

HEMINGFORD

Postmaster W. F. Walker, Editor.

Mrs. J. T. Carey was on the sick list last week.
Chas. Bushnell returned from Morrell last Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Moravek were in from Canton last Monday.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Thorp were in from Sioux county the first of the week.
Mrs. Eggers spent several days in the country last week a guest at the Klemke home.

The H. D. C. are taking steps toward an entertainment which they will give to the public in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kinsley were in town Saturday doing some trading and renewing old acquaintance.

The Misses Jean and Lee Rustin arrived the first of the week to spend their vacation with relatives and friends.

The many friends of Roy Hickey will be glad to know that he is recovering from his recent illness quite rapidly.

Mrs. Dunham is visiting old friends in Hemingford this week. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham live near Bayard now.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hughes departed for Wood Lake, Neb., last Thursday, where Walter has a position on a ranch.

The Misses Lois and Ruth Wildy spent the greater part of last week in the country with Grandpa and Grandma Neeland.

Lewis Mauck was brought to town Tuesday with a broken shoulder. Dr. Eikner reduced the fracture and Louis is doing nicely.

Uncle Zeke Mabin is reported quite sick at his home southwest of town. He has been confined to his bed for the past three weeks.

Alex Muirhead's new house east of the M. E. parsonage is fast nearing completion. It will be one of the finest residences in town.

Simon Iverson has been appointed cattle inspector for the Dunlap locality. He says the dipping vat will be ready for use in about a week.

N. J. Kinsley, Hank Clayton, Frank McCarty, Roy Hindman and Pete Farrel were Sioux countyites noticed on our streets recently.

Four new gas lights were placed in the Congregational church last week, which adds much to the comfort and general appearance of the church.

Mrs. Chas. Shilling and children from Crawford are visiting Mrs. Shilling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kinsley and other relatives and friends.

Misses Laura and Glen Mounds came up from Alliance Monday to visit their friends and to attend the birthday party in honor of Miss Gertrude Olds.

Col. Fosket now has his residence lighted by gas, which adds much to his already neat and comfortable home. The Colonel believes in keeping up with the times.

Several of the young folks from here attended the dance last Friday night at Jim Hollenrake's. They report a fine time such as they always have at Hollenrakes.

The lecture at the Congregational church Monday evening was well attended and a neat little sum realized which will go quite along way in helping pay for the new lights.

Carey Johnson came down from Chadron last Saturday and remained with home folks until Sunday afternoon when he went on to Alliance to attend Junior Normal.

Helper Costly is laying off for a few days on account of a badly jammed hand. He is relieved by Clare Mewhirter. Mr. Costly will visit his parents and wife at Chadron.

The Misses Clara Burri and Gladys Burleigh were passengers for Alliance Sunday afternoon, where they will attend Junior Normal, which opened Monday and continues six weeks.

Miss Lucy Feidler and mother took Monday morning's train for Alliance. From there Mrs. Feidler goes to Mitchell for a visit and Miss Lucy returns to their home at David City.

B. F. Hutchinson left last week Thursday for Chadron to see a sister who was in very poor health. When he arrived at Chadron he found that she had been taken to a hospital at Sioux City.

A telegram from Mrs. Fred Neeland last Sunday evening brought the sad news of Mr. Easney's death at his home in Council Bluffs that evening. We extend sympathies to the bereaved family and friends.

We acknowledged a very pleasant call from Miss Helen Phillips of the Alliance postoffice force. Miss Phillips had been enjoying a well deserved vacation. Miss Phillips visited friends in Omaha and Lincoln and then still longing for the scenes and warm friends of Hemingford decided to spend a day in our town before returning to work.

Miss Gertrude Olds entertained a goodly number of her young lady friends Tuesday afternoon, June 9, it being her 15th birthday. Games and music were indulged in, after which an experienced fortune teller read the future of each and every one present. This afforded much amusement and fun. Lastly, but by no means least, were the refreshments and which Mrs. Olds knew so well how to serve. Miss Gertrude received a number of fine presents as tokens of the friendship in which she is held.

