

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Annette Joy returned to her home in Michigan today.

Roy Spacht returned home from the state university last Thursday.

J. W. Guthrie was a Crawford business visitor the first of the week.

Chicago has no "edge" on Alliance. We've got a circus, too, this week.

Guy Lockwood went to Omaha yesterday morning to visit his family for a few days.

Joseph Hendricks had a valuable horse killed by lightning last Thursday afternoon.

H. P. Larson and family are making a tour of the Pacific coast. They left Alliance last Thursday.

Tomorrow will be a bigger day in Alliance than the Fourth of July—for the majority. It is circus day.

Mrs. M. F. Nolan and son Michael returned Sunday from a visit of two weeks with relatives at Stuart, Iowa.

Mrs. C. W. Smith, who has been ill for some time, has so far recovered as to be able to go to the ranch for the summer.

Jas. Keeler's new auto arrived Saturday and it is a "hummer," sure enough. It is the Ricketts make, 70-horse power and carries seven passengers.

Jack Riordan came up from Grand Island Sunday to visit with friends. He told of much rain and cyclonic-like weather in that part of the state.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon, June 23, with Mrs. J. W. Reed. Program to be conducted by Mrs. Reed. Supt. of railroad work.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hively returned yesterday from their honeymoon trip, which included a visit to New York, Washington and other eastern cities.

Ex-Conductor H. McClellan, of Lincoln, was in the city Tuesday attending to business matters. He had been up in the Hills and was on his way home.

The demand for advertising space in The Herald is so great this week that we are compelled to trim every news item to the smallest possible dimensions and throw the bones away.

Mrs. J. G. Beck returned last Thursday from Lincoln, where she had been to witness the graduation of her daughter Inez. Inez and her sister Hazel are now with relatives in Iowa.

Clarence Brunell and Miss Erna Martin were married at Lincoln this week. Mr. Brunell is an employee of Miller Bros., and his bride is an estimable young lady of this city. Congratulations.

I. O. Cooper came down from Sheridan last week and in company with Mrs. Cooper and their son left Monday morning for Deadwood, Spearfish and other points in the hills before they return to their home.

Col. E. T. Westervelt, of the Scottsbluff Republican, was one of the "big" men who attended the stockmen's meeting last week, but as he neglected to pay The Herald a fraternal call, we will ignore his presence in the city.

W. P. Miles, Sidney's well known attorney, spent a few days in the city recently on legal business. Mr. Miles reports all business flourishing in Sidney and says a great many new settlers are coming to that section of the country.

Dorothy, the eleven-year old daughter of Nels Peterson, a ranchman who resides about eleven miles northeast of Alliance, was thrown from a horse last Friday and sustained a dislocated elbow and a fracture of the arm above the elbow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kimberling, Miss Kimberling and two small children, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Snyder and daughter of Broken Bow were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Warrick yesterday. The visitors will leave tomorrow for a trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Mollring entertained five couples at supper at the Northwest cafe Tuesday evening, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Broome, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Schlupp.

Mrs. A. F. Miller and son Charles drove down from the ranch north of Hemingford on Tuesday and visited a couple of days with her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Mackey. This was Mrs. Miller's first visit to Alliance and she was surprised at its metropolitan appearance.

The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deitlein was bitten by a dog last Saturday afternoon and quite badly lacerated about the face. Prompt treatment by Dr. Hand relieved the little one, and the dog, well, Mr. Deitlein soon had two gun shot holes through him as big as a hat.

Col. Lundeen returned Sunday morning from York, where he was visiting for several days. He had the pleasure of attending the Bryan meeting there last Friday and being present at the banquet given in the evening by the ladies of the Episcopal church. Fully ten thousand people were in attendance at the speech of the great commoner.

Harry Jordan, who has been connected with the Jordan Hardware company at Gordon, is now associated with his father in the carriage business in this city. This establishment is turning out first-class work and lots of it. A specialty is made of the manufacture of spring wagons and ranch buggies, all kinds of repairing and painting and satisfaction is guaranteed. Mr. Jordan sr., has had forty years experience in carriage and wagon making and some vehicles are now in use here which he made twenty years ago. The firm will soon enlarge its shop for a rapidly increasing business.

J. L. McNamara was the happiest man in Alliance last Sunday when he received a telegram from Omaha with the information that he was the father of a 12-pound girl. This is Joe's second daughter and he says he has hopes of helping out some of Alliance's bachelors yet if they don't get a better move on themselves. While he did not mention any names it is supposed that he had in mind Frank Brennan, Harry Thiele, John Adams and Sam Burchell.

Base Ball Doings.

The Alliance ball team will play ball at Crawford July 1 and Ft. Robinson the 2d. Efforts are being made to secure a game at this place with the Broken Bow team on July 4 and 5. The Boston Bloomers will play the Alliance team here July 15 and 16.
