LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. E. C. Olday bid adieu to Alliance friends Tuesday morning and started for Boulder, Colo., where Mr. Olday is now employed, and will make their home in that city.

Robert Graham went out to his ranch Sunday and will stay a week or two.

Herman Peters came in from the ranch yesterday. Herman would not think of giving up his Maxwell auto for his faithful pair of "buckskins" which he used to drive. He says all he has to do now is to feed oil instead of oats. Herman was always liberal with both.

Allie Mabin and Frank Bevan were stockmen from the west part of the county who had business at the county seat the latter part of the week.

J. H. Vaughan returned Friday from Lexington, Mo., where he was called three weeks ago to see his aged father, who passed away a few days after his arrival. Mr. Vaughan, Sr., had reached the ripe old age of eighty-one years and had enjoyed good health until a short time before his death. He was an old settler in that part of Missouri and was held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends.

For a pleasant evening's entertainment go to the Crystal Picture Parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grothe, Mrs. Anna Deitlein and Miss McHugh visited at Ravenna Sunday, the guests of Miss Ella Valek and other friends.

Eleven cars of mules consigned to the United States army in the Philippines which had been feeding in transit were loaded at the local yards last Monday and sent speeding on their way to our possessions across the water.

Largest stock of Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums, Floor Oil Cloth and Mattings in Alliance. Geo. D. Darling, store.

Mrs. E. C. Anderson entertained the "500" card club and their gentlemen friends last Friday evening. Mrs. Davis won first honors, a hand-painted plate. Refreshments were served and a general good time was had by those present.

W. D. Rumer left Monday night for Fairfield, Iowa. Mrs. Rumer and Miss Florence will accompany him home.

Miss Mary Krejci living Northeast of Hemingford died yesterday morning, after a lingering illness of several months. Miss Krejci was an exemplary young lady and many friends will mourn her demise. Funeral services will be held at Hemingford Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Arthur S. Bent, of Hazard, arrived in Alliance yesterday and has a car of full-blood Hereford bulls for sale. Mr. Bent was a resident of this county eighteen years ago and for several years has been engaged in the stock business in Custer county.

J. E. Porter, a prominent attorney of Crawford, had legal business in Alliance Saturday.

G. W. Erb who has been a patient in the Box Butte hospital for a couple of weeks, is able to be out and around again. Mr. Erb expresses himself as highly pleased at the results of the treatment he received at that institution and says that he did not consider it possible to secure the relief he did.

The "Insurance". Safest gasoline stove on the market. Geo. D. Darling, Agent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Osborn, who reside near Hemingford, were Alliance visitors Monday.

Ray Clapp left Tuesday morning for Sheridan where he has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Forest Lumber company. Ray has been employed at the Burlington freight depot for several months and is a capable and popular young man.

T. J. Beal is spending the week at Lincoln and other points in the eastern part of the state on business.

Frank McFarland and family have gone to Stanton for a couple of weeks visit with relatives.

Sunday at the Baptist church, G. C. Jeffers pastor. Sunday school at ten o'clock. Subject of morning discourse, "The Ditched Valley." Evening sermon, "The Law of Growth." Evening services changed to 8 o'clock. A welcome to all services.

Postmaster Tash has been informed that the following named parties have successfully passed the examination for carriers which was held in this city several weeks ago: Alvah J. Mace, Alfonso M. Poole, Fred G. Leavitt and Carl W. Thomas. These gentlemen passed in the order named and with much credit to themselves, Mr. Macey attaining an average of over ninety per cent. Free city delivery will commence here on May 15th, but owing to the fact that there are to be but three carriers employed, Mr. Thomas the fourth man on the list, will be a substitute carrier. The applicants before entering the service will be subjected to a rigid physical examination and must also give a bond through the medium of a surety company in the sum of $1,000. Much of the paraphernalia accompanying the installation of free delivery has been received by the Postmaster.

Dr. Frey Seriously Ill.

The many friends of Dr. Julia V. Frey will regret to learn of her serious illness from a complication of pneumonia and meningitis. Dr. Oris Coppernoll, who succeeded Dr. Frey here, returned Tuesday morning from Denver, where she had been summoned to attend on Dr. Frey, and she reports that there are no hopes for her recovery. A woman of much skill and learning in her chosen profession Dr. Frey made many friends in Alliance, where she was engaged in the practice of osteopathy but owing to the failure of her health she found it necessary to leave here. A trip through the south in search of health was without avail and she returned to the home of her sister in Denver where she is comforted with the presence of her father and other relatives, who have arrived in Denver to be with her during the last sad hours. A message received today states that Dr. Frey is some better.
