Plate Chase, of Rapid City, S. D., and Miss Nellie Allen of Omaha, met at Alliance Monday and were united in marriage by County Judge Berry.

Judge Ridgell returned the first of the week from Richmond, Mo., where he was called a couple of weeks ago to attend the funeral of his father, a pioneer and prominent citizen of that place.

William King returned yesterday from Grand Island, where he has bought out the Koehler hotel bar, the finest in the city. Jack Riordan will be a partner in the business and will probably assume the management. Messrs. King and Riordan will go to Grand Island tonight to make further arrangements.

Early Monday morning the snow began to fall and continued until late in the evening. While the snow came from the north, there was but little wind and hence the ground was soon covered with a mantle of the flaky crystals. This snow is of great value to the community, as it comes at a time when the ground was in need of moisture, and as there was a fall of about 8 inches of wet, heavy snow the land will now be in excellent condition for tilling.

Clark Olds of Hemingford, returned today from Lincoln where he went as delegate to the Modern Woodmen convention held in that city this week. He reports a most enthusiastic and interesting meeting. There were about 6,000 Woodmen in attendance and 370 new members were initiated from various parts of the state. Mr. Bryan made a short speech on matters pertaining to the order. He was introduced as the "next president of the United States."

Mrs. W. F. Himes of Crete arrived in the city on No. 43 this morning with her little son, aged five years, who was brought here in the hope that a change would be beneficial to his health but it was without avail, and the little fellow passed away this forenoon at 10:30 at the home of Dr. Coppernoll. Mr. Himes is expected in the morning. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at Dr. Coppernoll's residence and the remains taken to Crete tomorrow night.

The baseball season was practically opened in Alliance last Sunday afternoon by the Bridgeport and local teams crossing bats on the home diamond. While the weather was anything but ball weather, the game was a rattler and it was plainly demonstrated that both teams have some mighty good timber. The batteries did the main work and the score was held down to 4 to 2 in favor of Alliance. Hull and Freer, for the local team, and Melvin and Hull for the visitors, were the batteries.

Judge Wehn and sons Herbert and Garland autoed up from Bridgeport last Friday. Herbert returned on Monday morning, but owing to the condition of the roads, Mr. Wehn and Garland remained till today. Alliance seems like home to the Wehn family, and their many friends here are always glad to see them.

At a reception tendered Governor Sheldon by members of the Nebraska Society at Long Beach, California, last Thursday, our former citizen, Sam Smvser, was one of the speakers of the occasion. That Sam upheld the name of the state along oratorical lines there can be but little doubt.

Announcement has been received of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tyler Hemingway on Wednesday, April 29, at their home in Kansas City. The young lady has been named Jane. The Alliance friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hemingway extend congratulations.

Virgil Smith is a new employee at Geo. Darling's establishment, and will have charge of the bookkeeping and collections. Mr. Smith arrived Wednesday from Lincoln, where he held the position of cashier for the Rudge & Guenzel furniture house.

Daniel Willard, vice-president of the Burlington, and party, passed through Alliance today on an inspection trip of the lines west. Superintendent Allen accompanied the special.

Arthur M. Bartlett, deputy United States marshal, had official business in Alliance yesterday.

When

we prescribe the clothes for your boy to wear, we analyze his case and minister to his needs in the same careful way the physician does who prescribes for him when sick.

Why shouldn't we? Our reputation and good name is at stake.

For just this reason we prescribe

XTRAGOOD

It meets the needs, fits the case, looks neatest and wears best. One trial will convince you.

NORTON'S

Miss Regina Burlew, of Hemingford, spent a few days visiting Alliance friends this week.

Miss Marie Basse returned yesterday from Denver, where she went to see Dr. Frey. Miss Basse reports the doctor improving, and if no complications arise she will recover.

Ira Reed returned Tuesday night from Wyoming, where he and J. E. Rice shipped a car of horses last week. The horses did not sell as well as they anticipated. Mr. Reed visited his son Clayton at Lander, whom he reports as getting along well and likes the place.

W. L. and L. L. Ashbrook, prominent stockmen of Sioux county, came in from their ranch last night on the Guernsey train, which they boarded at Mitchell. They were recently indicted in the federal court at Lincoln for alleged conspiracy in government land matters, and the object of their visit here was to furnish bonds for their appearance at the next term of federal court. They report a heavier fall of snow Monday in Sioux county than we had here.

George Darling will have some fine post-card views of the snow storm Monday, which will be on sale next week.
