"DRY" VOTERS SHOWER THE BALLOT BOXES

Tuesday's Municipal Election Brings Out Largest Vote Ever Polled in Alliance—More than One Hundred Majority Against Saloon License.

The question of saloons or no saloons was paramount in the election last Tuesday, and from the opening of the polls to the close of the same, at 7 o'clock p. m., the campaign was kept up to the highest pitch. The fight seemed to be all one way from external appearances and it was the "dry" element that made the most active campaign. They were out in force and had arranged a compact and comprehensive campaign in every detail. Two automobiles with flying banners bearing the inscriptions "Alliance is Going Dry," "A Dry Town Makes Happy Homes," etc., flaunted in the moist atmosphere, which prevailed at the time, and seemed to be the tauntings of a "wet" weather man. The saloon men too, were on the streets all day working but it was evident to most of them from the start that their fight was a hopeless one.

The contest for mayor was single handed at the start of the game, but about noon, the name of F. W. Harris was brought forth without his knowledge, with the result that Mr. Harris showed himself a strong man. But for the fact of C. C. Smith's popularity he would have been a close second. Mr. Smith's vote in the First ward was 244 and in the Second 146. Mr. Harris received 82 in the First ward and 77 in the Second.

For city treasurer, Chas. Brennan had a complete walkaway. Out of 644 votes he secured 504, thus attesting his worth as a public officer while county treasurer, from which office he retired this year.

For councilman in the First ward C. A. Newberry was elected, being the only candidate in the field. In the Second ward, C. L. Drake was pitted against E. M. Martin for councilman but the popularity of Mr. Martin as councilman was attested by a majority of 169.

The question on licensing saloons was opposed in the First ward by a vote of 221 against 149. In the Second ward the "drys" polled 150 votes against 117, making a majority of 105 against the granting of license.

The temperance ladies served hot coffee and sandwiches all day at the Darling store and Hague's hardware establishment and it is said that they had a large patronage—their motto being "quick sales and no profits," but when the result of the election was announced the ladies felt satisfied with their day's work.

The Election Elsewhere.

License carried in Lincoln by less than 200, but saloons will be open only during the day, from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. The civic league announces that the fight will be kept up till the saloons go. The excise board revoked two licenses Wednesday.

Where anti-saloon men won: Tecumseh, Tekamah, Holdrege, Wymore, Syracuse, Auburn, Wood River, Arlington, Kennard, Friend, Ravenna, David City, Blue Hill, Bladen, Upland, Hildreth, Alma, Clarks, Juniata, Kenesaw, Clay Center, Inland, Osceola, Beatrice, Nelson, Shubert, Dawson, Broken Bow, Fairmont, Blair, Homer.

Where the saloon men won: Kearney, Greenwood, Silver Creek, Humboldt, Minden, Holstein, Nebraska City, Fairbury, Tobias, Dunbar, Utica, Red Cloud, Campbell, Lawrence, Seward, Exeter, Sutton, Roseland, Sterling, Grafton, Superior, Stella, Verdon, Plainview, Arapahoe, Harvard, Indianola, Neligh.

KILLING AT CRAWFORD

Negro and White Soldiers Mix and Five of Uncle Sam's Men are Shot.

There was great excitement at Crawford Tuesday night when a negro shot five white soldiers, killing two and badly wounding the other three. Last night the soldiers from the post went to town with the intention of cleaning out the negroes, but it is reported that all had left town. The shooting occurred in the proscribed district.
