

The Man With A Millstone About His Neck

The millstone is lack of special training. It holds one man down to hard work and small wages while others, properly trained, go ahead. But every man and woman who is laboring under such a burden can easily rise to a better position and increased earnings and can find out how for the asking.

To find out how, simply write the I. C. S., stating the position you wish to gain. In return, an institution with 15 years of successful experience in training thousands of others for advancement will tell you how it can fit YOU for a better-paying position. No risk to run. No books to buy. Isn't such a chance for advancement worth this much to you?

RELATIONS ARE STRAINED

Venezuelan Consul Takes Refuge in German Consulate.

Relations between Venezuela and the island of Curacao are strained to the breaking point. Following a series of what the residents of Curacao regard as antagonistic actions on the part of President Castro directed against themselves and the Dutch government, mobs gathered in this capital and expressed their resentment in an attack on the home of a Venezuelan who had published statements derogatory to the residents of the island. They surrounded the German consulate, where the Venezuelan consul had taken refuge, and compelled the ordering of armed troops so that the consul might be protected from injury.

The demonstration before the residence of the Venezuelan consul, Senor Lopez, occurred late at night and, although no actual attack was made, it is said that two shots were fired from the consul's house, no one being injured. Prior to this a mob, numbering about 1,000, gathered in front of the dwelling of a Venezuelan resident who, it is alleged, had insulted Curacao in Venezuelan papers. They broke down the doors with stones and, seizing the man, compelled him to sign a paper which set forth an elaborate excuse for the publication of the statements with which he was charged. The leaders also forced him to make a public apology from the balcony of his home, while the crowd below hooted in accompaniment. Furthermore, members of the man's family were compelled to play the Dutch national hymn, while the people below shouted: "Down with Castro; long may Wilhelmina live."

The police were unable to cope with the demonstrators and their efforts in this direction were somewhat feeble. No bodily harm was done to anyone, but the shouting and cheering continued for a time. The next morning it was noted that there was no shield on the building occupied by the Venezuelan consul. It is not known whether it was removed by the Venezuelans or torn down by Curacao natives. There was another gathering of the mob and when it was learned that the mob had proceeded to the Venezuelan consulate this building was surrounded by an over-increasing mob. The attorney general made an effort to quiet the populace, which was becoming more and more excited all the time. A small military force attempted to check the demonstration, but for a time that was impossible. It became necessary to call out additional troops, who proceeded to patrol the streets. Consul Lopez was conducted to the Venezuelan consulate by an armed force, where he gathered up his belongings and was escorted to his home. The troops that accompanied him were compelled to force themselves through a large crowd. An armed guard was left to protect the Venezuelan consulate and another guard was stationed at the consul's residence. Other troops continued patrolling the city.

Atlantic Fleet Heard From. Wireless messages received at Honolulu gave the position of the American fleet at 8 o'clock Saturday night at latitude 9 degrees 32 minutes north, longitude 163 degrees west, a distance of 775 miles from Honolulu. The weather was reported fair and warm, with a moderate sea. The Minnesota, which at that hour was 300 miles astern of the fleet, was making 14 knots and was expected to rejoin the fleet on Thursday.

HEMINGFORD

Postmaster W. F. Walker, Editor.

D. W. Butler Sundayed with his family in Alliance.

Mrs. H. R. Olds is visiting friends in Chadron this week.

Byron Fosket and sons visited in town the last of the week.

Mrs. Alice Curtis was visiting friends in this locality recently.

Miss Opal Russell was a visitor in these parts Saturday and Sunday.

C. H. Hubbell was in from his Sioux county ranch Tuesday for supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bass and Edith Broshar were in from Canton Saturday.

D. W. Kenner returned to Alliance Sunday to resume his work on the railroad.

Mrs. D. J. O'Keefe returned last week from a three weeks visit with friends in Kansas City.

Anna Hanna returned Sunday from a recent visit with relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Clark Faulkner from Illinois unloaded a car of goods the first of the week. He has a claim near Agate.

L. Leavitt returned from the Black Hills Tuesday. He has been up in that country looking around.

The Tash and O'Keefe families were up from Alliance to attend the funeral services of Uncle Zeke Mabin.

C. C. Hucke went up to Hot Springs, S. D. last Saturday for a little outing, returning Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Colvin are taking a pleasure trip up in the hills this week. Mrs. Colvin's health is poor and they thought the change would do her good.

Mrs. G. W. Wainser and daughter, Clara, old time residents of this locality, visited here a few days last week. They resumed their journey eastward Saturday.

Uncle Grove Fosket visited his numerous friends and relatives in and around here recently. Grove is ranching it over in the Snake creek country and doing well. Come oftener Grove.

Rev. Eggers disposed of most of his household goods last Saturday. Rev. and Mrs. Eggers expect to leave for their new home in Indiana in the near future. While we regret to lose so worthy people from our midst, we sincerely hope that our loss is their gain and that they will decide to return here at some future time. Should they do so they will meet a very warm welcome.

On last Thursday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock occurred the death of Uncle Zeke Mabin at his home four miles southwest of town. Although his death had been expected for several days it came as a shock to the community. Uncle Zeke was one of the early settlers of this county and an old soldier and was widely known. The funeral services were held at the Congregational church at this place Sunday afternoon conducted by the G. A. R., Rev. Burleigh delivering the sermon after which a large crowd followed the remains to their last resting place. Besides an aged mother, a wife and three sons he leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss. The entire community extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

MARSLAND.

G. A. Walbridge and family left on Sunday for their home at Edgemont.

E. E. Harner has bought a new binding machine and will soon begin cutting grain.

Miss Laura Lemon is down from Crawford for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Hughes.