MARSLAND.

Rev. McLaughlin of the Presbyterian church of Alliance was in town recently. Thad Slider of Crawford was in this valley last week looking after a bunch of stock being kept by the Kendrick Bros.

Mr. Jones of Shubert, Neb., an old friend of Dr. Willis, was here the latter part of the week visiting the Willis family.

Miss Anna Horvack left recently for Montana where she will visit for a time with brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burson of Sheridan, Wyo., are here for a visit with Mrs. Burton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Poole, and other relatives. Their arrival was delayed for some time on account of washouts on the B. & M.

There was a shooting affray in town Sunday and as a result one victim was laid low. L. T. Poole, one of our merchants, sallied forth upon the street with a six-shooter in each hand and blood in his eye, pursuing a poor, old, grizzly, gray, lean, lank hound which had been invading his kitchen and poultry yard for sometime and as a result one mors dog went to kingdom come.

Marie Walbridge came from Edgemont on Friday to visit at Mr. Richie's and to take music lessons of Miss Nation who has a class of seven pupils at this place.

The Bouck brothers, who were summoned to Chadron as witnesses in the Pettipiece trial, returned Sunday and George Richie drove them to their ranch. The case was not decided when they left.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tollman of near Belmont drove down Thursday and were doing work at the cemetery.

Mrs. L. Snow and Mrs. C. A. McGogy spent last Friday at the James Hollenrake home twelve miles east of town.

We forgot to mention last week the marriage of Miss Mary Robide and Mr. Brush Hall, which took place at Alliance recently. They are stopping for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Ora Dickinson.

E. C. Kendrick, who accompanied his wife to Hot Springs S. D., where she remained for medical treatment, received word that she was not so well, but later, that she was improving.

E. A. Tollman and Miss Emile Jacobson are in Alliance this week on business before the land office, the former submitting proof on a soldier's Kinkaid homestead, the latter on a quarter taken before the Kinkaid homestead law was passed.

Otis Basse of South Table has put in about 70 acres of grain on C. A. McGogy's place west of town.

The river has been on a boom the past few days but is rapidly receding. It kept a force of men working all night Friday to save the dam and dike at E. T. Greggs. About all the dams and bridges west of here are out.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Moore of 33 ranche were in town on Saturday and report a little camping out experience they had Thursday night. They had driven to Crawford and on returning in the evening found the valley flooded. There was no recourse but to remain in their vehicle all night on the opposite side from their home, without bedding or food. In the morning one of the sons swam his horse across the river taking them sandwiches and coffee, and after a little the flood went down so that they crossed over to their home.

Mrs. H. L. Richardson and son Harley arrived here Friday for a visit with Mrs. R.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Richie. They have been living in and near Sacramento, Cal., for several months and were well pleased with that sunny climate, but say that like most every other place it has its drawbacks.

Ralph Thomas is up from Alliance visiting his young friends.

N. G. Poole has his cattle dipping plant in operation and a great many cattle are being put through. The clean have to suffer with the unclean.

Pete Allison of OU ranch is attending to the itchy cattle up the river and was down the other day after a load of oil.

C. A. McGogy has had another hard attack of his old complaint recently, and although able to be around again, does not feel very brisk. He has decided that he will have to give up his store business and seek another location and for that reason he is offering for sale one-half interest in the McGogy-Poole Trading Co. business, also three-quarter sections of land west of town. This business is a good snap for any person wishing to invest along this line. A good trade is established and there is no better ranch town in the west than Marsland.

The King's Daughters, to the number of fifteen, with several visitors, met in a business meeting at Mrs. L. Snow's Thursday. After the exercises, refreshments were served.

Do You Owe Any Back Tax? If so, Better See the County Treasurer.

To the county treasurer of Box Butte county, Nebraska:

You are hereby ordered by the county commissioners to collect all back tax due the county and to issue distress warrants on all delinquents who have been notified and have neglected to pay. By order county commissioners, W. C. MOUNTS, County Clerk.

