

Alliance Will Celebrate The Fourth of July

Tash, Marcus Frankle, C. A. Newberry, Glen Miller, Harve Ellis and J. W. Guthrie and others for expression on the advisability of celebrating the Fourth. The expression was a unit in favor of the same and then a motion was made that the chair select executive and finance committees which are as follows: Executive, Ira Tash, Marcus Frankle, W. D. Rumer and Jack Miller; financial, C. A. Newberry, L. H. Highland and W. W. Norton.

The committee got busy at once the following day and funds are already raised sufficient to go ahead. The executive committee met and appointed sub-committees as follows:

Committee on literary, speaking and music—I. E. Tash.

Publicity—H. J. Ellis, T. J. O'Keefe, W. S. Ridgell.

Committee on parade, F. E. Holsten; fireworks, W. O. Barnes; ball game and minor sports, J. W. Guthrie, G. G. Hampton.

Committee on racing—J. H. Vaughn, C. C. Smith, J. A. Hunter.

While we are not able to give the program of the day in this issue, we can say that the same will be one of the most interesting that will be given in western Nebraska and we have the committees' word for it that they will spare neither money nor pains to give the people something worth going miles to see. Two special features will be base ball and automobile races of the most interesting kind. Besides this there will be attractions galore and next week The Herald will let you know all about what we are going to have on the glorious Fourth. In the meantime get all the folks ready to come to Alliance to celebrate in a manner that will make the young many years younger.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Alliance will celebrate the Fourth of July—and don't you forget it.

Daniel Eagan of Hyannis came up this morning on 41 to take in the stock show.

Miss Florence Snoddy has returned from a brief visit to nearby eastern towns.

Charley Tash has secured employment with an automobile company in Denver.

The Misses Glen and Lanra Mounts are visiting with friends in Hemingford this week.

James Burns is attending the stockmen's meeting and renewing old acquaintance.

Mrs. Wood Milliken, of Bayard, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. C. D. Hall, for a few days.

C. H. Vinsel has invested in a motorcycle and is having the time of his life in breaking it to ride.

Mrs. B. Mewhirter and Mrs. M. E. Johnson have returned from a brief visit to Grand Island.

N. K. Griggs, the well known attorney of Lincoln, visited his nephew, G. L. Griggs, in this city Tuesday.

W. O'Mara and Mat Cowlin, well known stockmen of Sheridan county, had business in Alliance Tuesday.

The Ladies aid of the M. E. church was very pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. E. Tash.

S. J. Wilson, who removed from Alliance to Iowa a year or so ago, is back here for a few days attending to business matters.

J. H. H. Hewett has been attending the sessions of the Grand Lodge of the Masonic Order at Omaha for several days this week.

P. K. Christensen, son Ejner, and Jesper Jespersen, substantial citizens of Nonpareil precinct, had business in Alliance yesterday.

It rains nearly every day now, and the farmers are beginning to complain that so much moisture makes the weeds grow too fast.

Wm. Matzat left yesterday for Toston, Mont., where he will take up his residence on a fine farm he recently bought near that place.

Dr. C. E. Slagle has gone to Omaha, where he will visit with Dr. Allison for a few days, and then proceed to New York for a sojourn of several weeks.

Messrs. Thos. and John Katen, Bradford Fenner and T. L. Hopkins, stockmen from the vicinity of Dunlap, are in the city to attend the convention.

Mrs. G. F. Betts of Lincoln has joined her husband here and the pair will make Alliance their home. Mr. Betts is employed by the Alliance Grocery Co.

Miller Brothers have received their new pea nut and pop corn wagon, ordered by them last January. They are now operating it on the streets and it is certainly a beauty.

Among the Alliance squad attending the state university at Lincoln, now at home on furlough, we notice Earl Malley, Lloyd Smith, Pearly Beach and Lloyd Johnson, Herbert Butler.

On account of an embargo west of Billings on the Northern Pacific, it was necessary to discontinue two passenger trains, 43 and 44, over this division and from all reports it will be some time before they will be resumed.

Dr. Scoggins of Bridgeport, former proprietor of the Bridgeport News, dropped into the Herald printery yesterday. The doctor was enroute to Omaha with a carload of cattle. Bet a cow he didn't make the cattle in the printing business.

Ode Scofield and family arrived in Alliance a few days ago and will visit here for some time with relatives. Ode is an old-time railroader, having been employed as a conductor until a few years ago, when he left the service and moved to Nampa, Idaho.

Jay J. Keegan, who has been attending the Kansas state university at Lawrence for the past year, has returned home and will settle down on the farm with his father, J. A. Keegan, and show the "old man" some new wrinkles in the way of scientific farming.

