arrives at Hecla at 11:30 the next day, and these sales will commence immediately after the arrival of this train. Arrangements will be made for the accommodation of buyers after each sale and parties are requested to have bank references for purchases made.

tice with Dr. Peterson, another former Allianceite, at Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Both are young men of integrity and their numerous friends here are pleased to note their success.

The sociable given by the ladies of Holy Rosary church last Thursday evening was largely attended and enjoyed. The refreshments were deliciously prepared and neatly served. While the weather was rather cool for ice cream, the hot coffee and fine sandwiches prepared the way for the frigid dishes. The string and phonograph music added to the pleasure of the occasion.

A picnic was tendered the Sunday scholars of Holy Rosary church last Saturday, on the beautiful grounds surrounding the parsonage. The afternoon was given to playing games and indulging in contests such as races, jumping, and the like. In the evening the little ones together with their teachers enjoyed a sumptuous supper.

Judge Ridgell and wife returned Sunday from Denver where he attended the Eagles convention while Mrs. Ridgell visited friends. The judge says there were 25,000 Eagles in attendance besides fully 50,000 visitors in the city, and Denver people did themselves proud in entertaining. One of the unique features during the parade was snowballing, the snow having been hauled down from the mountains.