Crops in this valley are looking fine. Wheat is well headed and potatoes and corn are looking well.

True Miller went home on Saturday and had his wagon loaded with screen doors. No flies on True.

John Kay of Linton's ranch sold twenty head of steers to J. M. Tollman, who shipped them to Omaha.

Louis Homrighousen of south table came in on Saturday after a new water tank to place at his yards.

The Hemingford and Crawford base ball teams will cross bats on the Marsland diamond on next Sunday morning.

L. Ashbrook was down from the ranch on Saturday and as usual went out with his vehicle loaded down with supplies.

Work began Monday on the spur to the telephone line leading out past T. E. Hunsbachers, Ed Olligs, Frank Moores and Charles Greggs.

Mr. Witke painted the roof and chimney and put on the finishing touches to the interior of Dr. Willis' new home, green and cream being the prevailing colors.

prudent housewife, so that caoning "kass" is the order of the day.

While in this place a week ago, Rev. Douglas received a message that his father was sinking rapidly. He took the first passenger train going east to be at the bedside of the sick one.

A gang of men have been opening up the B. & M. freights. It would be well for farmers to do likewise, thereby averting disastrous fires which rage in the autumn over our big prairies.

About fifteen young misses and little girls occupied the rostrum at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night and led out in the music for the preaching service. Rev. Woodard occupied the pulpit.

Miss Winnie Cadwalder came up from Alliance on Thursday where she had attended the entire term of junior normal. Miss Winnie is one of our eighth grade graduates and took highest honors in her class.

Miss Elsie Neeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Neeland, a well known family living down the river, was married to Mr. Clarence Raum at Crawford recently. Both young people were Chadron Academy graduates.

Word is received from the McGogy's, who went to the coast a short time ago, that they have gone into camp a few miles out of North Yam Hill. They are enjoying the outing and Mr. McGogy feels better than when they left.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ford came down on Saturday after coal and other supplies. Their son, Laurence, who is clerking in a drug store at Benson, will come home in August when there will be a happy reunion of the Ford family.

One of Gid Dumon's cows concluded to buck the railroad company and consequently had an encounter with a passenger engine. It is needless to say that old Sooky got the worst of it and now peacefully sleeps inside the right of way.

G. M. Burns has been hired by the school board in the McLaughlin district to teach their school the coming year. That district has money to burn, so we hear, and from the fullness thereof pays the same wages paid by the Marsland district.

We read with considerable pleasure the little item regarding Mr. Betzold of Alliance being taken for Taft in some of the eastern places, and we concluded that this is what comes of a man engaging in a high toned business, he is immediately taken for "somebody."

Charley and Will Grey came down from the Sioux county homestead Saturday, remaining over Sunday. Their time is pretty well taken up between the home place, which they are looking after in the absence of their parents, and the homestead fifteen miles up the river.

George P. Moorhead, of South Omaha, traveling solicitor for Smith Bros. Commission firm, has been in this vicinity the past week calling on stockmen and soliciting their patronage. We are told that there is no more responsible company doing business in the great western market place.

At strange state of affairs exists in our county seat, Chadron. They have a large and enthusiastic Y. M. C. A. and on last Sabbath the meeting was conducted entirely by the railroad officials, over one hundred railroad employes taking part. There are some things Chadron can't boast of, but she can well be proud of her Y. M. C. A.

Mr. LaBlanch, traveling salesman for the Charles City Iowa nursery, is here again this season taking orders for nursery stock and has been very successful in his sales. Many who bought nursery stock last year have again purchased. The firm is very reliable and send out an excellent quality of trees and shrubbery.

L. Snow arrived home after a week spent in Sioux county erecting telephone lines. The people as far west as Octive Harris are now in communication with Marsland and all the other big places in northwest Nebraska. The work seems to agree with Mr. Snow and he comes in with a complexion brown as a butterfat and a nose red as a beet.

Our eighth grade graduates are receiving catalogs and personal invitations from many of the academies and colleges of western Nebraska, but nearly all will attend school at home this coming year. Our school board has secured the services of Miss Anna Kennedy of Alliance who is amply qualified to conduct the studies laid down for the coming year.

B. E. Johnson of Hemingford returned this week from Omaha, where he purchased two cars of mowers and binders of the Johnson and Acme manufacture, also a large supply of twine. It will pay those in need of such machinery to call and inspect his line and get prices.

What are you doing with yourself? Classical, scientific, normal, business and musical courses. Expenses light! Teachers fine!! Near at hand!!! Send for catalog. Chadron Academy, Chadron, Nebraska.

THOUGHTS ON BUSINESS

BY WALDO PONDRAY WARREN

WHAT THE EMPLOYER DOESN'T KNOW

THE abuse of delegated authority occasions much injustice which those higher in power do not always realize. Many things are done by subordinates that the manager would not sanction.

Near closing time in a large office one young woman was seen crying and another was trying to comfort her.

"What's the matter, Grace?"

"Oh, Mr. Thomas said I had to work again to-night," she sobbed. "I am so tired I can hardly think. This makes four nights this week. Last night I was here till after 10 o'clock, and then got scolded this morning because I was a few minutes late."

"Didn't he ask you if you were able to stay?"

"No, he didn't. He just came along and said, 'We want you to stay and help to-night.'"

"Why don't you speak to him about it?"

"I did that once and he made it so unpleasant for me I don't want to ask him again."

"Then why don't you go and tell Mr. Dodson?"

"That would be worse than ever, for he would make a fuss and Mr. Thomas would take his grudge out on me for the next two months. If Mr. Dodson would only look around once in a while and find out what is going on here he could have something to say for himself without waiting for complaints."
