STANDARD CATTLE CO. HORSE SALE!

At MULLEN, NEBR., OCT. 21, 1905.

The postponement of the sale of our Horses was inevitable to admit of clearing up our Cattle in all our pastures and adjacent territory.

This will be our final sale and all horses of the Company's will absolutely be cleaned up. This offering of one hundred and twenty head comprises the tops of our saddle and work horses and will be sold to the highest bidder for Cash. The horses will be given a period of rest before the sale and will be in good condition for work. On the above date the Company will make their final clean up, by selling the remainder of their Wagons, Harness, Buggies and the like.

SCHOOL NOTES

Jesse Meyocks and Wm. Clayton entered the 9th grade Monday morning. Miss Blanche McDonald is employed in the Bogue store.

Misses Bessie Standen and Martha Bell were high school visitors yesterday afternoon.

Byron Ufford, one of the graduates last spring, and who has been working in the hay fields near Hyannis, returned to the city last Thursday. He is now employed by the Burlington.

The Northwest Nebraska Declamatory contest will be held at Crawford the evening of Dec. 1. The Teachers' association holds a convention there the same Dec. 1 and 2. The local contest here will be about one week before the district contest.

Word was received in Alliance yesterday that Miss Ethel Roak had died at her home in Denver. Miss Roak attended school in this city last winter. She was a sister of Miss Anna Roak, formerly of the Burlington lunch counter here.

Last Friday evening Mrs. D. W. Butler gave a surprise party in honor of her son, Herbert. A large number of friends were present. The evening was spent pleasantly. After an elaborate luncheon was served the young people returned to their respective homes, thanking Mrs. Butler for the pleasant time they had spent.

Last Friday evening the Delphian society held a meeting and elected the following officers: President, Leah Kraemer; vice-president, Lola Worley; secretary, Herbert Butler. The Delphian society consists of the members of the junior and sophomore classes. The first program will be given Friday, October 20. An invitation is extended to all.

Meeting of County Teachers,

The first meeting of the Box Butte County Teachers' association will be held in Hemingford Oct. 14, to which all patrons of the schools, members of school boards and every one interested in education are invited. Notice!

THE FALL CAMPAIGN is now coming on, and

I wish to announce to the public, that I am out as a candidate this fall for the office of Flour Inspector, and I wish to say right here, that if I am elected I will give you the best there is for the next two years or until my successor is elected and qualifies. My platform is the 5-X CREAM, and I wish to say, that all other candidates, whether they be nominated on the publican or sinners' ticket, will stand no show of being elected, unless they have this plank in their platform this fall. For further information in regard to this platform, call on chairman of the county central committee.

See to it that your candidates are filled with 5-X CREAM biscuits before starting out.

Yours for luck,

GENERAL MANAGER.