MAY 14.

Notice.

The starting of numerous fires in the alleys and neglect of same before extinguished is a very careless practice and may be the cause of a disastrous fire in the city. The public is hereby cautioned not to set out a fire while the wind is blowing, nor to leave one burning at any time without watching same. Anyone violating this order will be arrested and prosecuted. C. C. SMITH, Mayor, W. O. BARNES, Clerk.

THEY TOOK A BATH

In Snake River at Idaho Falls, Ida.—Narrow Escape of Sells & Floto's Elephants—To Be Here Next Week

A well known traveling man tells the following interesting story in a Helena, Mont., paper of recent date:

"The arrival in Helena today of the Sells-Floto circus reminds me of one of the most spectacular events I have ever seen," said Bennie K. Loeb, the well-known traveling man, who makes his headquarters in this city.

"My itinerary took me to Idaho Falls last week on the same day that the circus was scheduled for that city. The day was windy—in fact, so great was the velocity of the wind that the tent was almost blown down. And I am coming to the point of the story now. I have read accounts that the wind was responsible for the stampede of the elephants, but this was not the case.

"The elephants were being taken out for a bath in a canal near by, and so thoroughly had they been trained that only one man accompanied them. The elephants waded across the canal, and there being no one to turn them, they proceeded to the banks of the Snake river. The river at this point is very swift, and runs between solid walls of rock which stand twenty-five feet above the water level.

"The elephants saw the water below, and evidently seized with a desire for swimming, jumped over the cliffs. The current is said to be the swiftest found in existence, and there is no way of escaping, once in the water between the walls. Not a few persons, cows and horses have fallen over these walls and not one of them escaped alive.

"The town was crowded with visitors and the whole community was quite naturally much interested in the outcome. The animals were very valuable, being held at $30,000 by the owners, and the fact that no person or animal had ever escaped death after falling in the swift, deep stream made the situation a tense one.

"Along with the others I rushed to the top of the precipice and could see but little of the foundering animals. At one moment it would be a foot, then a back and then a trunk. That an elephant is a powerful swimmer was demonstrated beyond all doubt, however, as all escaped through the channel to the flats below and crawled out safely.

"After emerging from the waters the animals were greatly excited. They were finally captured, the tents packed, and the circus left town none the worse for wear and richer in experience. The circus manager told me that the animals were worth $30,000, but that when he saw where they had fallen and into such a turbulent stream, he would not have given one dollar apiece for them."

This entire herd of Sells-Floto performing elephants are doing their regular work daily with the big show and seem to feel no worse after their most remarkable adventure. Herr Christopher Zeitz, their trainer, will be pleased to tell you all about this wonderful picnic in the water.

The big show, entire, complete in every detail, with a monster morning parade, will exhibit at Alliance on Friday, June 19. Better arrange your plans to go, as it will be the only large circus that will visit here this year, and none better will come any time.

Notice to Alliance Property Owners.

Notice is hereby given all Alliance owners of real estate that alleys, vacant places and streets adjoining must be cleaned without delay, of all waste papers, refuse, manure, etc. Prompt attention and compliance with this notice will save costs. C. C. SMITH, Mayor, W. O. BARNES, City Clerk.

Some High-Class Short-Horn Bulls.

I raised the bull calf that took first premium, also calf that took fifth in same class, in open competition, at our State fair in September 1907. My herd took fourteen ribbons, altogether. I now have thirty bulls, from one to three years old, which I would like to sell for fall delivery; a car load. I will sell from twelve to twenty; you take your pick for $100 each. I will keep them for two months, feed them oats, alfalfa, etc., get them in good shape. You take them in December, winter them at home, and they will do you some good. J. G. BREMIZER, Broken Bow, Neb.

Warning.

Any person or persons found guilty of marring or in any way destroying newly finished cement walks, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Attest: C. C. SMITH, Mayor, W. O. BARNES, City Clerk.
