STATEMENT BY ROOSEVELT.

Taft Not Responsible for Dismissal of Negro Troops. President Roosevelt, in a statement in this vicinity. issued made it clear that the entire responsibility was his for the is suance of the original order discharging the battalion of negro soldiers for alleged participation in the Brownsville (Tex.) rioting and the refusal to permit a suspension of that order The president was shown the inter view which was had in Washington with General Henry C. Lorbin, U. S. A retired in which General Corbin stated that no credit or blame in the matter rested with Mr. Tait. After reading the interview, the president gave out the following: "General Corbin's statement is entirely true week and it was proper that he should make it. The substance of the message from the president which he quoted was made long ago. As to the Brownsville matter, the entire reponsibility for issuing the original order and for declining to allow its sistension was the president. In his interview General Corbin stated in substance that Mr. Taft was in no way responsible for the order discharging the battalion of the Twenty-fifth infantry and that in doing so the then secretary of war had obeyed the direct order of the president. General Corbin then recounted the circumstances as they occurred and were published following the Brownsville affair

HARRY K. THAW A BANKRUPT. Detective Roger O'Mara Is Appointed Receiver.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy friends at Alliance and Broken Bow. was filed in the United States court at Pittsburg, Pa., by an attorney representing Harry K. Thaw of Pittsburg, who is now confined in the ple from town Sundayed on the river, Dutchess county (N. Y.) jail. In the petition it is stated his assets are $128,012.38 and liabilities $453,140.43. Roger O'Mara, a well known Pitts burg detective and personal friend of the Thaw family, was appointed as receiver. The most interesting information given regarding the proceedings is to be found in the petition asking for the appointment of a receiver, in which it is alleged that the action is taken for the purpose of prewhich are unjust. The figures in the bankruptcy petition show that this refers to the lawyers and doctors. Loans amounting to $191,500 from his disputed. Jewelers Meet Next at Omaha. The convention of the American Association of Retail Jewelers came to a close at Cincinnati Friday. The convention passed by an unanimous vote a resolution opposing state inspection of trainmen's watches. The association approved the resolution of the Oklahoma Retail Jewelers' association, which favors a minimum fixed selling price for all jewelry, a system now in vogue, as affecting certain watches. Omaha was selected as the place of meeting next year.