Dr. Bellwood was called to the Phenian ranch southeast of Alliance last Saturday afternoon to patch up Will Otto, who sustained a broken ankle by being thrown from a wagon by a pair of fractious mules. The wagon turned turtle and fell hard upon Otto.

Percy H. Cogswell, past exalted ruler of the Elks lodge of this city, was the recipient of a handsome gold watch last Friday evening, a gift from a number of his friends in appreciation of his untiring work in behalf of the lodge during his administration.

G. L. Shumway, of Scottsbluff, was a welcome visitor at The Herald office Monday. Mr. Shumway is secretary of the North Platte Chautauqua Association and was here advertising the coming meeting of the association at Scottsbluff August 7-16. See ad.

A number of the little friends of Rev. Westley's 7-year old daughter Thelma gathered at her home Wednesday afternoon and celebrated her birthday. It was an enjoyable occasion for all participants. A substantial lunch was served at 5 o'clock. Many pretty presents were received by little Thelma.

Miss Wilma Wood returned home from Lincoln Sunday, bringing with her the degree of A. B., which was conferred upon her by the State University of Nebraska, from which she graduated. Amongst her other baggage Miss Wood also brought back a permit to teach school as long as she shall live—or remain single.

The Herald stated last week, on what was believed to be reliable information, that Brakeman Daughtry's death was caused by the carelessness of the engineer. We are convinced that our reporter was misinformed and that The Herald unintentionally did the engineer an cruel injustice. Hence this "amende honorable." No member of the train crew was in the least blamable for the deplorable occurrence.

During the temporary absence of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Kreamer from their residence last evening, someone entered the house, supposedly with burglarious intentions, but was frightened away by the early return of the family, before he could collect any plunder. The intruder, in his hasty retreat from the house, dropped a new baseball, which the doctor will gladly return to him, with a 32-caliber ball for interest, if he will call during business hours.

Geo. E. Younkia, who recently acquired ownership of the Fox rooming house and the Becker restaurant has taken possession of the former business and Mr. Becker will turn the restaurant over to him next week. Mr. Younkia is a thorough business man and will cater to the public in a manner that will please the large patronage the place has always had. Mr. Becker and wife will enjoy a well earned vacation which will include an overland trip to the Yellowstone park.

Cy. Laing went to Crawford Monday and arrested Ed. Harden on a charge of burglarizing Desche's meat market. The market was broken into Saturday night and a small sum of money and a quart bottle of highly prized "cough medicine" abstracted. Harden had been working for Desch, but he jumped his job and also the town, therefore suspicion and Cy. Laing fell upon him. He was arraigned before Judge Berry, and waiving examination, was held to court, and failing to furnish bail, was remanded to jail.

FREE ENTERTAINMENT FOR STOCKMEN

Whitten's Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs and Grand Ball—All Free for Visiting Guests and the Public Generally in the Phenian Opera House Friday Night.

Satisfactory arrangements were completed yesterday whereby the entertainment committee has succeeded in securing the opera house for Friday night. Prof. Whitten has no desire to in any way antagonize citizens in their desire to use the opera house for a free entertainment for visiting guests and he surrendered his prior right to the house. In return for the courtesy, the committee has engaged him to give one-half hour exhibition of his moving pictures in the house, which will be free to the public at the expense of the committee. This performance will begin shortly after 8 o'clock p. m. and will be over by 9 o'clock, immediately after which the grand stockmen's annual ball will open and continue the balance of the evening as has been customary.

The opera house will be used this Thursday evening by Prof. Whitten who will give a two-hour exhibition of moving pictures and illustrated songs. Having given exhibitions in Alliance for several years past he is no stranger to our city for in past years his shows have filled the opera house to its capacity and everyone went away highly pleased. He will close his engagement Saturday night. Prices for each entertainment Thursday night and Saturday night will be 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults.

Social Events.

Mrs. C. H. Tully entertained a large party of friends Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Harris entertained a number of lady friends at a dinner party Monday evening.

Mrs. R. J. Lawrence will give a luncheon this afternoon complimentary to Mrs. W. C. Taylor and mother, Mrs. Davidson, who will soon remove to Sheridan.

Wednesday evening Mrs. W. E. Cotant gave a reception in honor of Mrs. F. M. Dorrington, Mrs. J. Cass Cornell, Mrs. W. J. Adams and Mrs. Eileen Ford, who are the guests of relatives and friends in Alliance.

The Fort Robinson baseball team played two games with the Alliance team on the latter's grounds this week. On Sunday Alliance treated the soldier boys to a mess of goose eggs, defeating them by a score of 7 to 0, and Monday rubbed it in by putting Uncle Sam's minions to rout to the tune of 19 to 1. Bridgeport will tackle our conquering heroes here today and tomorrow.
