HEMINGFORD

Postmaster W. F. Walker, Editor.

Claude Brown made a business trip to Sidney last week.

Mrs. Mary Brown visited in Alliance a few days last week.

Miss Jean Rustin is visiting her many friends in Alliance at present.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsley on July 4, a daughter. Congratulations.

Postmaster Henderson of Curlew was in town Monday interviewing our merchants.

Misses Gertie Olds and Susie Davison passed the Fourth with Mrs. Fred Davison.

Milton Muirhead, son of Dr. Muirhead, a former resident of this place, is visiting his uncle, Alex Muirhead, and family.

Miss Gertie Bresen went down to Alliance last week Thursday to visit with friends and to attend the celebration.

Charley Hargett, better known as "Penny" Hargett, accompanied a carload of horses to the eastern market the first of the week.

A deal was made last week whereby Norbert Frohnau traded his store building to W. W. Norton. Frohnau took an auto in the deal.

The new Norwegian Lutheran minister's household goods arrived Monday and were moved into the parsonage recently vacated by Mr. Muirhead.

Several from here celebrated in Alliance, some were picnicking on the river and the balance of the crowd was about equally divided between Hollisrake's and Crawford.

While in Omaha last week E. L. Everett purchased an automobile which will arrive in a short time. Hemingford now boasts of seven autos and claims the medal for a town of its size.

Miss Lucy Fendrick came up from Alliance where she is attending school and went out to her home at Dunlap last Friday to spend the Fourth at home. She returned to Alliance Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rolland and family desire to thank their friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted in the last sad rites to their beloved baby Lois and pray that all may be spared from such a sad accident.

The statement made in our last week's issue that Mrs. Carter and daughter Etta were visiting in the Platte country was incorrect. Our informant got the persons confused as Mrs. Carter and daughter went to Missouri and Miss Nellie was the one who had been visiting on the Platte.

The evening of July 4th John Jelinek brought his little son to town with a badly smashed shoulder and otherwise badly injured, the result of being run over by a horse. It seems that the boy was helping to corral some horses and in some way fell down and was run over by a horse as above stated. His injuries were dressed and at this writing is doing well, so we are informed.

Our kid nine came home from the Hollisrake celebration with their colors flying at full mast as they won the ball game to the tune of 15 to 3. The boys have cause to feel pretty good considering the fact that the nine was not all there and others (but still our town boys) had to be put in to fill. The boys said they had a fine time and were treated first-class all around and hope to be able to spend their next Fourth at the same place.

Of the six convicts who escaped from the Alliance jail on the night of the Fourth three of them were captured here Sunday night and returned to Alliance where they are again in custody. Two of our boys, Philip Michael and Brown Church, saw the trio enter the livery barn. They watched the barn until the marshal could be notified and the sheriff phoned for who, in company with night watch Cox, came up from Alliance and took the youngsters back Monday morning.

Miss Myrtle Rolland arrived here last Monday in answer to a letter stating that her little sister had been sealed off.

On reaching Crawford, friends there told her that the baby sister had been buried four days before. Miss Myrtle was nearly prostrated with grief. There seems to have been some bungle as neither of the telegrams or the letter telling her the sad news ever reached her. Little Lois died the same evening of the accident and was buried the Friday following. The entire community extend sympathies to the bereaved family.

HASHMAN.

Mr. Calvin is on the sick list for a few days.

Miss Dunlap and Amy Hashman were quite badly shaken up by a runaway horse while they were engrossed in a horse race the Fourth.

Misses Hazel and Fern Johnson were Sunday callers at Calvin Hashman's. Mrs. Wolverine accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vaughn went to Denver for the Fourth and also for the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley visited at Calvin Hashman's Sunday. Miss Ada Hashman accompanied them home for a few days.

Miss Ina Green and Victoria Kohrman were visitors in this vicinity Monday.

There will be a box social at the Unity church a week from Thursday evening. Everyone is invited to attend.

