WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

Every citizen of Alliance and visitor to the city is requested to consider himself a member of the reception committee for Mr. Bryan next Monday—not that they may look upon him as a future president of our great republic, but you will look into as true and loyal a face as any to be found in the country. You will hear a voice that has sounded the depths in more hearts than any man living, and there has never rung out of it a false note—never a tone that didn't ring true to all that is purest and best of our humanity. You will meet a man whom the crowned heads of all lands have welcomed to their courts as their uncrowned equal. Why? First, because his life is clean—the true type of a christian gentleman. Secondly, his word is the Law and the Prophets to more faithful followers than any unofficial personage on earth. No, it is not hero worship. They believe Mr. Bryan is honest, and that he is big, brainy and courageous enough to meet the gigantic monopolies that hate him as the priests of greed once hated a still more exalted character. Then again, this man who has won the confidence of so many millions of brother Americans—whom the trust bosses that dominate such a large part of our official machinery, have tried so long to silence by slander and vituperation, lives in Nebraska—thinks and feels as Nebraskans do.

The special train will arrive from Crawford about 5 p. m., carrying delegations from Chadron, Crawford, Marsland and Hemingford, the Fort Robinson military band, and Alliance citizens who go to Crawford on the morning of the 1st to accompany him here. The latter delegation will be accompanied by Mayor Smith and many prominent republicans of Alliance and vicinity.

Mr. Bryan and party will take supper at the Hotel Northwest and remain over night at that hostelry.

The speaking will begin promptly at 8 o'clock at the residence of Dr. Bellwood, just north of the Times office. Mr. Bryan will speak from the porch, and the military band will treat the people of Alliance to its finest selections.

Again we repeat, every citizen of Alliance, regardless of politics, should give our visitor, of whom all Nebraska is proud, a most hearty greeting. Everyone who desires to meet Mr. Bryan will have the opportunity.

All those who expect to go to Crawford next Monday morning must be on hand promptly at 4 o'clock, as passenger No. 41 will run on the new schedule and there will be no other train that will reach Crawford in time to return on the Bryan special.

Dip Your Sheep The First of June

Dipping sheep is an operation that is performed once a year only as a rule and it is important that this once should prove effective.

The right sort of dip is one that should destroy all insects or parasites and should have a healing and tonic effect on the skin without any possibility of injury.
