QUALITY WILL TELL

NOWHERE can quality be made to express care and skill more than in laundering. You can get clothes washed anywhere. But steam laundering means more than washed. It means, 1st—thorough cleansing with steam and harmless soap; 2d—finishing by good machinery and skilled labor. Plain clothes show the result as well as fancy articles. Won't you let us show you? PHONE 160

HEMINGFORD

Postmaster W. F. Walker, Editor.

Mrs. T. C. Carey was an Alliance visitor Saturday.

Miss Dollie Pierce is employed as central at present.

T. J. O'Keefe was an over night visitor Saturday night.

Miss Marie Madsen is saleslady at Norton's at present.

Mrs. Jennie Broshar is a guest at the Kidwell home at present.

Jerry Wells and sons made a trip to town in the new auto Sunday.

B. U. Shepherd was in from Sioux county the fore part of the week.

Alvin Scott went down to Lakeside Monday to work in the hay fields.

Rev. Douglas has been in town for the last week attending to his church matters.

D. W. Kenner came up from Alliance Sunday for a few days rest and visit with old friends.

Mr. Elbert Andre was in Alliance a couple of days last week taking the examinations at normal.

The friends of Mrs. H. J. Ely will be glad to know she is rapidly recovering from her recent illness.

Misses Mary and Edna Carey went to Lead Sunday to visit for a time with Grandma Jensen and other friends.

The social at H. E. Jones' residence last Friday evening was well attended and a very pleasant time is reported by those present.

The West family here are enjoying a visit from Mr. West's sister and family, who arrived the latter part of the week from the South.

Saturday saw a return of our school marm who had been in attendance at normal. They report a very interesting and enjoyable term.

Norbert Frohnafel has opened a clothing and tailor shop in the room north of the Drug store where he will be pleased to meet his friends.

Miss Jean Rustin came up from Alliance the first of the week, where she has been visiting for some time. She was accompanied by a friend.

N. Frohnafel had the misfortune to break the engine in his auto Thursday evening thus putting the machine out of commission for awhile or until repairs arrive.

Our kid nine went over to Marple Sunday and played a game of ball with an aggregation of Alliance and Marple boys. Our boys were victorious as usual, score 11 to 6.

Miss Will Curry is enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Hess, of Chadron. Mrs. Hess was here a year ago and made many friends here who were glad to have her return.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Warren came in from his Sioux county claim Friday last, bringing Oneita and Mary Rowland home. The girls had been enjoying life on the claim for a few weeks.

H. E. Jones made a swift trip to Alliance and return Monday evening. We did not get the exact time, but heard it stated that it was two hours and five minutes, which divides the honor with E. L. Everett.

E. L. Everett, with Sloan at the wheel, made the trial trip to Alliance Friday afternoon, making the trip in two hours and twenty minutes, with a fifteen minutes stop to repair a small break. Pretty good, next.

Miss Mary Iodence drove in from her home near Marple Tuesday to meet some of her lady friends, who came in on 43 that day. Owing to the rain they were compelled to stay in town all night and were entertained at the Olds home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Olds were in Alliance Monday doing some shopping. They were accompanied by Miss Gertie Olds who joined her friend, Miss Willa Bean, there and on Tuesday the two young ladies went to Miss Willa's home at Broken Bow where Gertie will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Costly left last week for Chadron where Mr. Costly will look after his farm for a month or six weeks after which they expect to return here. Later—Mr. Costly returned here Sunday after their goods and said they would not be back as business affairs called him elsewhere.

E. L. Everett and H. E. Jones took a number of base ball enthusiasts to Alliance Sunday to witness the game between Valentine and Alliance. We noticed among those who went were E. L. Everett, Sloan R. Johnson, J. Anderson, Geo. Baker, H. E. Jones, I. Scribner, O. Scribner, C. W. Brown and Dent Piper.

Ira Rolland lost one of his matched team of horses last Thursday morning. It is not known what ailed the animal as she came from the pasture with the rest of the bunch for water in the morning and died a few minutes afterward. This is a heavy loss to Ira as the team was a valuable one and an especial favorite with him.

Mrs. Uhrig and daughter Ida returned from the Big Horn country last week where they went some time ago so that Mrs. Uhrig could take the hot baths at the Springs. Mrs. Uhrig has been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years. Her many friends will be glad to know that she has so far recovered that she is able to walk without the aid of crutches.

MARSLAND.

Some have begun haying.

New potatoes are being used.

J. M. Tollman took some cattle to Omaha Saturday.

Mrs. Hutton of Chadron is here visiting Mrs. Joralemon.

Peter Hunsaker and Mr. Yockey are doing carpenter work at the school house.

The B. & M. have placed an engine at this station to help push heavy trains up the Girard hill.

A great many ranchmen have been in town recently laying in supplies for the haying season.

The proverbial stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bass the other night and presented them with a daughter.

Mrs. G. A. Walbridge and daughter, Elsie, have been visiting for a few days at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moores, up the river.

Mrs. Blanche Richardson and son, Harley, left on Saturday for Cheyenne, Wyo., after a six weeks visit at the Richie hotel.

Roy Richie, who has been visiting the home folks for a fortnight past, returned to his work at Cheyenne, Wyo., on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Brush Hall came up from Alliance recently and are working on a ranche west of town. Mrs. Hall was Miss Mary Rohde.

