Pete Watson, the famous wolf hunter of Whistle Creek, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. Hunsaker, the section foreman, and family, moved to Marsland Wednesday.

Dollie Pierce is now able to attend school after a week's wrestle with bad cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe are assisting Mr. Rosenberger in harvesting his potato crop.

Mrs. C. W. Brown has been quite sick with tonsillitis but is much better at this writing.

Francis Ryan came down from Lead Friday to attend the Advent school south of town.

James Christy, democratic candidate for commissioner, was soliciting votes here on Saturday.

Long time farm loans, reasonable interest.

—K. L. Pierce, First State Bank, Hemingford, Neb.

Mr. Stagg and daughter, Pearl, came in from the Ashbrook ranch Thursday and returned Friday.

Clara Burton has been absent from school the last week on account of the illness of her mother.

Brown Church came up from Beraa Friday and went out to Canton after some cattle for Ben Johnson.

Alex. Muirhead, republican candidate for treasurer, went to Alliance Monday to spend a week or so electioneering.

Johnson Bros. shipped three cars of cattle and one of horses to Wyman, Iowa. They intend to return if the weather stays agreeable.

Minnie Parker came from King Tuesday morning and visited with friends until Monday when she enrolled at the Adventist school.

Mrs. B. E. Johnston visited with her mother, Mrs. McCandless, Wednesday. Mrs. McCandless has been quite sick with asthma.

Roscoe Emery, representative of the Emery Produce Co., of Ottumwa, Iowa, left Monday, after purchasing several cars of potatoes.

Mac Enyeart has quit working for N. Frohnappe to get ready to begin school next Monday. She will teach the Armstrong school.

B. U. Shepherd received the sad news Friday that his mother, who lived in Denver, was dying. Mr. Shepherd and wife left for there the same day.

E. D. Mayhew (the jack of spades), of Chicago, and Wm. Ewerkamp, representatives of Evers Produce Co., of Quincy, Ill., are buying potatoes here at present.

Mr. Condit, who represents the Craig Burr Mercantile Co., St. Jo., stopped here Friday to buy potatoes and while here sold several barrels of apples to merchants here.

Mr. Ferguson of St. Paul, Robert Harvey and N. Frohnappe were out to the river the first of the week, hunting ducks. We hear they got lots of hunting, but no ducks.

Mrs. Baldwin and niece Nora Stone, came down from Belmont last week. Mrs. Baldwin will run a boarding house at the Advent settlement and Nora will attend school.

Mr. John Caha and wife came in Saturday to see Dr. Eikner about a sore in Mrs. Caha's ear. It has been bothering her for about two weeks, but is not thought to be serious.

WANTED.—Fifty head of cattle to winter at the Hatch ranch, 12 miles northwest of Hemingford; good range and plenty of feed. Inquire of me at my ranch, or of K. L. Pierce.—E. G. KOWLAND, 44-4

Tuesday was Hallowe'en and quite an enjoyable time was spent by some of the young folks around town. No damage was done, but there was enough mischief to show that they had a good time.

Mrs. H. R. Green and family arrived from their eastern trip Thursday. They were gone about a month, and while away visited Mr. Green's old home in Vermont. They report a very pleasant time.

O. W. Johnson, B. E. Johnson, L. Neeland, T. Neeland, Geo. L. Taylor and C. E. Wiltsey shipped cattle to Omaha Monday. Messrs. B. E. Johnson, C. E. Wiltsey, L. Neeland, E. T. Enyeart and M. Green went with them.

The lecture and magic lantern show given by D. W. Patterson Monday night at the schoolhouse was in all ways a success, it having been much better than expected. Nineteen dollars was taken in, one-fourth of which the school receives for the use of the building. Mr. Patterson went from here to Bridgeport, where he was to show Tuesday night.

For Sale.

A very fine Starck piano, almost new. Easy terms. We are going to California. Enquire of Rev. Embree, Hemingford, Neb.

LAKESIDE LIGHTS.

All Hallowe'en, and some of our lads are equal to the occasion.

Miss Aggie Higgins is contemplating a visit of uncertain dimensions with an elder sister at Red Oak, Iowa.

A new baby girl of the regular avoirdupois arrived at the home of Ollie Arnold a few days since. All parties doing well.

Mrs. Ed. Whetstone has so far recovered as to be able to go to Alliance, where she is receiving medical treatment of Dr. Bowman.

Carpenter Maxwell of Oskosh, is in town "repairing our breaches." Today he was engaged laying floor in the Stockmen's Mercantile Co.'s store.

Rev. Lyons and family now contemplate rendering the musical program at Lakeside on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, 1905. It will consist of instrumental solos and duets trios and quartettes, also male quartette and ladies quartette. Admission will be by ticket, 25c and 15c. Proceeds to be devoted to repairs on the parsonage.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather Saturday, quite a few of the church officials gathered at the parsonage to attend to the business of the first quarterly conference.

Fresh beef is beginning to find its way about our little burg, and a full quarter of the right kind reached the larder of ye scribe a few days since, and he is glad in his heart.

Lakeside is still lingering on the verge of darkness. Coal oil for nearly two weeks enroute from Omaha failed to reach Lakeside. Coal also out from Denver the 18th inst has not yet arrived. Ye railroad, we are getting cold and sitting in the dark.

Lakeside is to serve a New England supper, consisting of gingerbread, Boston baked beans, sandwiches, pumpkin pie—like mother used to make—tea and coffee. A short program is attached. A special invitation is extended ye editor and staff.

Elder D. J. Clark with his cherry smile visited Lakeside, Saturday to Monday morning, preaching twice on Sunday, administering the sacrament of the Lord's supper. In the afternoon he visited the home of J. A. Crowther where he administered the sacrament also to Mr. Crowther's aged mother who was too much indisposed to attend the service at the school house. The Elder always brings a smile when he comes to us and we are glad to have him come.

MARSLAND.

(Too late for last week.)

A. E. Byers loaded a car of hay on Sunday.

E. T. Gregg shipped a car of hay on Tuesday.

Otis Carruthers sold his section of homestead land west of town to Will Wittowac.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Enyeart of South Table, were visitors at J. C. Bennett's on Sunday.

Mrs. Cox and children left on Saturday night for Kansas City, Mo., to visit relatives for six weeks.

Messrs Moyer and Wilson of Crawford were touring the county on Friday looking up broken connections along the telephone line.

Mr. Horacher of Wilber, Neb., arrived on Thursday, and went out to Mrs. Ingerstrom's, where he has taken work indefinitely.

Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Sullenger went to Hemingford on Saturday night, visiting till Monday at the home of Mrs. A. Sherwood.

Mrs. Sallie Richardson arrived from the eastern part of the state recently to visit for a time with her daughters, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Cox.

A daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McGoggy on Monday. Mother and daughter are doing well, and Mac allows that irrigation has done wonders for him this season.

There was considerable loss of potatoes resulting from the recent cold snap and those who lost their spuds are not to be pitied, with the long beautiful autumn provided by The Controller of the seasons this work should all have been done.

A sample of Dawes county economy was displayed at the recent term of court at Chadron. Attorney A. W. Crites was employed by the county in a case of supposed murder, the defendant being an Indian of Pine Ridge Agency but who was discharged as not guilty. Mr. Crites put in a claim of $100 for attorney's fee, which was cut in two by the county commissioners. Mr. Crites sued the county for the remainder of his fees and the decision was given in his favor. The suit cost the county $200 we understand and the full amount claimed by the plaintiff allowed.
