Shooting at Ardmore.

On Thursday evening an unknown man entered the saloon owned by "Doc" Middleton, at Ardmore, S. D., and started a "rough house" by striking one of the Middleton boys in the face with a pair of brass "knuc's" cutting his upper lip to the bone and dislodging four teeth. "Doc," in attempting to stop the trouble, was compelled to shoot the man.

We are not able to get all the particulars. but have been told that the wounded man was able to board a train to Edgemont shortly after the shooting. Young Middleton is in Crawford under the care of Dr. Richards, who dressed the wound and removed four teeth, -Crawford Courier.

Waisner & Sons Reply in Strong Terms Against Their Accusors.

It will be remembered that a press dispatch from Sheridan, Wyo., dated March 2, gave an account of trouble existing between Waisner & Sons and other sheep men in that neighborhood in which the Sheridan Wool Growers' Association took a hand at the instigation of one W. E. Upton who seemed to be the principal complainant in the case which insinuated of sheep rustling against the Waisners. Now come the latter in a lengthy rebuttal, published in the Sheridan Enterprise of March 10, denying every allegation made against them in the charges and in most emphatic terms denounce the said Upton in a manner that indicates their chargin of the insinuations. Waisner & Sons invite a thorough and complete investigation of their actions and of the charges made and are confident of complete exhonoration. The fact that these people were former well-to-do and gives the matter local interest, and we look to see them come out of the controversy entirely vindicated.
