One Year in Pen for Burbank and Schriener

Judge Westover arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of holding a short session of court, in which the two men, Con Burbach and John Schriener, arrested last week for stealing grips from the depot platform and pilfering from box cars, had their hearing yesterday morning. It was quick work and the two prisoners soon found themselves with a year's sentence to the penitentiary, after pleading guilty to the charge preferred against them. This is quick action, to say the least, and reflects credit on County Attorney Burton, who saved the county several hundred dollars as a result of this action. If the men were permitted to remain in jail till the regular term of district court, costs would have accumulated and the tax payer have to foot the bill. As it is, they are disposed of. On investigation the county attorney learned that neither Burbach nor Schriener are citizens of the United States, and he has written to the attorney general to this effect, with the hope that they may be deported to the country from whence they came as undesirable citizens. They were taken to the penitentiary last night on 44. Judge Westover left yesterday noon for his home in Rushville.

though the injury is causing Mr. Holt considerable pain, there is little fear of any serious results.

Accidentally Shot Through the Arm

S. W. Holt, proprietor of the shooting gallery on Box Butte avenue, was accidentally shot Tuesday night while engaged in making up his bed at his room in the residence occupied by Wm. Rachford, in the Hill addition, west of the railway shops. Mr. Holt was in the act of placing a spread on his bed, when his arm struck a 32 calibre rifle lying on a stand near by. The weapon fell to the floor and the hammer struck an iron cuspidor discharging the gun, the bullet piercing Holt's right arm, going in below the elbow and coming out several inches below the elbow. He hurriedly went to the office of Dr. Copsey, who dressed the arm, Al-
