HEMINGFORD.

[Keith L. Pierce is fully authorized to solicit subscriptions and job work and collect and receipt for same, and transact all other business in connection with his position as an accredited representative of this paper.]

Potato buying is in full blast.
 Miss Gladys Burleigh has been ill this week.

Mr. Green, the miller, left Sunday night for Lincoln.

The new steam thrasher started in at Mr. Slater's.

Mrs. Leora Rustin came up from Alliance Sunday morning.

Mrs. Broshar of Canton left Tuesday morning for Hot Springs.

Rupurt and Jennie Walker spent Saturday and Sunday with Bertha Rowland.

Miss Norah Brown who met with a serious accident last week is improving.

Mrs. McDougal, Mrs. Dan O'Keefe and Grandma Elmore went to Alliance Monday.

We are in the market for good loans all the time.—First State Bank, Hemingford, Neb.

Longtime farm loans, reasonable interest.—K. L. Pierce, First State Bank, Hemingford, Neb.

Dent Piper arrived from Hot Springs Monday morning and is lying quite ill at his sister's home.

Ora Philips met with a painful accident Monday morning. He was going after a load of hay and the horses became frightened and tipped the wagon over and ran away. His collar bone, shoulder blade and arm were broken.

Mrs. S. J. Holdridge will be at Frohnapp's store in Hemingford, Oct. 6 and 7, with the best line of millinery ever shown in Hemingford. Everything new and stylish. Plumes, silks and velvets. Hats retouched or made to order. Prices to suit every one.

Millinery Opening.

I will be at Burlew's store in Hemingford on October 5, 6 and 7, with the finest line of millinery ever shown there, consisting of street, dress and tailored hats, for both ladies and children. I will also have material for re-trimming hats. Will be pleased to meet all my old customers and new ones also. Don't forget the date, Oct. 5, 6 and 7.
 MISS MANGAN, Alliance, Neb.

LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

[Crowded out last week.]
 Frost somewhat visible this morning, but not dangerous.

Fred Shultz brought in quite a drove of cattle Monday for shipment.

J. C. Foster and wife made a trip to Alliance Saturday returning Monday.

School began Monday morning, with Miss McDougal, of Alliance, as teacher, and seven pupils.

Landlord Bristol is overloaded these days and has been compelled to turn away people seeking shelter and accommodation.

Ed. Whetstone of the Box Butte Table, a brother of Mrs. J. D. Hunsaker, has been visiting her since last Wednesday. Mr. Whetstone returned to his home yesterday.

Quite a number of broken window lights in town as a result of last Wednesday's hail. That's nothing you should see the broken heads just out of town as a result of last Wednesday's hail. P. S. These were cabbage heads and everything else that was in the garden.

More rainfall here last Wednesday afternoon, to the square inch in the same length of time, than the people of Lakeside are in the habit of seeing, and sufficient hail came with it to drive it into the ground, but it did not drive. There is a considerable quantity of it in evidence yet. It filled our back yards, our cisterns, our rain barrels and some of our cellars. It drove every living thing to seek shelter, somewhere even to the lizards, a couple of which we leapt, crawled into a cellar that was dry, and then loth to take chances on an encroaching flood, crawled into some jars of nice new sweet pickles and then quietly drowned.

MARSLAND.

James Sullenberger has returned to Wyoming after a six weeks' stay on the farm. Miss Ava Snow returned, Saturday, after a week's stay in Alliance.

Miss Emele Jacobson left Thursday, for Sheridan. She expects to do sewing.

Miss Lucile Wilson, one of the Alliance "Hello" girls, was an over Sunday guest at L. Snow's.

The Joraleman family, who spent several weeks among relatives on North Table, has returned to town.

Mrs. Homrighousen's sister, who has been visiting her for a few days, left, Wednesday, for her home at Clinton, Ia.

Miss Attie Snow, who attended the state fair at Lincoln and afterwards visited at Lushon for a fortnight, returned Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Noel, niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. McLaughlin, left recently to spend the winter abroad, we did not learn where. Mr. McLaughlin accompanied her as far as Alliance.

Mrs. E. S. Gregg, who has been visiting on the Atlantic coast for nearly three months, returned home Wednesday. She visited many points of interest, while gone, and was in Portsmouth while the peace commission was in session and had the pleasure of seeing the notable personages who composed that great tribunal. Her visit, however, was not all fraught with pleasure, as she attended the funeral services of a brother, while gone.

The air was filled with smoke and flame again Monday and some verily thought that Eggleston's "End of the world had come." Sparks from a B. & M. engine set fire to Thomas' range and soon a great fire was sweeping to the east consuming all of Mr. Thomas' stacked hay, the buildings on the old Burton and Loch places, crossed over to T. J. Poole's meadow, burning up stacks, shocks and windrows of hay. It crossed the road to H. G. Furman's place, one mile east of town, and was consuming the rail fences with alarming rapidity when a large force was successful in putting out the flames. Another large slice of N. G. Poole's range went up in the blaze. Sup't Birdsell and Mr. Boyd, adjuster for the B. & M., were soon upon the scene, looking over damages.
