Some High-Class Short-Horn Bulls.

I raised the bull calf that took first premium, also calf that took fifth in same class, in open competition, at our State fair in September 1907. My herd took fourteen ribbons, altogether.
I now have thirty bulls, from one to three years old, which I would like to sell for fall delivery; a car load. I will sell from twelve to twenty; you take your pick for $100 each. I will keep them for two months, feed them oats, alfalfa, etc., get them in good shape.
You take them in December, winter them at home, and they will do you some good. J. G. BRENNER,

HEMINGFORD

Postmaster W. F. Walker, Editor.

Ora Phillips came up from Alliance Saturday.

T. J. O'Keefe was in town Tuesday with his big auto.

E. L. Everett went to Omaha on business Tuesday.

Dr. Coppertoll, of Alliance, was in Hemingford Monday.

Mrs. J. T. Carey went to Alliance to do some shopping Saturday.

Miss Nellie Curry spent Saturday in the country visiting Clara Burri.

Mr. Powell and M. T. Whittaker were in from Canton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Middlekauff were in town the latter part of last week.

Miss Madaline Carey came up from Alliance Saturday afternoon, returning Sunday.

Norton Brown came down from Edgemont for a few days' visit with home folks.

Mrs. Barney and sons returned home Sunday, after several weeks visit with Mrs. Roy Hickey.

Mrs. John Armstrong has been on the sick list the past week, but is some better at present.

B. E. Johnson returned from Omaha Monday, where he has been to buy a car-load of binders.

Miss Bertha Burleigh made a trip to her homestead near Lakeside, going down Monday night.

Quite a bunch from here went to Alliance to witness the ball game between Maywood and Alliance.

Mrs. G. R. Carter and daughters, Etta and Gracie, went down to the Platte country this week.

Roy Hickey returned from Hot Springs Sunday, where he has been for the past few weeks.

Mr. Hickey, father of John and Roy Hickey, arrived last week for a visit with his sons and families.

Miss Nellie Carter returned from her claim Sunday. Miss Nellie has a very valuable claim near the Platte.

Joel Brown, a minister from Des Moines, Iowa, has taken a claim in Sioux county. He came Saturday.

Will Curry moved his blacksmith shop the first of the week to the lots recently purchased from B. E. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Warren went out to their home near Agate on Monday.
Aneata Rowland accompanied them for a short visit.

At the school meeting Monday E. L.
Everett was elected director. It was decided to have nine months' school and four teachers.

While watching a practice game of ball Sunday afternoon Geo. Baker was struck on the hand by a foul ball and his thumb broken.

All of the cattle from A. M. Miller's and Wm. Fosket's pastures were taken to the dipping tank at E. M. Snyder's Tuesday and dipped.

Several Cantonites were noticed on our streets the first of the week some of whom were John Moravek and two sons, Will and Charles.

Mrs. Roberts returned to her home at Big Timber, Montana, last Friday, after an extended visit with friends at Hemingford and Dunlap.

Mrs. Rolla Johnson returned from Auetin, Texas, where she has been the last three months for her health. She reports a fine country and is much benefited by the trip.

At about noon Tuesday the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rolland fell into a tub of boiling water and was severely scalded. The little one died Tuesday night at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. W. C. Mounts came up from Alliance Friday to attend the entertainment at the Congregational church.
Mr. Mounts and little son came up Saturday, remaining until Sunday afternoon when they returned to their home.

Mrs. B. E. Johnson entertained the following last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mounts: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davison and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mounts and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Olds, Mrs. Rustin and Grandma McCandless.

Roy Sloan returned last week from the south where he went with his wife several months ago in hopes that the change would be beneficial to her but neither medical aid nor change of climate helped the invalid and she was laid to rest some time ago. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband.

Tuesday forenoon Winnie Keane came to town bringing a young chap whom he immediately turned over to the authorities. The fellow had broken into a car at Girard used as a bunk house on that section by the Greeks on that section and stolen some clothing, money and a couple of revolvers.
Mr. Keane had a pretty lively time trying to capture the culprit as he seemed a bad man with a gun, firing four shots at Mr. Keane but owing either to poor marksmanship or excitement all of the shots went wide of their mark. Mr. Keane finally got him to town where a complaint was sworn out against him and he was taken to Alliance for a hearing.

