THE SEARCH FOR MEN.

Positions of Emolument Ever Open to the Right Person.

The business world is looking for men who can achieve results. All others are hurriedly pushed aside. The keen competition among employers for high grade men is shown by the frequent changes that are always being made in responsible positions. No sooner does a man make a satisfactory record than rival employers begin bidding for his services. The market value of such men has risen with the demand, and there are now several men in the United States who are receiving over $100,000 per year, scores who are receiving $50,000 and better, and hundreds who are earning $25,000 or more, while an unaccountable host are earning over $10,000, writes H. J. Haggood in Harper's.

To those who have not made a study of this question the great demand for high grade men and the thoroughness of the search that is constantly being made for them are surprising. For the past eighteen months a Chicago concern has been trying to find the right man for a position that will pay from $15,000 to $20,000 a year. It is a common expression among large employers, "I would rather pay $10,000 than $1,000 to a man," and they mean it. They want men who can handle men, men who can discover and stop business leaks, men who can abolish unnecessary moves, find short cuts, consolidate plants, make a market where none existed before, overcome competition—men who can make their year's work yield tenfold on the yearly balance sheet. The manager of a large New York department house stated recently, "We are looking for five executive men, to whom we are willing to pay from $3,500 to $10,000 a year. These positions are filled at present," he added, "but they are not filled satisfactorily, and we are anxious to find better men."

WHIMS OF THE ANARCHISTS.

Only Three of All the Monarchs Visiting Paris Attacked by Them.

It would be interesting to know by what logical process—if by any logical process at all—the Paris anarchists make selection of those kings whom it is attempted to do away with on their visits to the gay capital, and pass others by.

Within the last ten years—since the death of President Carnot at the hands of an anarchist assassin, which event occurred, however, in Lyons—more than a dozen reigning monarchs have visited Paris and attempts have been made upon the lives of but three—the czar of Russia, the shah of Persia and the king of Spain. In October, 1897, there were present in the city of light no less than four sovereigns, all at one gladsome time, those of Belgium, Serbia, Bulgaria and Siam.

The first-named, King Leopold, has been for years a frequent visitor and he is a familiar figure in the streets, often with a single companion, on foot or driving an automobile. Edward of England has also made many excursions to Paris as Prince of Wales, and has only recently paid his second visit since his accession to the throne. The late Queen Victoria would have been an easy mark for anarchists during her memorable interview with President Faure in the Paris suburbs in 1887. To none of these has the Paris anarchist paid hostile attention.—Harper's Weekly.

A Panacea.

Last fall an Englishwoman of letters was staying as the guest of an elderly lady, at a country house in Western Massachusetts. While they were driving one afternoon they had the misfortune to meet the omnipresent automobile at a sharp turn of the road. The horses, being spirited, shied, dashing the carriage against a tree and throwing its occupants out into the road.

The Englishwoman picked herself up uninjured, but was horrified to see her aged hostess lying on the ground unconscious. Running to a nearby farmhouse, she knocked for some time before she finally succeeded in bringing a sunbonneted woman to the door. "A lady has been hurt—thrown from a carriage. She is lying down there in the road. Can you give me some whisky for her?" cried the visitor in breathless anxiety.

"Well, no, we don't never keep no whisky," said the native-born after some deliberation. "Wouldn't the lady like a piece o' pie?"—Lippincott's.

Unanswered.

Down where the reeds bend in the stream
That gladly flows upon its way,
The lark still sings and still the gleam
Is golden at the close of day.
And still the thrush that sang in May
Trills blithely in the young thorn tree,
But through the tall top of the pine
The wind blows sadly and the glee.
That Hope once promised should be mine
Is lost, and lost forever now—
For, dear, since you are silent, how
Can gladness come to me?
The doleful cricket from the grass
Proclaims impatient summer's wane;
Our shadows lengthen where we pass,
And crooked-backed old men complain
Of aches that preface coming rain,
And where, like billows of the sea,
The tall grain seemed to ebb and flow
The yellow stubbles are! But, free
From any sadness man may know,
I'd hail the autumn's haze and wear
If you might break the silence, dear,
And whisper back to me. E. E. Kiser.

The number of women matriculated in the South German universities, in all of which women are admitted, if not welcomed, was 127. Besides these 1,049 were registered as in attendance at certain courses.

Storekeepers report that the extra quantity, together with the superior quality of DeFiance Starch, makes it next to impossible to sell any other brand.

A peep into the future would probably be as unsatisfactory to most people as a backward glance at the past.

Dealers say that as soon as a customer tries DeFiance Starch it is impossible to sell them any other cold water starch. It can be used cold or boiled.

Only an expert shopper can visit seventeen stores in one afternoon and escape without spending a cent.

FARMS FOR RENT OR SALE ON CROP payments. J. MULHALL, Sioux City, Ia.

You cannot blame the world for being weary of a religion that is dreary.

Don't you know that DeFiance Starch besides being absolutely superior to any other, is put up 16 ounces in package and sells at same price as 12-ounce packages of other kinds?

There is no race so easy for the bookmaker as the human race.

Hundreds of dealers say the extra quantity and superior quality of DeFiance Starch is fast taking place of all other brands. Others say they cannot sell any other starch.

It is better to set one man to work than to make a hundred weep.

If you don't get the biggest and best its your own fault. DeFiance Starch is for sale everywhere and there is positively nothing to equal it in quality or quantity.

THE IDEAL WIFE

Shapes the Destiny of Men—The Influence of a Healthy Woman Cannot Be Overestimated.

Seven-eighths of the men in this world marry a woman because she is beautiful in their eyes—because she has the qualities which inspire admiration, respect and love.

There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature. The influence of women glorious in the possession of perfect physical health upon men and upon the civilization of the world could never be measured. Because of them men have attained the very heights of ambition; because of them even thrones have been established and destroyed.

What a disappointment, then, to see the fair young wife's beauty fading away before a year passes over her head! A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home, and a drag upon her husband.

The cost of a wife's constant illness is a serious drain upon the funds of a household, and too often all the doctoring does no good.

If a woman finds her energies are flagging, and that everything tires her, dark shadows appear under her eyes, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams; if she has backache, headache, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities, or depression, she should take means to build her system up at once by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This great remedy for women has done more in the way of restoring health to the women of America than all other medicines put together. It is the safeguard of woman's health.

Following we publish, by request, a letter from a young wife.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley of 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so that I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every woman who is in poor health and ailing.

Its benefits begin when its use begins. It gives strength and vigor from the start, and surely makes sick women well and robust.

Remember Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of woman's ills. This fact is attested to by the thousands of letters from grateful women which are on file in the Pinkham laboratory. Merit alone can produce such results.

Women should remember that a cure for all female diseases actually exists, and that cure is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Take no substitute.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

Physicians Recommend Castoria

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians Addressed to Charles H. Fletcher.

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory."

Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."

Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."

Dr. Wm. L. Rosserman, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I am pleased to speak a good word for your Castoria. I think so highly of it that I not only recommend it to others, but have used it in my own family."

Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."

Dr. Wm. J. McCann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Dr. J. E. Clansen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."

Dr. Channing H. Cook, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used your Castoria for several years past in my own family and have always found it thoroughly efficient and never objected to by children, which is a great consideration in view of the fact that most medicines of this character are obnoxious and therefore difficult of administration. As a laxative, I consider it the peer of anything that I ever prescribed."

Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recommendation of Castoria."
