Boy Meets With Accident

The twelve-year-old son of J. M. McLean, whose home is about twenty-two miles northeast of Alliance, sustained a broken thigh by a kick from a horse last Friday evening. The injury is quite serious, and the boy will be laid up for a long time, but he will pull through all right if no unexpected complications arise. Dr. Bowman hurried to the lad's relief in an auto on the day the accident occurred, and drove out again today.

RANDOM NOTES

BY UNCLE GEORGE

¶ "Your Uncle Harry" of the Bridgeport Blade disclaims kinship with "Your Uncle George" of The Herald. Thanks awfully, Harry.

¶ In Oklahoma preachers are required to pay an occupation tax of five dollars. It is called a "distress" tax. No doubt it distresses some of the ministers to pay it.

MY LADY'S LID

My seat!
 Where did she get that hat?
 Who ever did
 Invent a lady's lid
 Like that?
 Who had the nerve to roll it out
 And stretch it more and more
 From center piece to rim until
 It spreads from shore to shore.
 And likewise lifts its summit up
 On birds' and other wings,
 Above the earth until it scrapes
 The clouds and other things?
 Who added to the wondrous width
 Of brim, so that the space
 Could easily accommodate
 An automobile race?
 Say, who done that?
 Who built that hat?
 Who made it something ne'er seen
 On earth or in the sky,
 A hat of wide extended plain,
 A mountain towering high?
 Cut wider doors for her to get
 Inside of any place,
 And put the ceiling on the roof
 To give her nodding space;
 Push up the clouds to let her stand
 Erect upon the ground,
 And shove the wide horizon back
 To let her turn around.
 Oh, weirdly, witching, woozy hat
 That flattens out and towers—
 Who ever saw a thing like that—
 A pancake piled with flowers?
 A hat contagious—spreading? Yes
 That's named the Merry Wil,
 And she who fails to catch it should
 Slip out and change her lid.
 Are you
 What a wonder woman is!
 And my seat!
 Where did she get that hat?
 —W. J. Lampton.

¶ A lady visitor from the east says one doesn't have to buy real estate here; that it will come to you on the wings of the wind if you wait upon a street corner.

¶ Mrs. Carey Dyer, of Thayer county, has presented her husband with four pairs of twins in four years. Mr. Dyer says this is a Dyer inflection, and if it continues he will have to go to Alaska for the benefit of his health—and pocket.

¶ As we progress in enlightenment, marriage seems to become more and more a failure. Now comes John Rollins, of Denver, a warrior bold, praying the court for a divorce, after three short months of wedded "bliss." John says: "I'd rather go through a dozen wars, and have myself pumped full of lead, than through three more months of married life. I have been shot in the head and my eardrum has been destroyed; I've spent days at a stretch in wading the swamps of the Philippines until I am a physical wreck; but it is all nothing to this marriage game."

I would advise a man to pause
 Before he takes a wife—
 In fact, I see no earthly cause
 He should not pause for life.

¶ What's the matter with an auto race meeting and baseball tournament at Alliance on the Fourth? Push it along!

¶ Newport is the driest town in the state. The saloons have been voted out, the town pump pulled up, and the local dairyman's cows have nearly all gone dry out of sympathy.

¶ J. H. Casselman, of Scottsbluff, last week marketed three car-loads of fat cattle at Chicago which brought him $92 a head. How is that for high?

I always look the other way
 When ladies cross a muddy street,
 For even the most modest dame
 Will raise her dress above two feet.

¶ A clergyman has said that women's gowns are inventions of the devil. Doubtless he refers to the latest Parisian fad in this line—the "Directoire" gown—which has a slit on each side from the knee down, and is not becoming to knock-kneed or bow-legged women.

¶ A Nebraska murderer has secured a reduction of one year in his sentence as a result of a new trial. At this rate, if he gets trials enough he can escape the penitentiary altogether.—Omaha Bee.

The above refers to the case of Kennison, murderer of Sam Cox, editor of the Minnatare Sentinel. On his first trial Kennison got twenty-four years. On his second trial, a year and a half later, he drew twenty-three. In the meantime he is in prison, his offense not being bailable. Now, here is a mathematical problem for the Bee paragrapher to solve: If Kennison gets a new trial every year and a half, and gets a year knocked off his sentence each time, how long will it take him to get out of the penitentiary? Get busy with your pencil.

¶ Our sister Central American republic, Nicaragua, has our profound sympathy in the recent catastrophe she has suffered. Her entire navy has been wrecked off the Atlantic coast. It consisted of one gun—we came near saying bum—boat.

¶ Instead of tackling the New York Platt Mae Wood have fared better if she had remained on her native heath and told her troubles to the Newbraska Platte.

"Let those who fall take courage.
 The future bright is ours.
 The chilling blasts of winter
 Give place to spring and flowers."

Of Interest to Taxpayers

County Assessor Sweeney is at a loss to understand why it is that taxpayers do not give in outstanding notes and mortgages. It is true that there are a great many taxpayers who fail to list their notes or mortgages and such failure must come as the result of ignorance of the law or an intent to defraud the county. In the latter case nothing is to be gained, but there is much to be lost, as the law provides that in cases of this kind it is legal for the assessor to raise the tax valuation of offenders fifty per cent. Instruments of this nature are on record at the court house, and hence it is an easy matter for the assessor to locate the negligent ones. Taxpayers will save money by listing all taxable properties.

Sunday school at 2:30 Sunday and preaching service at 3:30 at the Bauer school house. The sermon will be a memorial address.