MARSLAND.

Mrs. Mary Hughes and son John had business in Crawford a day recently.

Dr. Willis is placing on sale today fire crackers, roman candles, rockets, etc.

Sam Albro and family of Alliance were over Sunday visitors at Mr. Bellamy's.

Ladies, bring on your pies. We have a merchant in town who trades oranges for pies.

We understand there is some talk of a spur being built from the depot to the phone office.

Mrs. G. A. Walbridge and children of Edgemont are here for a visit with the Richies.

Mr. and Mrs. Speckman of Hartsville, Wyo., were here to attend the funeral of Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Catterback, our real estate man, drove to Hemingford Sunday accompanied by his family.

The old booth belonging to Mr. Moyer will be shipped to Hemingford to do service in the phone office there.

Another car-load of telephone poles were received recently and the line is now building to the Furman ranch.

We learned last week, too late to mention, that Mrs. Kile had returned from her trip to Oklahoma and Missouri.

Louie McGogy visited at Linton ranch, the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Koy, the latter part of the week.

Moyer's telephone was moved from the hotel to central a few days ago. There are now sixteen phones in operation.

C. H. Richie is having the hotel beautified with new wall paper and paint. A new sign has also been swung up.

Mrs. Markins, of near Harrison, has been here for a week taking medical treatment for a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. Small, living near Nye, sold their improvements and relinquished their land to Arthur Bennett. They have moved back to Red Willow county.

Rev. Woodard of the Presbyterian and Rev. Douglas of the Methodist church held union services at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. The house was filled.

There has been a great rush of cattle dipping in this district over which N. G. Pool inspects. He is one of the 205 inspectors on the staff of the state veterinary. The time for dipping expired June 30, but has been extended to July 20.

Where are you going the Fourth? is the question of the hour. Some say Alliance, some Crawford. Some are planning a trip to the bone diggings near Agate, where there are about twenty-five geologists excavating. They are from New York and Lincoln. Prof. Barber of the latter place will soon arrive with his company, who were here last year, and who were so successful in their search for prehistoric bones, taking back with them several boxes filled with choice specimens which were placed with the state university.

James Wilson died at his home in Sioux county, twenty miles west of this place, on Tuesday June 21st, after a week's struggle with pneumonia, aged 65. The funeral was held Friday at the M. E. church here, Rev. D. C. Clark, of Andrews, officiating.
Soldom has a funeral here been attended by so many people, the church being filled to its utmost capacity. Mr. Wilson was born in Darke county, Ohio, and resided in Dawes county, Neb., for some years.
Several years ago he took a homestead in Sioux county. A widow and two sons survive him. Mr. Wilson was a good citizen and genial gentleman and will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

Geo. Denton for a few days.

Some people are having in this vicinity, All crops are looking fine.

Misses Hazel and Fern Johnson visited Miss Amy Hashman Sunday.

Carl Hashman had his hands burned quite badly while dipping cattle.

Calvin Hashman dipped his cattle at the Barney Shepard ranch Friday.
A crowd of merry widows had a runaway Sunday, broke harness, but no damage was done, because everyone had a merry widow hat on and the hats became a blockade in front of them and it was as good as a picket fence.

Carl Hashman and J. W. Hashman are preparing to build on their claims.

A few of the neighbors of this vicinity attended the show: All report a fine time.

Little Miss Bessie Riley fell from a tree and was quite badly hurt, but is now on the mend.

Leo Hashman has recovered his horse which strayed away recently. He found the animal in the edge of Sioux county.

Mrs. Moore and Rollin Ross had quite a serious accident on Wednesday evening.
Their horse became frightened and ran away.

It is getting to be an every day occurrence for people to wake up and find not less than seven old hens and eleven cats in their rooms.

Sunday-school program went off fine.
Everyone was highly pleased. Attendance 75. We thank all for their kind attention and their presents.
