LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

Leon Hancock has been cutting hay at the home ranch this past week.

Tom Higgins and Ed Travers are among the ranchers who have brought cattle in for shipment so far this week.

Mrs. I. E. Skiles and the twins returned yesterday from a few days visit at the Webster ranch, fifteen miles south or town.

LaLord Bristol is just bristling with business these days, with the hunters for work, for help, and for game of various kinds.

W. C. Barber and wife, who visited the G. A. R. rally at Denver last week, returned to their home Sunday morning via Lakeside.

In last weeks items Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barber, Austin and Crovath, etc., should read, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barber and Austin Crovath, etc.

A musical program is announced for Lakeside during the fore part of October. Dates given later. The proceeds will be devoted to improvements on the parsonage.

J. A. Crowther is the first in our vicinity to reach the climax of hay cutting, and that of course is the completion. Mr. Crowther is now acting as the good neighbor and helping those less fortunate.

Mrs. Theo. Thompson will start on a six days visit to friends and relative in Idaho tomorrow. Miss Lena Thompson will accompany her as far as Newcastle, Wyo., for a few days visit at that place.

E. G. Kindred and family left on 43 for Greeley, Colo., this morning. Mrs. Kindred and children will remain in Greeley with relatives during the winter to take advantage of the school at that place. Mr. Kindred will return in a week or ten days.

Mrs. Cooper, who lives near Ellsworth, drove into town last evening with a load of vegetables and home grown watermelons, and now—well everybody knows what happens when watermelons, those kind that do not taste so strong of "white iron," come to town.

Notice!

THE FALL CAMPAIGN is now coming on, and

I wish to announce to the public, that I am out as a candidate this fall for the office of Flour Inspector, and I wish to say right here, that if I am elected I will give you the best there is for the next two years or until my successor is elected and qualifies. My platform is the 5-X CREAM, and I wish to say, that all other candidates, whether they be nominated on the publican or sinners' ticket, will stand no show of being elected, unless they have this plank in their platform this fall. For further information in regard to this platform, call on