Quite a fire started the other day at the section house. Sparks from an engine ignited a pile of old, dry tiles, which were piled on the lot.

John Shipley, living west of town, has gone to Hot Springs, S. D., for the benefit of his health, which has been quite poor for some time.

Dayton Sullenberger and George Richey made the mail trip to the Ashbrook post-office last Tuesday and Wednesday, giving the mail carrier a rest.

And now we hear that Mr. Jerry Wells, a Sioux county homesteader, has a Rambler auto. He will hereafter bring his butter and eggs to market with easy locomotion.

Mr. Oglevie, who had his right hand amputated a few days ago, is getting along nicely. He has made a couple of trips to Alliance to have Dr. Bellwood attend to it.

Prof. Barber, of the State University, who is in camp at the bone diggings near Agate, received a message that his father was not expected to live. He left on the first train going east.

Messrs. Poole and Yockey drove out to the McCoy ranche, twelve miles north of town to witness a game of base ball between the Whistle Creek and Crawford boys Sunday afternoon.

True Miller spent last week in town looking after his business interests at the lumber yard. True lives near the Bryan trail up "Whistle Creek" and expects to see the procession go by this fall.

G. A. Walbridge came here to attend to the gasoline engine after Mr. Oglevie's accident. He went down the line Saturday to attend to other work, a man having been sent to attend the coal sheds.

Mrs. G. W. Waisner and daughter of Sheridan, Wyo., who are off for a lengthy visit with friends in towns along the B. & M., came down from Crawford on Saturday and went out to the Furman home for a visit.

Rev. Douglas came in from the Sioux county homestead on Thursday and took the train for Hemingford. He rode in with Will Nicholson who was after a load of coal. Has the Hereford coal played out in Sioux?

S. Snow and his helpers are still working on the telephone line. H. G. Furman had a phone installed at the old ranche, and will have one put in at the homestead. Miss Hazel Furman and J. B. Walker will soon be on the line.

Mrs. Decell, who has a homestead about twenty miles up the river, left on Wednesday for Colorado Springs, having received a message that her nephew, a young man of that place, had been drowned. A small boat, in which they were in, tipped over and several were drowned.

We see by the catalog of the Chadron Academy that this side of the ridge is represented by George Taylor and Guy McCoy, both of whom have been elected trustees of that institution. The academy is in a good position financially, the old indebtedness having been paid off.

RENO.

Mrs. O. R. Hale visited in Reno Wednesday.

Fred Helling was a Reno visitor Wednesday.

Little Loydie Berry is quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. G. E. Rooker visited in Lakeside Monday.

Ernest Rooks visited at L. D. Blair's Sunday afternoon.

J. C. Berry has gone to the Black Hills this week on a business trip.

Cecil Wilson and wife returned from their Denver trip Monday evening.

Mr. Brice's son from Alliance has been visiting him the past few days.

W. G. Wilson is erecting two windmills on his summer range this week.

Reno was visited with a nice rain Tuesday night which was needed very much.

Winona Blair is assisting her grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Berry, this week with her work.

Miss Manchie Berry returned home from Alliance Saturday evening after spending six weeks at normal.

Geo. Kiess is building a new frame house, 14x22. Girls, this is leap year, so you had better come around.

Mrs. Anna and Lula Wilson attended the Wilson-Higgins wedding which took place at Alliance Thursday eve.

O. R. Hale and Todd Berry went to Alliance Wednesday after a span of horses Mr. Hale had bought of Bud Betzold.

Wm. Andrews, who has been visiting his brother-in-law, W. G. Wilson, the past week, left for his home in Iowa Monday evening on 44.

Jack Barry of Alliance stayed over night in Reno Tuesday. He had been northeast of here looking at some land he thought of filing on.

HASTINGS COLLEGE, HASTINGS, NEB.

FOUNDED IN 1882

LOCATION

Hastings is the fourth city of Nebraska, having a population of over 12,000, and is supplied with handsome public buildings, elegant residences, metropolitan stores, and beautiful churches. It is also an important railroad center, being located on the C. B. & Q., St. J. & G. I., C. & N. W. and M. P. railways. There are also three branch lines of the Burlington route, so that access is easy from any quarter.

FACULTY

It consists of twelve cultured men and women representing eight different universities and colleges. Post-graduate work at Harvard, Chicago, Princeton, Yale, Berlin and Heidelberg gives their teaching and scholarship unusual breadth and thoroughness.

DEPARTMENTS

1. THE COLLEGE, offering two courses for degrees, with many electives.
2. THE ACADEMY, offering high school training under college professors.
3. THE NORMAL SCHOOL, issuing teachers' certificates under state authority.
4. THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, with courses in voice, piano, pipe organ, violin and musical theory.

EQUIPMENT

There are four buildings: Kingland Hall, a men's dormitory and refectory; McCornick Hall, the principal recitation building; Alexander Hall, a women's dormitory; Carnegie building, the library and scientific laboratories. Facilities for college and science work are unsurpassed and all buildings have steam heat and electric lights.

Next year begins Sept. 8, 1908. Handsome catalogue and illustrated souvenir free upon application to
