Cecil Smith Wins in Oratory

At the state declamatory contest held at Norfolk last Friday, Cecil Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith, of this city, was awarded first place. The citizens of Alliance share with the young man the honor of his success. He is a junior scholar in the city high school, and his ability along oratorical lines has been recognized for some time. Cecil was accompanied to Norfolk by Supt. D. W. Hayes who, by the way, was elected president of the state association for the ensuing year. They returned home from Lincoln last Monday.

Life's Pilgrimage Ended.

John Hannan, father of Mrs. E. P. Woods of this city, died at the home of his daughter yesterday from the effects of a paralytic stroke he sustained recently. Mr. Hannan was 70 years of age, having resided in Box Butte county since February 10, 1908. He was born in Michigan April 26, 1836, and leaves a wife, six daughters and two sons. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist church and interment will be in Greenwood cemetery. Deceased was a popular man and had many friends who will share with the relatives in the sorrow of his taking away.

ALLIANCE SHOE STORE

The Shoers

The Alliance creamery is experiencing a great increase in its capacity of business and Manager Spencer says it now looks as if the plant will soon be turning out a car-load of butter each week. This amount will mean several thousand dollars worth of this famous product.

Editor Burleigh, of the Hemingford Journal, spent Sunday on his ranch near Lakeside. A family reunion was a feature of the visit and there were many in the circle to enjoy the event.

Theo. Johnson, accompanied by his son, were in from their ranch Monday.
