RESTORED HIS HAIR

Scalp Humor Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment—After All Else Had Failed.

"I was troubled with a severe scalp humor and loss of hair that gave me a great deal of annoyance and inconvenience. After unsuccessful efforts with many remedies and so-called hair tonics, a friend induced me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The humor was cured in a short time, my hair was restored as healthy as ever, and I can gladly say I have since been entirely free from any further annoyance. I shall always use Cuticura Soap, and I keep the Ointment on hand to use as a dressing for the hair and scalp. (Signed) Fred K. Busche, 213 East 57th St., New York City."

NOT WORRYING OVER CONTRACT.

No Matter What She Signed, Woman Would Pay When She Liked.

"Do you know what you signed?" asked the man, as the woman laid down her pen.

"Why, yes," she replied. "I signed a contract to pay for a piano in so many months at the rate of so many dollars per month."

"How do you know you did?" asked the man. "You didn't read the contract."

"I know that," said the woman. "It wasn't necessary. I haven't time for that. I know what I told them down at the office yesterday."

"That is just like a woman," said the man, impatiently. "They clap their names to any kind of a document without reading it over. So careless are they about such things that half the women in the land would sign their own death warrant and not know it."

Then the man read slowly through the written agreement.

"Here," he said, "is a mistake, first pop. Fortunately you are dealing with a reliable firm that will rectify it. If you were buying from some jay concern that would hold you to your bargain you would have to make your payments on the 12th of every month, instead of on the 1st, as you wish to do."

"Oh, that's nothing," said the woman, serenely. "Don't worry about that. I'll pay whenever I get ready, no matter what the contract says."

"Oh, excuse me," said the man. "Perhaps that explains why all women think it unnecessary to read whatever papers they sign."

DEATH SEEMED NEAR.

How a Chicago Woman Found Help When Hope Was Fast Fading Away.

Mrs. E. T. Gould, 914 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are all that saved me from death of Bright's Disease, that I know. I had eye trouble, backache, catches when lying abed or when bending over, was languid and often dizzy and had sick headaches and bearing-down pains."

The kidney secretions were too copious and frequent, and very bad in appearance. It was in 1903 that Doan's Kidney Pills helped me so quickly and cured me of these troubles and I've been well ever since."

IN THE BEST OF HEALTH SINCE TAKING PE-RU-NA.

Gen. Jackson Vine.

The wild grape vine on the shores of Mobile bay, about one mile north of Daphne, Ala., is commonly known as the "Gen. Jackson vine," from the fact that Gen. Andrew Jackson twice pitched his tent under it during his campaign against the Seminole Indians. This vine, in June, 1897, was reported to have a circumference of six feet one inch at its base. Its age was estimated at that time to exceed 100 years.—Scientific American.

In True American Style.

An alarm of fire in the vicinity of Harrigan street in Baltimore brought out the fire department of the district. While the bells clanged and the pungent wood smoke of the engines filled the air, the merchant who occupied the first floor pushed his way through the crowd and hung a signboard over his door. It read: "No interruption to business."

The City Child Abroad.

Lucy was on her first visit to the country, and although she had heard of cows being milked, she had never seen the operation. On the first evening after her arrival at the farm she said: "Mama, please may I go down to the barnyard? I want to see just how they get the milk into those cows and how they get it out again."

His Threat.

There was a very naughty boy and his mother did not know what to do with him. So she said, "I will put you in a hencoop if you will not behave." Then he said, "Well, before you put me in, I want to tell you that I will not lay any eggs."—New York World.

IN POOR HEALTH. PAINS IN BACK. SICK HEADACHES. PE-RU-NA CURED.

Mrs. Lena Smith, N. Cherry street, cor. Line, Nashville, Tenn., writes: "I have had poor health for the past four years, pains in the back and groins, and dull, sick headache, with bearing down pains."

"A friend, who was very enthusiastic about Peruana insisted that I try it."

"I took it for ten days and was surprised to find that I had so little pain. I therefore continued to use it and at the end of two months my pains had totally disappeared."

"I have been in the best of health since and feel ten years younger. I am very grateful to you."

Catarth of the internal organs gradually saps away the strength, undermines the vitality and causes nervousness. Peruana is the remedy.

Failed to Capture Whales.

Excitement was caused recently among the shipping at Port Elizabeth, Cape Colony, by the appearance of two large whales, a bull and a cow. Their gambols were watched by a large number of spectators. Several fishing boats and tugs went after them, and one succeeded in getting a harpoon home in the cow. A whaler's crew then had an exciting time, the whale towing the boat about the offing until nearly three o'clock, when it managed to break away. More boats and tugs then joined in the chase, but failed to get within striking distance.