The John Hague Co., hardware, heating and plumbing, also tin and galvanized work.

MARSLAND.

Mr. Kenyon of Billings, Mont., has been here visiting his father-in-law, Ben Moore, of 33 ranch.

Mrs. L. Snow and son Linn are spending a week in Alliance visiting relatives and friends.

Another car load of telephone poles arrived recently and are being distributed along the route.

L. D. Bruce, a homesteader northeast of town, is breaking prairie on the McGoggy place west of here.

George Clay, a veterinary surgeon, was doing work at the J. M. Tollman ranch the latter part of the week.

T. R. Bellamy and family went to Alliance Friday, remaining till Sunday, visiting with the Albro family and celebrating the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutton of Hemingford passed through here last Friday, in their auto enroute to Crawford to spend the 4th with friends.

Nelson and Roy Richie, both railroad men on the Colorado & Southern with headquarters at Cheyenne, came in Friday to spend the 4th with the home folks.

C. A. McGoggy had another severe attack of his old complaint and for a few days was bedfast. We are glad to say, however, that he is able to be around again.

Prof. Hayes and family of Alliance and Prof. Walton and wife of Chadron spent the 4th with Leonard Hayes and wife of this place. While visiting they did some fishing on the side.

In his enthusiasm to celebrate the glorious 4th Dayton Sullenberger burned up the family wood pile, presumably by throwing a firecracker where it ignited dry stuff in the vicinity of the pile.

The monthly meeting of the Kings Daughters was held at Mrs. J. Sullenberger on July 2d. There was a large attendance. After the business and exercises were over a picnic was held in the door yard.

Dr. Slagle of Alliance came up Saturday having been summoned in the case of Mr. Popp who was brought to town Saturday morning very sick with appendicitis. Dr. Miller of Alliance was called from Crawford on the same case.

A number of Merry Widows of this place went to the neighboring towns to celebrate and of old folks, young folks and children there was also a goodly number but of all who went we have the first one yet to tell us that they saw anything.

Henry Popp, a resident of the vicinity of Ashbrook P. O., died at the Richie hotel Sunday morning, July 5th, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Popp was taken very ill Friday evening, at the close of a day's work building fence. He was in too great pain to be taken to his own home some distance away so was taken to Mr. Ashbrook's, which was nearer, by his wife who was with him. A phone message was sent for Dr. Willis who reached the bedside of the sick man about 9 o'clock. Upon examination of the patient he found a case of appendicitis in a very advanced stage and gave no hope of his recovery, but advised the removal of the man to town where other physicians were also summoned. It was decided to operate as a last chance, but arrangements were completed and the arrival of Dr. Bellwood of Alliance who was summoned, the spirit took flight and the suffering was ended. Henry Popp was 34 years old and leaves a wife to whom he was married twelve years ago.

They came here two years ago from Blue Hill, Nebr., and settled on a homestead near Ashbrook P. O. Two brothers, John and William Popp, live in the same neighborhood. He was highly respected by those of his neighbors who knew him best and much sorrow was manifested at his sudden death. The remains were shipped to Blue Hill Monday.

Some High-Class Short-Horn Bulls.

I raised the bull calf that took first premium, also calf, that took fifth in same class, in open competition, at our State fair in September 1907. My herd took fourteen ribbons, altogether.

I now have thirty bulls, from one to three years old, which I would like to sell for fall delivery; a car load. I will sell from twelve to twenty; you take your pick for $100 each. I will keep them for two months, feed them oats, alfalfa, etc., get them in good shape.

You take them in December, winter them at home, and they will do you some good. J. G. BRENNER, Broken Bow, Neb.

FACTS

¶ The news items of the home community.

¶ The things in which you are most interested.

¶ The births, weddings, deaths of the people you know.

¶ The social affairs of our own and surrounding towns.

These are the kind of facts this paper gives you in every issue. They are certainly worth the subscription price.
